

Bio: Vinny Barile

Vinny Barile was elected to the Commission for the Town of Sewall's Point in 2012. As Commissioner he also serves on numerous committees such as the Florida League of Cities Urban Administration Committee, Treasure Coast League of Cities, Martin County Metropolitan Planning Organization, Martin County Tourist Development council. In addition, Commissioner Barile serves at the voting delegate to the Florida League of Cities representing Sewall's Point.

Commissioner Barile relocated from New York to Florida in 1999 with his wife, Denise. He previously served in the U.S. Navy (naval aviation) from 1964 to 1968 in Jacksonville, Florida. After leaving the Navy, he worked in various industries in both sales and management and was eventually employed by a major communications company. While at that company, he was responsible for many large projects until retirement. He has owned a residential real estate company in Florida since 2001.

Commissioner Barile considers it an honor to serve the residents of Sewall's Point as well as representing the Town on the following committees