Richard Cedillo spoke to the City Council about what a success the Clean Sweep was on September 19. He wrote an article to be published in the Gonzales Inquirer thanking all the helpers that made it a success that day. The people that helped out were given lunch and there were prizes that were given away. He is still getting calls from people requesting that items be picked up, that are still out in front of residents' homes. He responded by telling them that it will take 3 to 4 weeks to clean it all. The City crew will pick up the lumber and limbs.

A motion was made by Mike Harris to increase the peddlers permit with a second by Annie Jackson. The peddlers permit for (3) three months is $25 and the yearly permit is $100. The motion was unanimous and the motion was passed.
