MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the membership shall be held each year as designated by the Board of Directors in Union County, Illinois, for the purpose of electing the Directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

SECTION 2. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the member may be called either by the President or the Board of Directors or upon the written request of any 15 regular members.

SECTION 3. Place of Meeting.

The Board of Directors may designate any place as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the Board of Directors so long as the place of the meeting is in Union County, Illinois.

SECTION 4. Notice.

Except when notice is waived as hereinafter provided, electronic mail, written or printed notice of any meeting shall be sent by the Secretary to all members by mailing the same, postage prepaid, at least fourteen days prior to the meeting, addressed to the member at their respective preferred addresses, either electronic or physical mailing address, as recorded upon the books of the club. Such notice shall state the place, day and hour of the meeting and except for regular meetings, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. No notice of regular or special meeting of the members is required if all regular members file with the records of the meeting, written waivers of such notice. In the absence or disability of the Secretary, notice as provided for herein may be sent by any officer of the club as may be designated by the Board of Directors. If mailed, notice of a meeting shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States Mail addressed to the member at his or her address as it appears on the record of the corporation with postage thereon prepaid. If sent via electronic mail, notice shall be deemed delivered when sent. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

SECTION 5. Fixing of the Record Date.

For the purpose of determining the members entitled to notice of or of regular members entitled to vote at any meeting of the members, or to make a determination of members for any other purpose, the Board of Directors of the corporation may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of members, such date in any case to be no more than 60 days and, for a meeting of regular meeting. If no record date is fixed for the determination of members entitled to notice and vote at a meeting of members, the date of which notice of the meeting is delivered shall be the record date for such determination of members.

SECTION 6. Quorum.

The holders of at least 25% of memberships which may be cast at a meeting of the corporation, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the consideration of such matter of any meeting of members; provided that, if less than that number are represented at said meeting, a majority of the votes so represented may adjourn the meeting at any time to another time and place and date without further notice. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes represented at the meeting shall be the act of the members. ### SECTION 7. Manner of Acting.

The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be an act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by statute, the bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation. No director may act by proxy on any matter. However, a member of the board of directors may be present via telephonic communication or any other electronic medium so long as the individual is able to be heard and is able to hear the other directors as if he were physically present.

SECTION 8. Vacancies.

A Director elected or appointed, as the case may be, to fill a vacancy, shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office and notice of such election shall be posted at the clubhouse as soon as practicable thereafter.

Vacancies occurring in any month other than the month that the annual meeting is occurring shall be filled by appointment by the Board of Directors. A Director elected or appointed, as the case may be, to fill a vacancy, shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office and notice of such election shall be posted at the clubhouse as soon as practicable thereafter

SECTION 9. Resignation and Removal of Directors.

A Director may resign at any time upon written notice to the Board of Directors. A Director may be removed with or without cause as specified by statute.

SECTION 10. Informal Action by Directors.

The authority of the Board of Directors may be exercised without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, is signed by all of the Directors entitled to vote.

SECTION 11. Compensation.

The Board of Directors shall serve without compensation and shall pay dues as required of regular members.

SECTION 12. Presumption of Assent.

A Director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which any action on any corporate matter is taken shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he or she shall file his or her written dissent to such action with the person acting as Secretary of the meeting before adjournment.

SECTION 13. Establishment of Volunteer Program.

The Board of Directors can establish and designate rules, regulations, privileges and procedures for a volunteer program for the purpose of providing assistance to the Union County Country Club golf professional superintendent in the day to day operation and maintenance of the golf course. The Board of Directors in its discretion can establish any other volunteer programs or activities as it deem necessary or convenient to promote marketing or community involvement.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Designation.

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice President, a Treasurer and a Secretary. The Treasurer and the Secretary may be, but are not required to be, members of the Board of Directors. The officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors. All officers shall hold offices for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. Any officer may be removed by the Board of Directors for cause. The Treasurer shall have custody of all the financial records and documents and the seal of the club, provided, however, that in the event that a bond is required of the Treasurer by the Board of Directors, such bond shall be kept by the Secretary.

In the case of absence or disability of the Treasurer, the Board of Directors may appoint an Assistant Treasurer.

SECTION 5. Secretary

The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the members and of the Board of Directors and keep a detailed record of all votes and business transacted thereat in a book to be kept for that purpose and of which the Secretary shall have custody but which shall be at all times open to inspection by any of the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall conduct the correspondences of the club and shall give notices of all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall keep the rolls of the classes of membership, receive all requests for application for membership, and notify the Admission Committee of such applications. The Secretary shall notify the Treasurer of all persons elected to membership; the Secretary shall perform other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe or as may be imposed upon him/her by law.

In case of absence or disability of the Secretary, the Board of Directors may appoint an Assistant Secretary.

ARTICLE VI.

COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors shall appoint the following committees for conducting the affairs of the club:

SECTION 1. Grounds Committee.

Subject to the ultimate authority of the Board of Directors, this committee shall consist of three regular members of the club of whom at least one shall be a member of the Board of Directors. It shall have charge and control of the ground and all club property and employees that are not placed in charge of the House Committee. It shall perform such other duties as shall be delegated to it by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. House and Golf Committee.

Subject to the ultimate authority of the Board of Directors, this committee shall consist of three members of whom at least one shall be a member of the Board of Directors. The House Committee shall have charge and control of the club house, its contents and the employees connected with the club house. In addition, this committee shall be in charge of all matters pertaining to the playing of golf upon the property of the Union County Country Club. It shall perform such other duties as shall be delegated to it by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. Other Committees.

The Board of Directors may appoint such other committees as to them seem necessary and proper for the administration of the club's affairs.

SECTION 4. Term, Officers of Committee Members.

The term of office for any committee member shall be one year. Vacancies in committees may be filled by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII.

FEES, DUES AND ASSESSMENTS.

SECTION 1.

Membership fees shall be decided by the Board of Directors out of determination of necessity or convenience.

Annual dues, cart, private cart privilege fees and assessments — Annual dues shall be recommended by the Board of Directors to the regular membership for approval or rejection and shall be payable as follows:

One-half shall be paid by February 1 of each year and the balance by May 1 of each year.

The Board of Directors has authority to modify the dates upon which all annual dues, assessments, private cart privilege fees are due, and has authority to designate that said payments can be made on a quarterly basis, if such a payment schedule is deemed advisable by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Special Assessments.

Special assessments may be fixed from time to time by the membership upon recommendation of the Board of Directors. No special assessment shall be effective until approved by the members.

SECTION 3.

Private Carts — Members of any class, regular or otherwise, may, upon payment of the sum set by the membership, maintain and operate privately owned golf carts. Payment of the private cart privilege fee shall entitle the member to have the use of a cart shed for storage of said golf cart for the year for which the fee was paid, and may use the golf cart at any time that the golf cart is not closed to golf cart use. The Board of Directors has authority to designate reasonable rules and policies pertaining to the use of private carts by the members.

SECTION 4. Indebtedness of Members to the Club.

All financial obligations to the club must be paid by the members, irrespective of class, within 30 days of the due date. Lists of members in default shall be posted, and the Board of Directors may suspend the playing privileges and cart shed rental space of any member whose name is so posted. If the default continues for more than 30 days after the posting of the list of members in default, the Board of Directors may take action upon the indebtedness for the purpose of enforcing collection by any additional action including, but not limited to, revoking a membership as to any member who does not meet the financial obligations to the club incurred by membership.

SECTION 5.

Any member whose membership has been revoked for failure to meet his or her financial obligations to the club incurred by membership, shall be notified, in writing, addressed to the last known mailing address or email address as reflected in the club membership list, of such revocation. Said member may have his membership reinstated upon payment of the full amount due.

ARTICLE VIII.

EXPENDITURES OF THE CLUB

SECTION 1. Expenditures

No cumulative expenditures, not already provided for in the Annual Budget, in excess of $50,000.00 shall be made by the Board of Directors without the approval of at least two-thirds of the regular members of the club in attendance at a regular or special meeting to consider such expenditure.

The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the everyday expenditures of the Union County Country Club, subject to the provision of these bylaws.

ARTICLE IX.

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the club shall begin on the 1st day of January and shall terminate on the 31st day of December.

ARTICLE X.

AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1.

These bylaws may be altered at the annual meeting at which there is an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the regular members present, a total number of members which must be greater than or equal to twenty-five percent of the of the memberships of the corporation. Alternatively, if any member feels that an amendment to the bylaws is necessary at any time other than the annual meeting, said member shall propose the amendment to the bylaws at any meeting of the Board of Directors of UCCC, at which time the board will consider and vote on whether or not to call a special meeting for the purposes of amending the bylaws. A simple majority of the Board of Directors shall determine whether to call a special meeting for the purposes of amending the bylaws. The standard for amending the bylaws at a special meeting is the same as the annual meeting described above.

i Section 7., Proxies, was restated at the special meeting held on February 23, 2017 due to its ambiguity and contradictory nature. As it was written, UCCC could not comply with its own bylaws due to the contradictory conditions as to when proxies could be used. The previous section read: Each member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may authorize another person to act for him or her by proxy for the purpose of electing Directors only. This was contradictory to Section 6, Quorum.
