Good morning to my beloved son. It was so good to visit with you for a little while last week. I was encouraged to see that you have gained a little weight, and to learn that you will soon be getting the treatment for your skin. It's good to know that the cancers are not going to "take over". I'm glad they are watching for them and treating them early.

Agent Chris Smith telephoned me twice. He was aggressively searching for your records. He called me first to let me know he was looking for them. He also told me he was going to ask permission to take them to you personally. He said he did not know if it could be possible, but was going to ask anyway. His second call was for the purpose of telling me what he had found. He located your records, and asked if he could take them to you. The person in charge told him that would not be the proper thing to do at this time, because you had submitted a request for special Counsel in your appeal. That Attorney will be appointed for you. The proper way to get your documents for your appeal is to have your appointed Attorney get them for you. You will be able to give your Attorney a list of what you need, and they will provide everything you request.

That is my understanding of how it is to work. I hope that by the time you get this letter, you will already be working with that Attorney. What I would like for you to do is to write a detailed list of instructions of what you need me to do, in the order needed. Seems to me that the things you are assembling there will really be beneficial to your case. The errors should be at the top of the list. Especially the one made when Kemp did not "object" to the error.

We are praying that all will work out for your benefit. Trust in Romans 8:28. You belong to God, and nothing happens to you by chance. We are OK. Walter loaned us a vehicle to drive while ours is in the shop. God is good!

Love you to the moon and back.

Mother
