To whom it may concern:

Based on his history of providing high-quality products and impeccable service, we are writing today to recommend James McDay and his company, We Be Ribs.

We Be Ribs has been one of our vendors at the Huntington Center in Toledo, Ohio since our opening in 2009. James provides us with pulled pork, St. Louis style ribs, and barbeque sauce that is served in our Luxury Suites and in a portable location. James often attends events and interacts with the customers, earning him much respect in the community.

We enjoy partnering with local companies, and the quality products and great relationship have set We Be Ribs apart. James sets high standards for his products and it shows. Communication is open and honest and new ideas are received well. Orders are always filled in a timely manner with the freshest product. We know that we can always depend on We Be Ribs.

In closing, we would recommend We Be Ribs to anyone who is seeking a vendor with high standards and delicious barbeque. The quality and service will not disappoint.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Toledo Mud Hens organization believes in building strong and successful partnerships with local businesses. One of those successes is our relationship with We Be Ribs. This will be the 8th season we have partnered with We Be Ribs. We sell their BBQ Pulled Pork, Baked Beans, BBQ Sauce, and Ribs within the ballpark.

Owner, James McDay, is great to work with. He continuously meets our high demands for quality and service. James attends several games throughout the season to support his product and our fans enjoy interacting with him.

The baked beans and pulled pork sell the best and we consistently receive the most compliments on those items. In fact, we've had so many baked bean requests from our groups and parties that it has become a staple on our Picnic/Catering Menu and our number one requested side dish. The Pulled Pork is a fan favorite sandwich throughout the ballpark food stations. This season we added Pulled Pork Nachos to the menu and the item is already getting great feedback.

The Toledo Mud Hens and A Cut Above Catering ask that you consider We Be Ribs if you're looking for a proven, quality, BBQ product to add to your line-up.
