

PAUL RUBY

Died Friday, Aug. 11, 1995

Paul Ruby, about 72, Thumb native and former resident of Pigeon, died Friday, Aug. 11, in a hospital in Silver Springs, FL, following a long illness.

Mr. Ruby served in World War II, and following his return he worked in the printing trade with The Pigeon Progress for about five years. Later he moved to Florida, where he resided ever since.

He was married to Dorothy (Darning) Buehler, and they worked in the dry cleaning industry. Mr. Ruby has been ill for several years, suffering with malaria. Mrs. Ruby presently operates several dry cleaning establishments in Ocala.

Surviving are a daughter, April, and two sons, Michael of Pontiac and Jody of Silver Springs, a stepson, William Buehler of North Carolina, a retiree from the military service, and several grandchildren.