

Verse of the Day

Rachael Martin 3,14,2017

Just take a verse and go with it!

Romans 8:28 - And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.

Knowing that all things work together for good and seeing them work together for good are two very different things now aren't they? Called according to His purpose.... Hmm... what does this exactly mean?

To be called according to God's purpose. I looked up the commentary for this part of the verse (I've included the link at the bottom of this devotion) and this is what Matthew Henry says:

(2.) They are the called according to his purpose, effectually called according to the eternal purpose. The call is effectual, not according to any merit or desert of ours, but according to God's own gracious purpose.

I want to remind everyone that there may be TEMPORAL moments of good and the good may all together mean eternal good that is storing up for us in heaven, but either way, we need to be thankful that the Lord is working it out for those of us who love Him.

He is working it out. Not because of anything we did, but because of what Jesus did!

You and I may not see it, but we need to believe it.

Help our unbelief Lord!

Today, and every day after today, try to remember that God is working it out for you. He is working your day out right now as you read this. He is working your family out, He is working your job out, He is working your travel plans out – He cares about the hairs on your head, why wouldn't He work things out for good for you!? For those of us who need to see some encouragement I pray that the Lord would be faithful and gracious as it says above and give us a taste of hope. I know He did just recently for me regarding this website. We are here for each of our readers... whether you need uplifting, prayer or just a place to come and browse. Let us know if you need anything or even want to see something different on these pages. Grace to all of you. ♥
