

WHAT HAPPENS ON A CEC WEEKEND & WHERE IS IT?

- Step away from everyday routines to reflect upon your personal life & faith
- Not a quiet retreat, rather a lively, joyous Holy Spirit-filled weekend experience
- Opportunity for a deep personal encounter with Christ
- Spiritual talks by priests, clergy, and other Christian men/women
- Talk themes based upon Catholic faith ... from Grace, Faith, Sacraments to knowing, loving & serving God
- Daily celebration of Mass & reconciliation available
- Experience Benediction, Adoration & Eucharistic Exposition
- Join others in song, prayer, worship and conversation
- Learn about God's grace within us, how this grace comes more alive in a Christian community, and how we can share this grace with others
- Come away with a clearer sense of priorities in life & faith, new friendships, and a closer relationship with God
- Men & women attend separate weekends.
- If married, couples are both encouraged to attend a CEC weekend in the same season or within a year of one another

As you come on Friday evening as a participant, you will be greeted by other men/women who have previously attended a CEC weekend and serve to help as the weekend unfolds.

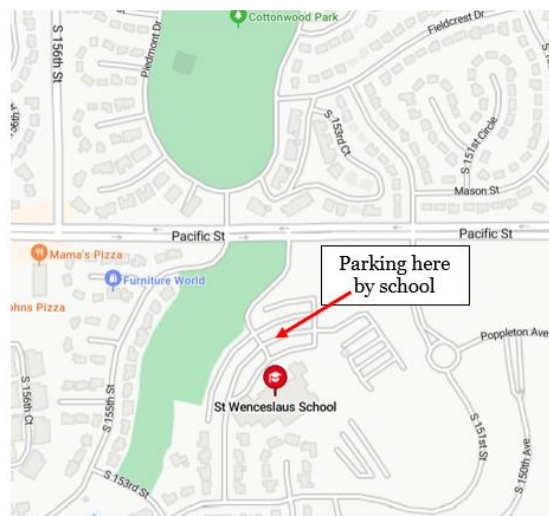

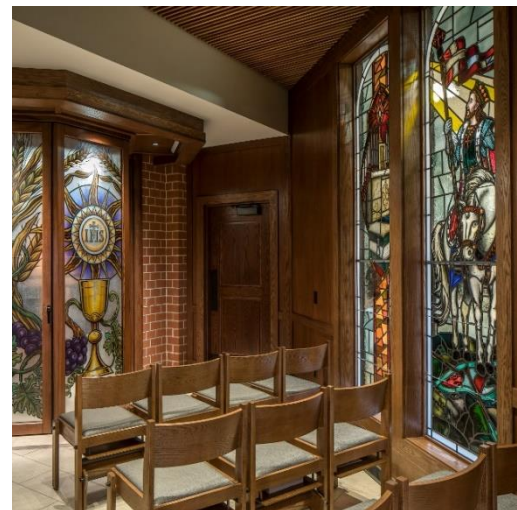

CEC weekends are held at St. Wenceslaus Church, Cain Hall, 15353 Pacific St, Omaha, NE 68154, beginning late Friday afternoon to Sunday evening.

The all-inclusive CEC weekend fee of $150 covers food, lodging and materials. Lodging is at Holiday Inn Express, 17677 Wright St., Omaha NE 68130. Financial Scholarships are available. Double occupancy is standard, private or handicap rooms available for extra fee.

CEC WEEKEND LOCATION & LODGING

CEC has access to the St Wenceslaus Chapel for mass, Cain Hall for activities, and the cafeteria for meals during our CEC weekends.

Holiday Inn Express, 17677 Wright St., Omaha NE 68130

https://www.ihg.com/holidayinnexpress/hotels/us/en/omaha/omawc/hoteldetail?cm_mmc=BingMaps--EX--US--OMAWC

