Feeling Like a Failure

May 6th, 2024

Replace Welcome my dear family.

I am going to share from my heart a struggle I have every single day of my life. It is like a threatening dark cloud over my head ready to break loose with torrents of rain and wash my life away. Overwhelming.

Where is this coming from? The Adversary and his minions. Here is what the Lord has to say to all of you who suffer from this cloud.

“I love you, I am for you, not against you. You’ve been hearing the hammering of the demons to demoralize you. Sometimes you catch rare glimpses of who you are to Me, but mostly, you live in a sewer and pit of condemnation. There’s always something Clare, to bring you down and turn you inward making it impossible for you to think as you rightly should.

You are becoming a leader in My church and the Devil hates your ever living guts. He wants nothing more than to put an end to you by your own hand, so he presents constantly an image of who he wants you to be, not at all who you are. This is why you are struggling and feel incompetent, these are all 24 hour a day narratives of who he wishes you to be and who you were before you gave your life to Me.

These narratives have caused you to see yourself as feeble and inept. When you feel a certain way about who you are, you tend to act in accordance with that image of yourself, losing the vision of who you truly are to Me. Then you feel inadequate and want to throw off or forget about all the graces I have instilled in you. This is how he wants to take you down.”

Lord, I have no idea on how to combat that, because I know my stuff.

“But you have many good and sparkling qualities as well, which are obscured from you by the devil’s version which constantly projects to you, degrading thoughts of yourself, making you out to be dingy, shallow, lack luster, and a counterfeit want to be.”

How do I overcome this, Lord.

“Beloved, it is very, very simple. Look deeply into My eyes, your heavenly husband’s eyes, and behold the reflection you see there. THAT is your true identity. And until you embrace that fully you will be far below who I created you to be. You have the raw materials, the makings of a saint, if only you could keep your eyes focused on My vision of you. You are being oppressed and pressured into a false mold of failure to destroy your destiny. I need you to totally disengage from that and refocus on My eyes which will reveal to you who you truly are.

You are beset with curses from many covens around the world, but they are no match for Me and My angels. That is why I ask you to refrain from the internet and keep your eyes on me...staying out of the world. We have made great progress there.

My Brides, I have cast a mold of greatness for you to fill and the adversary is 24/7 trying to drill holes into it so you will waste graces and loose the beautiful form I fashioned for you. The answer to this is simple, behold yourself in My eyes. When you look into My eyes, you come to know the love and admiration, yes, I did say, "admiration" the love and admiration I have for you. You are superbly beautiful in My eyes because you have abandoned all the glories of the world, just to have a Crucified Jewish carpenter for a husband. Yes, I am beautiful to you resurrected, but even more so when I opened my arms wide, to pay for your sins, and you courageously embraced Me as your one true love, leaving behind all the riches of the world and the glory that accompanies it.

So now I want to address this concocted, sabotaging image your enemies have projected into your minds. I want you to consciously meditate on My eyes, even if you have to get an image of Me you connect with and place it before you. When you come into prayer, this is who you are to Me. Just a side note, Jesus painted an image of Himself through me, that I really relate to. It's on our web site HeartDwellers.Org

When you come into prayer, behold an image of Me or look into My eyes and feel the love and admiration have for you. Soak that in and let it feed your heart and mind until the image you have of yourself is the same as the image, I have of you. I will be there to assist you. My Beloved Brides, you are indeed very beautiful and extraordinary in My eyes, and you ravish My Heart."

Mercy for Mistakes

May 8th, 2024

The Lord bless you my dear heart dwellers family. Well, I'm sharing with you a little piece of my life again. In the hopes it will help you on your way.

I saw the Lord when I was feeling very badly about spending money on something. And He was so kind. And there was a mistake made. Last night I was asked to get on the internet to hear about Gaza, so we could pray more specifically. And there was a commercial for a product I thought would help our health and we seemed to get positive answers that it would be helpful, so I ordered it.

But the next day in the morning, I felt wrong about it, it just didn't feel right so I asked the Lord, where am I with You. Where am I at with You? I opened the Bible Promises and got 'jealousy' and felt really badly, repenting immediately. Ezekiel and I both had been misled. I determined to return the item when it came in and sought the Lord about how I had been misled. Jesus became visible immediately and I said, "Thank You for coming to me."

During worship I saw Him sitting in front of me, leaning into me, and I felt like He was trying to comfort me. almost nose to nose, I'm not sure which item I was corrected for, there were actually two in that order, please help me. Please help me.

Jesus answered, "Beloved, I have removed your shame because of your swift repentance. I am not leaving you behind. I know that is an element of your fears. And I know you hate to hurt Me. Didn't you ask Me to humble you? Well, take it like the good wife, the good wife you are. Now, just as you told one of your sisters, it's over, let it flow into the ocean of My mercy. I am here. I am truly here right now and speaking with you. You disobeyed me by checking on that headline, though it was for a good cause, so you could pray with more intention and help Ezekiel to do so as well.

But every time you go on the internet you are subjected to those commercials which are targeted for your weaknesses. And you are correct in suspecting the witches are targeting you where you are vulnerable. You have perceived and understood. They want you to do you in by sinning in the areas of your vulnerability because you have iniquities in your bloodlines, very strong tendencies to Avarice, Pride, and an Independent spirit. Your mother ingrained that into you because she was also strong, proud out of necessity. She vowed to never again trust anyone, because of the betrayal of your father.

Those who are working your buttons, are actually strengthening you in your wisdom, discernment and resolve. They have little understanding of how they are assisting Me. Satan did the same thing at Calvary, he thought having Me crucified would get Me out of the way, but it only made Me shine and provide all peoples with their own particular destinies of the individual crosses I gave to them for their victory over themselves and opened Heaven forever, blotting out all their sins. Satan had no idea the great favor he was doing Me.”

Well, not to be getting too far off the track Lord, what about the Rapture, we seem to be getting so close to war?

Jesus answered me, “The Father may call the question any moment. So how can I possibly answer that?”

You know His Heart, Jesus.

“Indeed, but there are some things I am not privy to. Beloved, I expected Him to move a long time ago, but we are both learning the depths of His mercy. I know you are feeling very weak right now, I will give you the strength you need. Go to confession, sort out your errors, repent and receive an absolution.”

Then I asked Him, “Jesus what is on your heart for us?”

“Understand that I am exposing character flaws right now, in preparation for Our Wedding Day. So, work on those things when they become apparent to you, and you will stay ahead of Satan’s wiles. Keep going My Beloved, do not allow anything to knock you off course. Get adequate rest and conform yourself to what you know to be right without wavering. Do not allow anything to distract you. They have been very successful at distracting you, but now you know it and can prevent it.

Call for help immediately, don’t let them take you down, call for backup. Angels and saints are so willing, and it is true that I love you to distraction, so don’t allow the lies to take you down into a pit. Call for help My love, We will help you.”

Thank You Lord, thank You for Your great, great, mercy and kindness.

Do You Qualify for the Rapture

May 13th, 2024

May the Lord help us to walk on the straight and narrow path until the time that He takes us to Himself.

Lord, here I am, please share your heart with me.

Your obedience is very important to Me Clare. You limit what I can do through you by your disobedience and self-will. For the sake of your love for Me, can't you exercise just a little more restraint? I am quite serious Beloved. I have had to cancel some plans I had for you because of your lack of restraint. I know you can do better, much better. Temperance is a ladder that takes you to Heaven, all that is needed is to step up one rung at a time, as I prompt you. Call on Me and I will help you, but you don't call on Me, rather you indulge. Do you see how destabilizing this fault of yours is? I know you can do better; will you try just for Me?

I need more grace....

You do have more grace but there is no short cut to cooperation with grace. No means "No." and without your obedience we are getting nowhere. You are missing out because you toy with Me, not giving Me your all. Do you see this?

Yes.

Are you willing to change and to love Me the way I deserve to be loved? Love and obedience are inseparable. It is by your obedience that you demonstrate your love for Me. As I said last night when you opened your Bible, "These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me." You can do better, the question is, will you?

Lord, am deeply ashamed of myself. I see how I have sabotaged this ministry by myself will, and I am deeply contrite, even sick at heart, knowing what I could have done had I obeyed the voice of my conscience.

That's a start. Now, put it into practice, "for I will not strive with man forever."

That is most sobering.

I am glad you see that; recall the dreams you have had about being present for the earth changes.

Do not be afraid, I will help you, but understand that the true fear of God is only the beginning of wisdom.

Yes My children, I deal firmly with my vessels unto honor lest they lose the honor bestowed upon them. The sweet love and kindness I normally address you with, must sometimes be tempered by a bit of seriousness.

Some of you are playing with fire, having premarital sex and being promiscuous. You are living in sin unto the death of your souls, that is, mortal sin. You are Christians, even in the ministry, but you are sinning because your culture is sinful, and this seems normal to you. But all are soon to find out just how far from grace they are. I know your conscience has not been properly formed and that is why I have extended so much grace to you.

But now I must tell you that you are skating on the edge and the ice is thin beneath your feet. I would like to see you married, I would like to see you out of adultery and fornication, I would like to see you generous to the poor, I would like to see you exercise self-denial on Fridays, I would like to see you not spending money on vain things, but giving that portion to the poor and needy. I would like to see you stop judging and gossiping and dividing My Body, free from jealousy and competition, rather walking the path of deep humility.

These are things I need you to practice now because the great days of mercy are about to come to a close. I love you and I do not want to lose you. Please, take another look at how you are living. Are you living your days for your pleasure and agendas, or for My pleasure and My needs? In answering this you will quickly see whether or not you qualify for the Rapture.

My true Bride is about My business and has very little desire for the things of the world. When she passes by a poor man on a street corner, she does not revile him, rather her heart aches for his need and she is quick to do something to alleviate his suffering. By telling you this, I am drawing a picture of who you must be to qualify for the Rapture. I love you beyond comprehension, but I am also a just God who cannot tolerate a Bride who remains blind to My needs because her heart is set on the pleasures of this world.

Yes, I know this stings, and that is regrettable, but what you will regret far more than firm words is being left to fend for yourself after the Rapture, therefore I counsel you, "By for yourselves fire tried gold," and on that day you will have no regrets.

I am with you in all of your efforts, and I miss nothing that you do from a pure motive of loving Me and the poor I have put in your midst, whom, I have put there so that you can prove your love for the things of Heaven. And to prove your love for Me. They are the only Jesus you have on this earth, show your love, and concern for them and curb your involvements with the world, you will never regret it and I am with you in all of this.

How Idolatry Infiltrates Your Life

May 16th, 2024

Greetings dear family, the Lord recently reminded me of something that happened a while back.

I was in prayer and started thinking about which bedroom in the desert community house John and I would occupy. Then my mind began to fill up the room with a few simple items of necessity when the Lord broke into my thoughts and said, "Do not think on such things Elisabeth, you are building My refuge for others." I was thinking what the heck, Lord? John and our brothers have been working tirelessly day and night and we don't even get to occupy a small room in this house?" He continued, "When you work for Me, allowing My Spirit to direct your steps each day, My plan will be made known to you. You do not need to rush ahead or focus your attention on things that will not be. Stay centered on Your God and clear direction will unfold each day as you stay on the course, I have laid out for you both."

"Yes, Lord, thank you for your guiding hand. Please help us not to become attached to anything that takes our attention from You and the work that You have for us." As a confirmation, both, John and I, got Rhema's today about living a "vagabond" life.

Jesus continued, “My people, you all, to some degree or another, allow idolatry to seep into your lives. The enemy allows it to start very innocently at first with things that make you feel good or satisfies a curiosity or long-time desire. Soon you head down a path that is not of My design and can easily be morphed into an idol. Then, your newfound passion, takes time from prayer, from spending time with Me and your thoughts and heart withdraw from your Lord. Bear in mind children, that you, as fallen creatures, have the propensity to be drawn away by the gifts I have given you. When you begin to adore and worship these gifts, instead of the Giver, then you fall into idolatry. You neglect your Maker and dismiss the warning signs in your mind that something is becoming an idol.”

In Scripture, 1 John 5:21 reads, “Dear Children, keep yourselves from idols.”

The Lord continued, “Idolatry is very real and a matter of the heart, dear ones. When you allow them to rival your living God, then it’s time to let them go. When you have a need, you turn to Me. If your food supply comes up short, then run into My open arms with all the trust, love and obedience of a little child. When you do not trust Me to provide your needs and come under My care and protection, then you are essentially telling Me that you can do it on your own, under your terms, and the idol of your heart continues to grow.”

I think of the rich young ruler here. It is clear that his wealth was an idol in his life. When Jesus called him into discipleship, the young man walked away from His Lord, instead of his money. He couldn’t part with his idol.

Jesus continued, “If you are willing to compromise My word and our relationship, then this graven image in your life must be removed. Turn to Me, cling to Me, My precious ones, and I will help you overcome these spiritually unhealthy attachments.” And that was the end of His message.

Here, dear ones, is a real-life example of how something quickly grows into an idol. You try surfing for the first time and love it. Then you want to check out YouTube surfing videos, then you research how much a new surfboard is, the cost of a wet suit, wax, surf wear and so on. Then you check out the best places to surf and tell your family and friends how much fun you had and talk about taking a surfing trip. Before you know it, you are consumed with all things about surfing. You end up spending the majority of your free time, attention and resources on surfing.

In Psalm 115, God exposes the nothingness of the idols we allow into our lives. God promises that as we pray and meditate on His Word, the Holy Spirit will satisfy us so fully in Christ that our idols will be destroyed. When we come to the realization that something has become an idol, then we turn to Jesus and find in Him what our hearts truly desire. We destroy the idols by proclaiming the fullness of God. Jesus is always and forever the best choice. Amen!

God's Judgment is Falling on A-merica

May 22nd, 2024

Greetings dear Family, in Romans, chapter 2, verse 5, we read, “But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God’s wrath, when His righteous judgment will be revealed.”

Jesus immediately began speaking, “Elisabeth Jane, write these words so My people will clearly hear My voice and heed My warnings by removing themselves from the cities in America that have been slated for destruction. Your most recent dream of Miami being under water will be so.

“My Father’s wrath is kindled against you, America. You have chosen not to repent of your wicked ways, even those who profess to follow Me, have compromised their values and beliefs to align themselves with the world. You have deceived yourselves by embracing outward beauty, material possessions, wealth, and prosperity. Your prayer lives are pitiful, hallow and rote.

“For decades, My prophets have called you to repentance and the people have mocked them. You have turned away from Me, America, and have chosen the darkness instead of the light. This once, Christian nation, whom has been richly blessed by your God, has fallen far into depravity and sin. You are arrogant and wanton in your ways and you will feel the full power of My Father’s anger. This country leads the world in every kind of abomination and debauchery known to mankind..... child and human trafficking, abortion, pornography, drugs, alcohol abuse, divorce, murder, suicide, evil entertainment and so much more. You send this filth and immorality around the world and profit from it. This wickedness grieves My heart so deeply. My great love for you is lessening and staying My Father’s hand.

“Americans, wake-up! Your children are in bondage, cities are in chaos, your current government is in league with foreign adversaries, and they are rapidly depleting your food sources and distribution. I have sounded the alarm, My chosen ones have sounded the alarm and STILL you do not repent, turn from your sins and come to Me.

“On the rise is rampant disease, agricultural desolation and increasing foreign attempts to take over your country. You truly are a stiff-necked nation, banning prayer, the Bible, and My creation from your schools. You encourage sex among your youth, you wallow in blasphemy, you deny and have hardened your hearts against Me. Therefore, when your enemies come to seek you, they will find you and you will go to war without your God.

“There will be an unprecedented purging of your country and I will protect My own, the remnant, those who are praying. You are in the period of squaring off with other nations. I will respond to the prayers of My people. I will respond to your repentance if you sincerely turn away from evil and come back to Me. I will give you life, not death.

“There will be an overflowing of rain, hail, and fire. It shall fall upon the heads of the wicked. Many of my servants, I will draw you out and uproot you from the areas under judgment. I will give all my precious ones a purpose and a plan for this day and each day forward. I will bless you and keep you close to Me. I will magnify My power to bring mankind’s focus back to Me, for I am the Lord, your God, and there is no other!”

And that was the end of His message which the Lord gave to us with an extremely powerful, booming, commanding voice, especially His last sentence when He said, "I will magnify My power to bring mankind's focus back to Me, for I am the Lord, your God, and there is no other!" My emotions are a jumble, I'm feeling very, very little and insignificant.

Dear ones, as our nation faces the consequences of its actions, let Heart Dwellers around the globe, continue to pray for the salvation of souls and do so with much hope and love in our hearts. Let us remember the words in Nahum 1:7, "The Lord is good. He is a strong hold in the day of trouble. And He knows those who take refuge in Him." Amen!

Reparation & Our Nation's Future

May 29th, 2024

The Lord bless and keep us in His perfect will. Amen.

Recently as a community we have decided to make serious reparation and repentance for the excesses of our nation and our own personal sins.

Jesus began, "We have a long way to go in making reparation for the sins you committed along with the nation. This will be a very powerful day for you all, if you choose to really connect with the iniquities of this generation and the ones before it that prepared the way for this nation descending further into the pit of depravity. Long have I waited to hear the cries of repentance for this nation and the world. The sound has come to My ears, but the iniquity is deep and marching on to cover this nation with a net of evil."

And just then I saw a black net being pulled down over America from the North.

He continued, "The blindness and depravity is monumental. Moral decline is the cancer that is taking this country down. Not enough people are paying attention to the way things are going because they are blinded by avarice and greed, but that soon shall change when I allow a blow to cripple this nation, and many will then seek Me as they have never sought Me before. I loathe to allow this, but the soft touch is just not working."

Lord, is there any good news?

"Yes, the ones who are awake are solidifying their position, refining, and organizing to change the destiny of this nation. They have come together to lay the groundwork for a new nation, the nation I intended her to be, not the harlot she is. In the end, I will triumph, but it is going to be a very bumpy and costly ride. It is time to make peace with all nations and come together in a supportive posture for the good of all, not raping and pillaging the weaker nations for gain. The wicked must be purged from the Earth before this will happen, but the purging is in progress and there is ample opportunity for repentance and good works. Unfortunately, the ones who could help are hopelessly in bondage to greed, that is why they must be removed. I am coming to set things straight, Clare.

"I will have a holy nation under God and a holy world under God. I will have it, but the cost is very great, with much suffering. Civilizations have come and gone for millennia, now is the time for all to return to Me, to have the slate wiped clean and begin again."

And at that point, I was thinking about the end of the millennia and Armageddon and what has been prophesied. And I thought, 'Wow, after all this, I sure do not want to have to go through that, too!

And He said, "There are many reasons why it must be this way, but rest assured, My Bride, if I could avoid it I would. So much more will be clear to you in Heaven, Beloved. Just rejoice that you are part of the remnant and a citizen of Heaven, for those who have chosen the crooked ways will wish they had never been born.

"There is a move of God blossoming, pray that it will survive the plans of the enemy to thwart it. I know what you are thinking,"

Yeah, I was thinking, 'Oh boy, millennia and we are going to be here for that, and it is going to happen all over again, I do not know if I can deal with that!'

Anyway, He said, "I know what you are thinking, but I would prefer that you think on the promise I have made to you and persevere. I am the Lord your God, and I can do anything at any time, I am not limited to the order of prophecy, or foolish human logic. Know that I will sustain both of you to the end and your homecoming will be glorious."

Oh, dear, dear God, please sustain me, please help me make it to the end.

He continued, "Satan is clever, but your obedience has protected you. Continue to obey, My Love, and you will make it. Take nothing for granted, be extremely careful and attentive to please Me. Obedience will carry you home in a royal chariot, with your Spouse."

And that was the end of His message.

And the older I get, the more I realize what a tremendous protection obedience is, just tremendous. And so, there are times when the enemy tries to fool me and get me to take things for granted so pray for me guys that we will all make it to the end so we can be raptured and finish the race that the Lord has laid out for us. Amen?

God bless you.

Become a Prepper

May 31st, 2024

Greetings dear family, today the Lord encourages us to become spiritual preppers. We read in Psalm 46, verse 1, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble." Amen!

"As time grows darker," Jesus began, "You will need more than stocking up on food, water, supplies and seeking physical refuge. You all will need to be ready to stand firm and remain steadfast in your faith. Satan is on a rampage, and he is determined to take down as many believers as possible! I have warned you that because of the turbulent times you are living in that many, many will grow cold towards Me and lose their faith. These souls are putting their trust in material possessions, their work and those around them. When these are no more, their foundation crumbles and can easily be washed away.

"Yes, dear ones, you all need to continue preparing spiritually your heart, mind and soul by clinging tightly to Me and My teachings with unwavering faith. In this way, when the storms of life come, you will be grounded in biblical truth and as steady as a rock! This is your wake-up call, My people, I am sounding the alarm to be ever so vigilant, day and night. Getting right with Me in humility is your best protection and preparation for the times ahead. Guard your thoughts, prepare your heart, and fill up your soul with the Word of God. Not only in your mind, but in your actions as well."

"Given the current state of the world, I give you an assignment, My true believers, read your Bibles and take to heart Scripture that reveals end time events as mankind accelerates towards the unfolding of these catastrophes and tribulation. You will gain life altering changes, heavenly wisdom, and a true understanding of your God." And that was the end of the His message.

The Lord has given me two dreams recently and upon waking from these dreams I see Isaiah 60, verse 2 flash before my eyes, which states, "See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and His glory appears over you."

Well, after that word, I better let John know we will be going into greater depth in seeking Him and in our Bible readings.

Dear ones, it's difficult to have hope and trust in God if we are clutching and holding tightly to our worry and anxiety. It is understandable to carry a heavy heart when we or our loved ones are in harm's way, but God will be faithful and not abandon us. When the enemy tries to layer us with fear and anxiousness, if we are spiritually prepared, we can be confident in our God and His promises. We can have hope and trust when we seek Him earnestly. He will reveal His truth so we will not bend or be influenced by the devil and his agents.

Here is what we know, we currently live in turbulent times and the final days will be filled with atrocities, like in the days of Noah. We are the salt of the earth and are called to flavor the world with God's love, to live with passion and purpose, to pray for the lost sheep, and to share with others what we have been taught from God Himself. It's so amazing, I'm busting!! In this day and age, what a privilege and how humbling to be chosen to do the Lord's work! Heart Dwellers, we can rejoice and celebrate, with all of Heaven, as sinners repent and give their lives to Jesus. Amen and Amen!
