

Head of Fundraising (HoF)

Voluntary position with remote working
(6-7 hours per week)

About foodKIND

foodKIND is a humanitarian organization with a mission to provide food with compassion to refugees and vulnerable groups in crisis. Our work focuses on the most vulnerable groups of refugees and aims to provide support where there is a significant absence of consistent and sufficient food supply and where basic needs are not being met. We believe that by providing food on a personal and humane level, we are not only filling empty stomachs but we are also bringing hope and dignity to situations where there may be none.

Over the past 18 months, we have seen incredible growth and our on-the-ground operations have grown significantly. As a result, we are now looking for enthusiastic and compassionate people to join us for the next stage of our journey and to help support with the day to day running of the organization.

Job Description

As a young, non-profit organization, fundraising is the most important aspect of our work, because without funding, we have no way of supporting our operations and no way of helping those in desperate need. With this in mind, we are looking for an experienced fundraiser to oversee our fundraising team. As Head of Fundraising, you would be responsible for managing and implementing the annual fundraising plan and would play a key role in advancing the work and securing the future of the organization.

Main Responsibilities

- Management & implementation of the annual fundraising plan
- Management of the Relationship Manager and the Grant Writer and their key responsibility areas
- Building and maintenance of key donor relationships
- Research of new fundraising opportunities
- Management of fundraising documents, tools and resources
- Working in collaboration with the CEO to develop corporate partnerships
- Working alongside the Marketing & Communications team to develop and implement effective fundraising campaigns

About you

We are looking for someone who is a self-starter who is confident to work independently and use their initiative. To join our team, you must also be committed, compassionate and enthusiastic about the cause and excited to join a rapidly growing humanitarian organization! Previous fundraising experience required!
