Dear Friends,

As mooring balls start to dot Essex Harbor, boats begin to fill the slips and the days lengthen noticeably, we know it won't be long before our primary season is here. The Club is really starting to pick up momentum as April winds down and we look towards May. The dining room was abuzz today (a Wednesday) during lunch - a sure sign that we've left winter far behind. As these signs lift our spirits, though, our club community is saddened at the recent loss of two dear members; Past Commodore Leslie Sullivan and Danny Wolff. Our Club Burgee will be flown at half staff in honor of their lives and their strong connections to our club community.

Our Spring Commissioning Ceremony and New Member Reception were held April 5th (a little early this year) under clear skies and bright sunshine. I couldn't help but think the look and feel of the stunning day was a harbinger for a great 30th year for club. Many thanks to all who came out to support the club and especially to our Club Chaplain, Dan Taylor-Stypa, and to our Bugler, Past Commodore Ed Birch, who really made the commissioning a memorable one.

Your Board of Governors has been hard at work planning the events that will shape our 2014 club experience, while thinking strategically about the future - sustaining our mission of fellowship while positioning ourselves to take advantage of opportunities for improvement and advancement. A subtle change that we've instituted, but one that will return real benefit to our members, is a new facility rental rate structure that will dramatically reduce the expense of renting the club facility. Our aim is to make it painless for our members to use the club facilities to mark their special life events, and in the process expose our great facility and setting to like-minded guests who might consider membership. You'll see more about this in other areas of this Bell 8 Edition.

Looking ahead at the calendar, there is already much to see and do at the club. A special Mother's Day Brunch is not to be missed on May 11th. Continuing our tradition of bringing high profile speakers to our club, Gary Jobson will join us on Wednesday evening, May 14th to give a talk on his career and last year's stunning Americas Cup victory for the USA. The talk will kick-off fundraising for LLS and be followed with a cocktail reception and book signing with Gary. See the notice below for further information and tickets. The Corinthian Café will serve a late supper following the event. Sunday, May 18th is our spring raft up to be held in Hamburg Cove and the first weekend in June will feature a Round the Buoys, just-for-fun regatta with ECYC, plus the 12 Meter Newport Challenge.

This winter, three couples, Mark and Suzette Bavalock, Bob and Gail West, and Bob and Audrey Chase visited Maui, Hawaii (separate trips). Mark and Suzette sent back a photo of ECYC's burgee hanging proudly in the Lahania YC, while Bob and Gail returned with one of Lahania YC's bright red burgees to be displayed in our clubhouse. Bob and Audrey shared their experience with us in a short description. Thanks very much to all three couples for making ECYC part of their travel plans!

See "Burgee of the Month" section for more details!

OFFSHORE UPDATE

Our club commissioning ceremony at the beginning of the April officially kicked off the club season, and was particularly important, as it marked the count-down to the 30th anniversary of our establishment! Conditions have improved tremendously in the last four weeks, and the River is beginning to see more traffic than just our courageous Frostbiters!

Power- and sailboat owners alike are chomping at the bit, boats are being launched as you read this. This is an exciting time of the year, full of promise and we are all hoping for a great season!

Spring Frostbite Series

Speaking of Frostbiting, the ECYC teams continue to do well in the series, led by Jon Gibbs, our Fleet Captain. Frostbiting continues for one more weekend in May, and we will keep you up to date on the next and final races.

Ideal 18s & Sailing Instruction

If you are interested in sailing on the club's Ideal 18s, please contact Jon Gibbs to let him know. Please remember that in order to use ECYC's Ideal 18s, you must be approved by the Fleet Captain or one of the authorized club members (Ed Birch, Cindy Gibbs). See Jon's report below for details.

This summer, Cindy Gibbs is once again offering a Ladies' Sailing Class on Monday

8% of your meal charge is paid to the club as a usage fee. A usage fee (at varying rates depending on the event) is paid for each meal whether served during standing Galley hours, special events, or catered functions.

- That once a month, Coastal Cooking Company is permitted to open a standard Galley meal service to the public? That means you don't need to host a group of guests for them to come enjoy the Galley offerings. These dates change, depending on the Galley requests (St. Patrick's celebration and Easter were both "open" meals this year. Mother's Day Brunch will be the next open seating).
- That members may only bring simple snacks such as vegetable platters, cheese and crackers and nuts when dining at the Club during Galley hours? This is a contractual obligation we have with Coastal Cooking Company.
- That the rental fees charged members and non-members have been significantly reduced and simplified to encourage an increased use of our beautiful facility? These reduced rates are described in a separate column below in this issue of the Bell 8.
- That you can send via email any comments (all are welcome!) to galleyliaison@essexcorinthian.org? This is one of a number of dedicated email addresses recently created for your convenience in sharing your thoughts.

I'm looking forward to seeing you at the club soon. And I promise, you won't want to miss Mother's Day Brunch! Stay tuned for an e-blast with all the information.

Galley Liaison

Hamburg Cove Spring Raft-Up

While it might still be a bit chilly at this very moment, we hope that the weather will get warmer for the first Hamburg Cove raft-up of the season, planned for Sunday, May 18th. We invite anyone with a boat able to enter Hamburg Cove (if you are not familiar with the cove, please speak to someone who is, it is not accessible to boats with deep draft) and raft up on our club mooring! Details to follow soon in a separate E-Blast!

Sailors, Get Ready For The Next Round of Our "Friendlies"!

June 7th is the date for our first "friendly" Round-The-Buoy Race in cooperation with EYC!

Get your crews ready (if you have a sailboat) or contact Adam McEwen (Race Committee Chair) or myself if you are looking to crew on any boat affiliated with EYC. Adam will also be looking for volunteers to help with the logistics of the regatta, as well as Cheryl Arndt, our Entertainment Chair, for assistance with the After-Race-Party, which this year coincides with the Pre-Race-Party for the Annual 12-Meter Challenge (see Terry Stewart's update to the right). The next "Friendly" will be on Sunday, July 13th, followed by the last of the series on Sunday, August 24th, a day after the Leukemia Cup Regatta, which several EYC boats will be competing in as well.

Leukemia Cup Kick-Off with Gary Jobson

Just a reminder, May 14th is the date of the Leukemia Cup Kick-Off Celebration at EYC. Please join us at the get-together with Gary Jobson (cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, lecture and book signing)! See column on right for ticket ordering information!

We are all looking forward to warmer weather and the full-fledged return of boating season at EYC!

Ruth Emblin
Rear Commodore

Note: A refundable $200 damage deposit is required for all rentals.

Remember, the EYC benefits from outside events hosted on-site in two ways: directly through the Galley usage fee and indirectly through the resulting potential to attract new members.

Won't you consider hosting your next special event or encouraging others to host their personal or business gathering at our club?

ECYC To Defend 12-Meter Challenge Championship on June 8th

Update From Terry Stewart (Immediate Past Commodore):

Two enterprising crews from EYC will gather in Newport on Sunday June 8th to sail in the 2014 12 Meter Challenge. Corinthians will crew Columbia, winner of the 1958 America's Cup and last year's winning boat, and American Eagle, an AC contender and a very fast challenger.

Racing with us will be crews from Pettipaug in Weatherly, Baldwin in Heritage, a combined crew from North Cove and the Frostbite YC in Intrepid, and another combined crew from the Thames Yacht Club and Madison Beach Club in Nefertiti.

This year's Challenge will inaugurate a new perpetual trophy, being designed and built by EYC member Duncan Syme, to be called the "Eastern Connecticut 12 Meter Challenge" Cup. The new name reflects expanded race participation by clubs along the shoreline in addition to our immediate Essex neighbors. The trophy will reside with the winning club for the coming year. As a takeoff on UConn's "Take it Down" (meaning the net) NCAA championship theme, ours is "Bring it Home" (meaning the Cup)!

EYC crews are reminded to wear the club's navy blue polo with khaki shorts or pants. White or tan EYC hats are encouraged. All are available through the Ship's Store. Special commemorative 2014 12M Challenge hats are also available. Let Terry Stewart know if you are interested at tgstewart14@comcast.net.

Also, don't forget the Pre Race party at EYC on Saturday, June 7th at 4:30pm. Please RSVP to Terry.

Burgee of the Month:

As mentioned in Tim Brewer's update, Mark and Suzette Bavalock, and Bob and Gail West separately visited Maui, Hawaii, this winter. Mark and Suzette snapped a picture of our burgee hanging proudly in the Lahaina YC. Bob and Gail presented us with one of Lahaina YC's bright burgees to

COMMITTEE UPDATES

Race Committee Update:

Thank you to the members who have agreed to join the Race Committee. I will be calling on you shortly to discuss the upcoming regattas and off-shore activities with you.

We will be ramping up our offshore activities in the months to come and hope that you will join us!

Waterfront Update:

Nautilus and Aeolus have treated us better this month, we now have had six straight great weeks of Frostbite racing, often with fresh breezes. Both the sea god's namesake and sister ship Dragonfly have gotten out every week. Bill Albro, Liz Baird, Tim Brewer, Peter Emblin, Cindy and Jon Gibbs, Jeff Going, Nick and Joyce Incerti, Jim Pfeffer, Adam McEwen, and Laurel and Terry Stewart have all contributed to the Corinthian's boat's best season yet! Thanks also to guest Staci Van Solkema, who has been ready to fill in at the last minute anytime. Nautilus sailed one perfect day, both boats have placed in the money, and with one week remaining Nautilus stands in second and Dragonfly in fifth out of seven. The team of Ed Birch and Rob Reichardt are also in striking distance of second or third in the Ideal 18 fleet.

Toby Doyle went undefeated in the Etchells 22 class into week 6, when Bill Robinson made the first to beat him in a race this year, another Corinthian member.

We hope to find more prospects for our teams coming out to sail for E.Y.C. Tuesday or Thursday night racing, E.C.Y.C. Monday Night Ladies Sailing, and other racing events on the river this summer.

One of the Ideal 18s is most often ready for easy off the dock recreational sailing as well. If you haven't yet, sign up to qualify to take one out, and don't forget to sign out before you do!

See you out there, be displayed in our clubhouse in the very near future. And yet another couple, Bob and Audrey Chase, recently spent time in Hawaii, and also visited the Lahaina YC. A truly popular place!

Thanks very much to the Bavalacks, the Wests and the Chases for keeping ECYC in their minds while traveling!

Here is a short review by Bob Chase:

"Audrey and I recently returned from a three week trip to Hawaii. We were fortunate to visit a few of the islands, among them was Maui. While in Maui, we stayed in an area called Kaanipali, which is on the west coast of Maui, just north of a little town called Lahaina. Needless to say the entire area is beautiful, with mountains to the east, and warm Pacific water on the west. We decided to spend some time in Lahaina one afternoon, and the main street along the waterfront is Front St.

We planned to catch dinner after some shopping/sightseeing, but we had no firm plan for a restaurant. We parked our rental car just off Front St., and walked from the lot to the shopping area. When we came out of the side street, the first thing I saw across the street on the west/water side was the Lahaina Yacht Club. It had saloon style swinging doors at the entrance, and being a proud member of a yacht club myself, I decided to explore. So I entered the club, scanned the layout, as well as the ceiling rafters from which hung probably a hundred burgees. Just about the first burgee I spied was the ECYC burgee, and at that moment I was challenged by the hostess. I was standing in the bar area, and just beyond were tables for dining, and beyond, the harbor o Lahaina. The club had no back wall, and opened directly to the water, with a spectacular view of the island of Lanai. She asked if I was looking at something I recognized, since I was transfixed by the ECYC burgee, and I said I sure did, since the burgee I was looking at was my club burgee. So she invited me in, I showed her my membership card, whereupon she informed me that I would have all the privileges of a member of the club. I glanced at the menu, consulted with Audrey, and we made a reservation for dinner. Later we returned, and were treated to a great meal, and terrific hospitality. The club has a full bar, and a full staff of waitservice, and by the time we left, there was not a table available. And this was a week night, just a very busy atmosphere. The waitress told me the membership boasted well over a thousand, and that every night was busy. We had a wonderful experience, and I encourage any member traveling to Maui to take advantage of this friendly, and accommodating resource."

Did You Know?

Did you know as a member of the Association of American Yacht Clubs, ECYC members have reciprocal privileges with yacht clubs around the world? Over the past few months, Corinthians have visited and enjoyed the hospitality of clubs ranging from Maui to Grenada with San Francisco to Miami in squeezed in between!

During your next trip, check to see if there is a yacht club around your destination. Check their website and guidelines for visitors. Calling ahead of time is always recommended. Often yacht clubs are located near the prime waterfront area of your destination but are not crowded centers of actions themselves. Those will galley's have reasonable menus competitive with the local area. Plus the fellowship of a yacht club is hard to beat!

Many require your showing a current club membership card, available from Elaine. Some may require a "letter of introduction", also available from Elaine. Some accept credit cards. Others will bill through to Elaine to be included on your monthly ECYC statement.

Visiting is fun and a great way to make new friends among the locals.

Cheryl Arndt

Cheryl has taken on her new role of Entertainment Chair with gusto and wasted no time to jump right into everything, even orchestrating events remotely from her winter get-away.

She has a knack for getting "the troops" organized and quickly whips up impromptu events like UCONN game viewing nights in the River Room. With a key assists from Terry Stewart and Coastal Cooking Company, Cheryl is voted MVP for quickly organizing two viewings for the NCAA men's and women's basketball championship games. Husky enthusiasm was at fever pitch. And, with Coastal Cooking Company's yummy pub menu, no one had to miss a moment of the games. The halyards were clanging from the roaring echoing out of the River Room!

Cheryl is always willing to lend a hand even in areas that are not directly related to her position, and she often shares very welcome input. She can be seen circulating the dining room on Friday nights and during events, "working the crowd", welcoming everyone. A heartfelt THANK YOU to Cheryl for her enthusiastic involvement in all things ECYC!

Leslie LaCivita Sullivan of Essex, beloved mother, grandmother, friend and past Commodore of the Essex Corinthian Yacht Club died peacefully early Sunday morning April 13, 2014. Leslie was born July 25, 1941 in Norwood, Massachusetts and grew up there and in Sarasota, FL. While attending Sarasota High School, Leslie trained in the Sarasota Sailor Circus performing on the trapeze. Leslie relocated to Essex in 1963 where she raised her children Jay, Karl, Roger and Eric. She became an active participant in the community and began selling real estate in 1977. Leslie opened her own office the Sullivan Company which was located on Main Street in Essex. She continued her profession in real estate throughout the rest of her life.

Leslie spent many years exploring the Connecticut River with friends aboard her antique wooden Lyman, "Crab". She was a Charter Member of the Essex Corinthian Yacht Club where she became the first woman Commodore in 1993. She served on the Board and numerous committees for 10 years and helped steer the club forward during it's infancy in the 80's. She was not only the first woman Commodore of ECYC but one of very few women Commodores in Yacht Clubs on the entire East Coast.

Leslie spearheaded and saw to its completion the "River Room."

Leslie was not only a Commodore,
