

LUANN BATTERSBY

Luann considers herself a life-long Adams County resident. However, she can't run for office since she wasn't born here. She and her husband live on a farm in Fairfield, PA. She spends most of her time working, but when she does have some down time, she likes to read, loves to go to the movies at the Majestic and watch Masterpiece on TV. Zumba at the YWCA is fun; yoga is enriching, and she has a love music, but knows enough not to sing. Her favorite dessert is Cherry pie (made with Montmorency/sour cherries). Her favorite part of Pippinfest is seeing friends up and down the street. Then comes Pennsylvania Dutch soul food: chicken corn soup and apple fritters.

Luann is part owner of Battersby Law Office in 2013. Luann specializes in planning for wealth management through wills & trusts, guardianship for children and the elderly, probate and estate management, and real estate law. She was admitted to the Maryland Court of Appeals, DC Courts, and United States Patent and Trademark Office.

She has a bachelor's in food science from Penn State; Master's in biomedical studies from Hood College; Master of Health Science in Molecular Microbiology and Immunology from Johns Hopkins School of Public Health; Juris Doctorate from Georgetown Law Center.

Battersby Law Office

is located at West Main Street, Fairfield, PA, and their phone number is 717-642-6260. You can also email them at FairLaw1@comcast.net

Luann, thank you so much for taking time out of your extremely busy schedule to volunteer to judge the Apple Baking Contest this year! We know your time is valuable and appreciate your support!