Noah Kleinman

On Saturday, May 7th at 10 o'clock in the morning Noah Kleinman, son of Scott and Allison Kleinman, will be called to the Torah for his First Aliyah.

Noah is a seventh grader at New Albany Middle School where he plays on the middle school tennis team. He loves to play and watch all kinds of sports, especially when it comes to Cleveland! Go Browns! Go Cavs! Go Guardians!

For his mitzvah project, Noah is volunteering with Buddy Up Tennis which provides athletes from five to 55 years old with Down Syndrome a way to be social and active through tennis. He takes the responsibility very seriously and the athletes love him.

Nes & Rami Kopans

On Saturday May 14, 2022, Rami and Nes Kopans, children of David and Rabbi LeighAnn Kopans, siblings of Asher and Peninah Kopans, will be called to the Torah as b'nai mitzvah.

They attend Bexley Middle School, where they are finishing the 6th and 7th grades. They both work on stage crew for Bexley's theatre department, where Nes handles spotlight and Rami runs cameras. Of course, they both do lots of heavy lifting and power tool handling as well. They have worked very hard and stayed out late for so many nights, but it's all been worth it in the end. On top of all that, Rami maintains a rigorous schedule of watching every single MCU release on the day it comes out; Nes focuses on zoning out to music on long car rides, mastering the art of cruising on a longboard, and watching favorite 90s rom-coms for the billionth time.

Until COVID-19 hit, Nes and Rami attended Temple Beth Shalom's Religious School for Jewish Studies and received Hebrew, davening, and Torah trope instruction at home. Their favorite part of being Jewish is hosting as many friends as they want for Shabbat dinner every Friday (when it's not Tech Week!)

For their mitzvah project, Nes and Rami baked rainbow challahs during Pride month 2021, and sold them to benefit the Human Rights Campaign, whose mission is to fight for "Rights for all, not for some." May we see that dream fulfilled soon, and may Nes and Rami continue to join in that fight as they grow into adulthood.

Evan Wenter

On Saturday, May 21st at 10 o'clock in the morning, Evan Wenter, son of Michael Wenter and Tiffany Bukoffsky, and brother to Camryn, Parker, and Emerson, will be called to the Torah for his First Aliyah.

Evan is a 7th grader at Shanahan Middle School in the Olentangy School District and enjoys playing and watching sports. Evan plays center for the North Stars of the Capital Amateur Hockey Association. He also plays forward for Olentangy United's travel soccer team. In the summer, Evan enjoys playing golf and hanging out with his friends at the park.

For his mitzvah project, Evan did various activities that were centered around helping those in need. First, Evan volunteered to shovel the driveways and sidewalks of his elderly neighbors. Second, Evan spent several hours at the Delaware Common Ground Free Store. This store provides clothing, shoes, linens, household items, books, toys, a cup of coffee, a meal, hospitality, and a smile to those in need. Here, Evan did various tasks such as collect and organize clothing, stock shelves, and greet guests. Finally, Evan worked with his dad's school (Heritage Elementary) to organize a donation drive to aid the citizens of Ukraine. Evan collected donations, boxed donations, and loaded donations onto a truck that would eventually be sent in and around Ukraine.

Questions About Your Family Yahrzeits?

As the TBS Marketing Director, I am responsible for managing the Yahrzeit records for our congregants, sending out Yahrzeit reminders, and compiling the Mi Shebeirach, Sheloshim, and Yahrzeit lists. It is very important for me to honor the memory of each congregants' loved ones. In order for me to honor your yahrzeits correctly, I would like to share a bit about the options you have for your yahrzeit records.

You are able to observe your family yahrzeits on either the Hebrew or English date. As a congregation, we default to the English date of death to observe a yahrzeit, but I can easily change your preference to the Hebrew date equivalent if that is more meaningful to you. I can also adjust the week your loved one's name is read for Shabbat services. For example, if you are unable to attend services on a particular week, we are able to read their name on a different week. If you have any questions about yahrzeits, please do not hesitate to reach out to me, either by calling the office or by email. We also have a form on the TBS website to let you add a new yahrzeit or send in updated information at tbsohio.org/add-a-yahrzeit.html.

Additionally, if you are looking for a way to memorialize your loved ones in the TBS sanctuary, we do have memorial plaque options available.
