TONY'S BLOG

What makes our getaway trips so successful? This year, when we got back from Niagara Falls, I thought we had such a great trip that it would be hard to beat. Well, I was wrong. Our 4th of July trip to Maine, with 100 of us, had a blast. Our annual Lobster Bake on a private island was wonderful, our touring went very well and our motel on the water had happy hour every night with a live steel drum player who was great with our group. But, the best was our private dock party with the live steel drum player, food and drinks included. We had some wonderful talent in our group. We had some added entertainment from some of our group and drivers, including a male pole dance. I can't tell you more that that because, what happens in Maine, stays in Maine. It was great. But, the most important thing of all was that the people on the trip were all great and just wanted to have fun. And that they did!

Parking at the Acme. The Acme has asked that we park on a certain side of the parking lot. If you are standing outside and facing the front of the bus, park to the right of the bus
