From: Egypt Shrine, Legion of Honor

Subject: By-Law Change Request –

To: Tracy Coughlin, International Legion of Honor Commander
David I. Smith, PC, International Legion of Honor Adjutant

Purpose of Change: Provisions to the By-Laws in the event an annual convention cannot be held.

Current:

Article V – Section 2- Section 2. INSTALLATION: The Officers of the International Association Legions of Honor will be elected and installed at the International Association Legions of Honor Annual Convention each year. Such Officers will perform the duties allotted to them until their successors are duly elected and installed. The newly elected officers will be sworn in immediately at the conclusion of the election.

Change to:

Article V – Section 2- Section 2. INSTALLATION: The Officers of the International Association Legions of Honor will be elected and installed at the International Association Legions of Honor Annual Convention each year. If an annual convention cannot be held, the International Association Legions of Honor Commander will call a special meeting electronically for the purpose of any business that would have been held during the annual convention, with at least a 45 day notice to all Legion of Honor Units that have submitted their Annual dues and delegates for the current year. All units that are in good standing with the International Legions of Honor will be able to participate and vote during the meeting. Such Officers will perform the duties allotted to them until their successors are duly elected and installed. The newly elected officers will be sworn in immediately at the conclusion of the election.
