CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2019
Sunday, Jan. 27th – Friday, Feb. 1st
Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.

This national celebration of Catholic Schools provides us with the opportunity for celebration and engagement with students and families. Our various activities invite us to reflect on the value and importance that Catholic education gives to the school and Community, Church, and the World.

Sunday, Jan. 27th - Opening Mass, 9:30am, OLS. Potluck immediately following at the SCM Parish Center. We would like 100% participation. As we assemble at the beginning of our week-long celebration, we demonstrate our commitment to Catholic Education. Please return the attendance form below.

Monday, Jan. 28th - 100th Day of School, minus 1. Students should dress as if they were 100 years old.

Tuesday, Jan. 29th - Note change Celebrating Students. We will walk to the C St. Bowling Alley. Students may wear their Spirit Gear and Free Dress Bottoms.

Wednesday, Jan. 30th - Science Fair - Set up will begin after lunch with judging to follow. Our exhibit will be open for viewing at 6:30pm at school. Refreshments will be served. (Please sign up below)

Thursday, Jan. 31th - Note change Please join us, Tip Your Hat To Your Teachers to say “Thank You” for all they do! Students may wear their favorite hat. Our Annual Talent Show 1:15pm, at OLS Parish Center. Please have your student notify their teacher, as to what their talent will be. If we could know by Wed. Jan. 30th, this will allow time for a program to be created.

Friday, Feb. 1st - PJ Day & Breakfast immediately after morning prayer, provided by HSA. Movies & Popcorn in the afternoon, to close our celebration.

REMINDERS.....

1. Due to our short week and various activities, no spelling tests for 2 weeks for the 3rd Grade.
2. Young Authors entries are due tomorrow, Thursday, Jan. 24th
3. Our Masquerade Auction & Gala event is approaching quickly. We are still in need of silent & live auction donations. Raffle & event tickets are still available in the office.
