

Annual Federal Allies Institute National Awards Ceremony Honors Recipients at Washington Days Conference 2016

Washington, D.C. (September 20, 2016) The following exemplary individuals and companies were honored today at the Annual Federal Allies Institute National Awards Ceremony held during FAI Washington Days Conference 2016.

The awards recognize outstanding contributions within the federal contracting community.

Federal Allies Institute Outstanding Community Service Award 2015

Employees of Avanti Corporation
Alexandria, Virginia

The award was received on behalf of the employees of Avanti Corporation, Alexandria, Virginia by Lynn Petrazzuolo, President & CEO, Avanti Corporation.

Federal Allies Institute Small Business Advocate of the Year 2015

John F. Long
Chief Strategy Officer
NetVision Resources Inc.
Chantilly, Virginia

Federal Allies Institute Contractor of the Year 2015

Kathy Warden
Corporate Vice President & President
Northrop Grumman Information Systems
Sector Headquarters McLean, Virginia. Additional locations Burlington, Massachusetts, Chantilly, Virginia, Fairfax, Virginia, McLean, and Fareham, Hants, United Kingdom

The award was received on behalf of Northrop Grumman Information Systems by Tizoc S. Loza, Corporate Manager Global Supplier Diversity Programs, Northrop Grumman Corporation.

About Federal Allies Institute

Federal Allies Institute was established at Joint Base Fort Myer-Henderson Hall, Virginia during National Small Business Week 2008. Federal Allies is dedicated to business and federal contracting best practices. Federal Allies sponsors Corporate Ethics Certification and other educational and networking programs at the request of the business and government federal contracting community.

Contact David T. Boddie, Executive Director, 571-217-0823, dboddie@federalallies.org