Book Club

As a teenage runaway and child of an addict, Christy-Lynn learned the hard way that no address was permanent, and no promise sacred. For a while, she found a safe haven in her marriage to bestselling crime novelist Stephen Ludlow—until his car skidded into Echo Bay. But Stephen's wasn't the only body pulled from the icy waters that night. When details about a mysterious violet-eyed blonde become public, a media circus ensues, and Christy-Lynn runs again.

Desperate for answers, she's shattered to learn that Stephen and his mistress had a child—a little girl named Iris, who now lives in poverty with her ailing great-grandmother. The thought of Iris abandoned to the foster care system—as Christy-Lynn once was—is unbearable. But she's spent her whole life running—determined never to be hurt again. Will she finally stand still long enough to open herself up to forgiveness and love?

We will meet the second Monday of the month, most months, at a restaurant or someone's home.

*4:30 pm, Monday, August 12, 2024 at Deb Bein's home in Fort Jones,
11430 Eastside Rd. Deb is Hosting*

Women

You are invited to join our small group study.
In September we will begin *with Sensible Shoes:
A Story About the Spiritual Journey.*

The story tells of four women with very different backgrounds and life experiences learning to walk side by side toward spiritual and emotional wholeness. Usually readers see themselves in one or more of the main characters.

As the story progresses, readers are invited to join in with the practice of seven different spiritual disciplines that have been used by Christians around the world for centuries. As a group, we will be exploring each of those disciplines for our own personal spiritual practices.

The group meets Wednesdays at 2:00 p.m. The start date in September, is yet to be decided.
For questions or to join the group, call Sarah Frey at 530-340-1084.
