

OTIS GREGORY, Pigeon—Otis Gregory, 88, died Tuesday at his farm home near Pigeon following a long illness. He was born April 1, 1864, in Caseville township, Huron county. On Jan. 5, 1921, he was married to Mrs. Anna Bill Schubach at Bad Axe. Surviving are his widow; two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Taylor, of Pontiac, and Mrs. Sarah McCluskey, of Chester, Pa.; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Orpha Schmul, of Elmhurst, Ill., Mrs. Amelia Richmond, of Bay Port, and Mrs. Estella Tibbets, of Pinnebog; a stepson, Stanley Schubach, of Pigeon; five grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Wallace, of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Gertrude Kerr, of Spokane, Wash.; and a brother, Win Gregory, of Pigeon. The body is at the Shelter chapel and will be removed to the Hayes Methodist church at noon Friday for funeral services at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Ferris Woodruff will officiate and burial will be in Caseville cemetery.