THE OLDE THYME FAYRE IS HERE! Almost....

But, at Sept. 7th and 8th, it is definitely close enough to make some plans. Hours are 10:00-5:00 on Saturday, the 7th, and Noon to 5:00 on Sunday, with a variety of activities each day. One of Saturday's favorites is the bake sale....home-baked goodies from the Diersing twins will be available from 10 to 2:00 (unless they sell out earlier) This is in the Barn.

Also on Saturday, Tony Roberson will be painting in the Barn and Kim Mazey will have the very old printing press working. Rob and Deb Davenport will entertain with music of 100 years ago.

Sunday has a baking competition open to all. This years challenge: Decorated Sugar Cookies. CANNED FROSTING IS ALLOWED. We've learned that the judges go by appearance, taste, and texture - soft but not too moist. Cookies should be brought to the Barn between noon and 2:00. $10.00 Dunkin' Donut gift cards will be awarded to the winners in two categories - 12 and under category and 13 and older.

Another Sunday event, if it isn't cold and rainy like last year, is the water balloon toss. Open to all ages!

The Tuesday morning crafters have been busy and are supplying three items for our Chinese raffle: A rag rug, a latch hook rug, and the ever-popular denim rug made from your old blue jeans. There will be a mystery item and a 50/50 raffle. Drawings for all will take place after 4:00 on Sunday.

Some activities are available both days....

Kids Krafts in Charlotte's Corner of the Barn - always a favorite. Weather permitting, we'll try some paper airplane competitions

Ken Roddie and Ed Ponter will be working with old fashioned tools.

You can try your hand at the corn husking machine....pet some chickens...watch spinners turn wool into yarn.

AND - Michael Cohill of The American Toy Marble Museum will be present...displaying, discussing, and teaching everything about how to play games with marbles. He will provide the marbles and has a special rug to use since there is no place where we can draw a circle in the dirt.

There will be many things on display. The Museum will have an array of knitted, crocheted, quilted, embroidered, painted, etc. items - anything homemade. We welcome anything you would like to bring in, and ribbons are given. Bring your creations to the Museum on Friday, September 6th, between 5:00 and 7:00.

The Barn will be home to produce, flowers, jams and canned goods....even eggs! Anything that might come from a farm (or backyard). Bring your goods between 5:00 and 7:00 on Friday or 8:30 and 9:30 on Saturday.

There is obviously a lot to see and do.....all for free!

Summer may be on the wane but there is still a lot to do at the Historical Society. In addition to our regular programming we have a lot of work to do. This may be the time to step up your involvement. There are many ways to pitch in and help to keep our mission going. We have many physical tasks that are ongoing and never ending. We have four buildings and their needs are all unique. They are all over one hundred years old and could use some tender loving care. Wherever you are on life's journey there are ways that you can help.

Are you a gardener, or do you have a spare child who knows their way around a weedwhacker or lawn mower? We can always use dusters and sweepers and folks who love to shine glass. We are always refreshing exhibits and tidying up our living rooms. Lots to do in the Barn too. Send us an email and we will direct you to the appropriate Trustee.

We try to have refreshments at all of our events. Do you have a special cookie you would like to share? Is there a snack that you would be willing to bring? Let us know. Promote the programs that we plan by inviting your friends and neighbors. Post flyers when we attach them to your Newsletter.

Join the Face Book page and visit often. Share the information that you find there. We ask that you post a connection when you do join so that we know something about you. From time to time we get requests from folks who are in search of an advertising outlet. Every now and then someone brings an axe to grind or inadvertently starts a thread that gets too political or personal. It is our job to monitor the page but sometimes we miss stuff. We can use a heads up. If you do spot a problem, please send a private message to one of the administrators. Let us handle it. Share your memories and pictures too.

Bring a little extra money to spend at our shop. We have a great selection of T-shirts. We have books that are written by local authors about our local history. The Green Book is a wonderful book full of memories and gossip. It is history written by the folks who lived it.

We can always use donations, big or small. We take checks, cash or credit cards. Did you know you can also donate through our website? Drop your change into our donation jar when you come to visit. Your trustees are very careful with your generosity.

Memberships make great gifts for that friend who has everything. Certain levels come with incentives like tickets to "Tales of Locust Grove".

Now that the Olde Thyme Fayre is upon us can "Tales of Locust Grove" be far behind? Check out the "Mark Your Calendar" section of the newsletter and put it on your fridge so that you don't miss anything. Circle the last Sunday of the month and plan to bring the kids, grandkids or parents.

Check your Bulletin and Tribune if you are local. These publications do not charge, and they provide us a venue for our press releases. We post in the Summit County Calendar too. The Bulletin will be running a regular feature on Twinsburg History penned by our own brilliant and beloved Dale Diersing.

Send us your suggestions and of course your kudos. If you haven't been to the museum in a while, make September the month.
