 Course Warrenbrook - Blues (70.2 / 128)
 Weather 70's partly cloudy, breezy

Jim Petronchak edges Bobby Keller by one stroke on a day with generally high scores. Bruce "Golf Tech" Rapp has a bad Johnny with too many swing thoughts in his head. Jay Griffith has the shot of the day- a draw into the 18th green that didn't end up on the club house roof.

Four DGA ventured to Heron Glen with Mansour taking top honors. None of us played particularly week but Mansour played the most consistent, sweeping all of the pots. The greens were uneven and bumpy, almost like the rule of repairing ball marks on the greens expires after Labor Day.

 Weather 90's Hot and Muggy

It only rained for a brief period but was very hot, muggy and very buggy at Great Bear. Someone should have reminded Dave Perry that he wasn't playing at Neshanic Valley because it was a Neshanic style beating at Great Bear. Dave shot a net 64 and won by 9 strokes over Larry Thiry. Shot a net 30 on the front, 10 net birdies and tied Min Minutello in gross par 3's with 19.

Weather Cool start, then low 80's

Larry Thiry cools after a fast start (not a reference to a pace of play) and is tied by Rich Fitzgerald who had a much smoother round. Both bought at the bar. Babo is probably still bemoaning the 7 he took on the last hole - but has to be happy with his 3&2 victory over Bruce Rapp, despite never hitting his own fairway, and gets to the finals against his partner and now opponent Mr. Newark. Aerated greens kept the scores a bit higher - at least that is the writer's excuse.
