LOAN OF MEDICAL EQUIPMENT

FREE LOAN OF DURABLE MEDICAL EQUIPMENT FOR IN-HOME USE

In continuous operation since 1923, Convalescent Aid Society provides assistance to residents in need of medical equipment for in-home use at no charge and without time constraints.

A satellite office of Convalescent Aid Society is now located in: Whittier First United Methodist Church. (corner of Friends and Bailey streets.)

HOW TO QUALIFY

Equipment is available on loan to individuals who live within our service area. Current proof of residency is required for the borrower of equipment and cosigner for the account, i.e. Valid ID or Passport and Current Utility Bill. See reverse side for service area.

TYPES OF EQUIPMENT

Items are available such as bath chairs, canes, commodes, tub transfer benches, walkers, wheelchair, and much more (hospital bed and mattress only available at the Pasadena office). All equipment are repaired, cleaned and sanitized in Pasadena office and then distributed through the Whittier satellite office. See reverse side for complete list.

DONATIONS GRATEFULLY APPRECIATED

Convalescent Aid Society is a non-profit organization and is entirely funded by private donations, endowment, and foundation grants. Monetary and equipment gifts help us continue providing services to those in need. Donations are tax deductible.
