Biography

Edward A. Schramski, 75, of Port Hope, passed away on January 4, 2022 at McLaren Port Huron Hospital. He was born on August 15, 1946 in Hamtramck, Michigan to the late John and Helen (Rybak) Schramski. Ed was one of eight children and was raised on the family farm in Kinde, Michigan. He graduated from Kinde High School in 1963 then continued his education at Michigan State University earning a Master's Degree. Ed then joined the U.S. Army and served in the Vietnam War. He worked at the Farm Home Administration in Port Huron, then as a county extension agent for Lapeer County before moving to Port Hope to become a dairy farmer. Ed was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Dwight Township and the American Legion Post 449 in Port Austin. He enjoyed farming, watching tractor pulls, going to the stock yards, watching sports especially football, and going fishing. In his later years, Ed enjoyed going to the parades to march with the veterans and helped out with military honors at funerals. No matter how busy he was, Ed always found time to attend family gatherings.
