* Once a member registers they will have a bar coded wrist band placed on them. When the voting process begins they will go to the voting booth, a poll worker will scan the bar code and the member will cast their ballot. They will exit the booth, poll worker will remove the band and give the member a voucher.

 Denotes the KIC meeting cannot begin until the 150 member quorum has been met

 Each candidate will be given 7 minutes to make a presentation

The start of the KIC meeting will begin once the quorum has been met, voting for the Chairman and Secretary will be done by taking nominations from the floor and hand count.

If there is a delay in making quorum, that should not impact the time of the performances too much.

Drawings will be held throughout the meeting

In the event we run out of vouchers the KCOA has committed to have the Election Commission mail one to those who did not receive one.

The Election Commission will make announcements at the meeting up to the selection of the Chairman and Secretary, once a Chairman and Secretary has been selected they will do all announcements.
