

ALFRED C. HOPPE

1912-1993

Alfred C. Hoppe, 80 of Sebawaing, died Saturday, March 20, at Four Seasons Healthcare Center in Bad Axe, following a lengthy illness.

He was born in Columbia Township, near Unionville, on Aug. 24, 1912, a son of Adolph and Anna (Ewald) Hoppe. He was married to Amanda M. Koch on Nov. 24, 1938, in St. Peter Lutheran Church, Bach, and she survives him.

Mr. Hoppe had been employed at Michigan Sugar Company in Sebawaing for 20 years before retiring in September, 1975. He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebawaing, and of its Lutheran Laymen's League.

Survivors, in addition to his wife Amanda are five sons, and their spouses, Carl (Marilyn) Hoppe and Howard Hoppe of Sebawaing, Muri (Irene) Hoppe of Bay City, Gary (Judy) Hoppe and Dennis Hoppe of Unionville; four daughters, Geraldine (Theo) Jantz of Owendale, Jana (Art) Guillet of Sebe-