

Katie Converse

Lead Forensic Interviewer

Katie is a graduate of Central Michigan University (Fire Up Chips!) with a Bachelors Degree in Family Studies. Katie developed a passion for working with children when she interned with Midland County's Child Advocacy Center. She saw the important work that was done by Child Advocacy Centers and knew this is where she needed to be. In her free time, Katie likes to read and disc golf. She lives in Kent County with her husband, three cats, Frankie, Olive and Hyzer, and pug, Pancake.
