Class Limited to 20 students.

One of the most common mistakes Beginners make is Doing Too Much, Too Soon. They plunge headlong into finding everything they can of their ancestors without a thought about instruction or direction, only to find themselves buried in a pile of disorganized and irrelevant documents and data.

The course goal is not to overwhelm the Beginner, but to slowly introduce them to the exciting world of genealogy and family history research.

The Beginner will learn how to record, names, dates, places and sources; how to read & complete the most widely used genealogical charts and forms; will learn fundamental research and organizational skills; will be introduced to the latest genealogy software & learn how to access and search the world's largest FREE genealogical library online.
