This is your opportunity to make your voice heard in the Catholic community. The Synod is a process of expressing your view along with other parishioners on specific topics through open discussion. This information will travel up through the community ending in Rome with Our Holy Father, Pope Francis. This is the first time in recent history a Synod has been called for from the populist, normally a honor reserved for clergy. Please plan on attending Monday April 11th at 6:30 pm in Father McNamara Center.
