NORTHEASTERN KANSAS BEEKEEPER'S ASSOCIATION (NEKBA)

Military/Veterans Apprenticeship

2023 APPLICATION/AGREEMENT and WAIVER/BINDER

OBJECTIVE

- To show our appreciation of gratitude to selected Military Veterans, 'particularly those' who were affected physically or psychologically during war.
- The goal of this Apprenticeship is to provide our Veterans with a means of having a pathway both therapeutically and physically to transition into a more serene lifestyle by learning the proper way of beekeeping which has proven to be very therapeutic.
- To promote a better understanding of the value of honeybees to our environment and to the food chain.
- To provide an opportunity for Military/Veterans enjoyment through beekeeping
- To provide an avenue for Military/Veterans to engage in a vocation and gain the opportunity to pursue beekeeping as a side-line or a full-time vocation.

THE AWARD

- 1) A two-year NEKBA membership.
- 2) A beginning beekeeper seminar and textbook.
- 3) A complete set of Langstroth woodenware for a new beehive.
- 4) A package of bees or nucleus colony for a starter hive.
- 5) The basic beekeeping gear: hat, veil, gloves, hive tool, and bee smoker.
- 6) Mentoring by a qualified NEKBA member for one year.

ELIGIBILITY

The applicant must:

- Be a Veteran of any Military Branch of service who served during war time.
- Be a Kansas resident and live within the area of the NEKBA club region to be able to furnish a current qualified mentor for teaching beekeeping.
- Recipients have not had any prior experience with bees or minimal experience.
- They must be able to attend monthly meeting on a regular basis.
- Have no immediate family members that are currently beekeepers.
- Have a suitable location for hive placement which is necessary for observation and the best opportunity for learning and experience with honeybees.
- Submit application to NEKBA, Attention Buck Bradley, (contact information below)

SELECTION PROCESS

- The NEKBA Program Committee will arrange an interview with applicants who meet the guidelines of the apprenticeship program.
- The Military/Veterans Apprenticeship Committee Chair will notify the applicant if they have been awarded the Apprenticeship.
- One (1) application per family
