Co-Presidents' Message

Dear Fellow Brandeis Members,

It was great seeing so many of you at the recent 2019 University on Wheels. Our visiting Professor Dan Breen did an excellent job talking about “a revolution in juvenile justice: the Arizona case that gave constitutional protections to children.” Mollie Goldfarb, a student on winter break from Brandeis and no stranger to our BNC Phoenix UOW event, enjoyed the Dan Breen presentation and was excited to introduce her mom to one of her favorite professors.

- ◆ Whatever Happened to February? Poor February only has 28 days, but no worries. Our chapter has filled each day to capacity and we guarantee to keep you busy!
- ◆ Study groups are in full swing, with our snowbirds back in town. But do you know that we still have study groups available for you to join, including two new groups? Click HERE to see what’s available.
- ◆ Please join us on February 11th for the last of this season’s Roz Fischer Concerts & Conversations. See page 10 for details.
- ◆ For those of you who have a passion for sharing what you enjoy with others, consider attending the February 11th Study Group Prospective Facilitator meeting on what it takes to be a facilitator. For details, see page 12.
- ◆ On February 20th, join us at our Chapter’s annual meeting, open to all members and featuring Jacquee Petchel, from the Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at ASU. She will be speaking on The Role of Investigative Journalism in our Media-Driven World. See page 7 for more information.
- ◆ The 29th Annual Book & Author event is almost here! RSVP now. Don’t miss out. Be a Bookmark donor. Schmooze with the authors and have an enjoyable evening on February 28th. For those of you who can’t make the Bookmark party, join us on March 1st to hear the authors, shop ‘til you drop at our new and returning boutique vendors and have fun with your friends.

Valentine wishes to our wonderful BNC community.

Book & Author Update

We hope you are planning to join us at the Westin Kierland Resort and Spa on Friday, March 1st! There will be book sales and signings, a marvelous array of boutiques (including your all-time favorites as well as exciting new additions), presentations by our five best-selling authors and a lovely luncheon. Bookmark donors will be invited to attend a Cocktail Reception with the authors the evening before. Information on how you can become a Bookmark this year is on page 5. Bookmark contributions will be directed towards the Magnify the Mind Campaign at Brandeis. The goal of the Campaign is to purchase the university's first two-photon resonance microscope, which will advance the cutting-edge neuroscience research underway there.

We are pleased to announce that the Poisoned Pen bookstore will be our bookseller this year. The Poisoned Pen is an independent bookstore in Old Town Scottsdale and is known for its busy schedule of author and literary events. They graciously offered to continue the book coupons, offering one $5 discount per person. We are very excited to be working with a local bookstore this year and hope that you will consider supporting them at our event.

Invitations were mailed in early January and as always, contained RSVP cards where you can list those with whom you wish to be seated. Additionally, copies of the invitation and RSVP card are available to download on our website - Click HERE to find these and much, much more information about Book & Author!

Come early with your friends - doors open at 9:00 am for boutiques and book sales - and plan to 'shop early, shop often!' Thanks to the hard work of our committee chairs and their many volunteers, the 29th Annual Book & Author Events are coming to fruition. As the date draws nearer, the excitement is building! We hope to see you there!

Your Bookmark Gift Can Really Help Make a Difference!

Kick off the 29th Annual Book & Author events by having fun while supporting important research at Brandeis University! Bookmark donors are those who contribute to this event, and thus to the university, at various levels as described below. As a Bookmark donor, you will be invited to a Cocktail Reception with the authors on the evening before the Book & Author luncheon. Join your friends, meet new people and get to know this year's authors over delicious food and fine wine. Bookmark donors at the most generous levels will have the opportunity to spend even more quality time with the authors at an intimate dinner following the Cocktail Reception.

You can become a Bookmark and attend this event when you send in the RSVP card that you received with your invitation, or Click HERE. Your contribution to become a Bookmark and attend this event goes to the Magnify the Mind Campaign at Brandeis to support the purchase of Brandeis University's first two-photon resonance microscope to advance neuroscience research. Your philanthropic contribution can truly make a difference: it supports groundbreaking research in the field of brain-related diseases, including ALS, Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, autism, epilepsy and MS. Brandeis scientists and researchers have already made headway in finding specific genes related to memory loss and autism.

Please join us on Thursday, February 28th as a Bookmark donor!

For our fourth and final program of the 2018 - 19 season, we are thrilled to have three musical artists: pianist Tavit Tashjian, clarinetist Kristi Hanno and cellist Luciana Gallo. They will perform works by Beethoven and Polish-American composer Robert Mucynski.

The program will take place from 1:00 - 2:30 pm on Monday, February 11, 2019. Doors will open at 12:45 pm at Palo Cristi Church, located at 3535 E. Lincoln Drive, Paradise Valley 85253. There will be refreshments preceding and following the performance.

Contact Joan Sitver, joansitver@aol.com, 602-971-0012, for more details. The price for non-series subscribers is $7, payable at the door.

Tavit Tashjian, Piano

Armenian-American pianist Tavit Tashjian was born in Nicosia, Cyprus. He began his first piano lessons when he was six years old, discovering very early that his desire was to become a concert pianist. His primary mentors and teachers have included film composer/pianist Marcelo Cesena, Alexander Toradze, Professor of the internationally renowned Toradze Piano Studio at Indiana University, and primarily Dr. Caio Pagano at Arizona State University.

He has performed throughout North America and Europe and has been featured with the Mississippi Symphony, Roanoke Symphony and Lima Symphony, and has recently recorded an album with British violinist Pip Clarke. Currently he serves as Director of Music at First Christian Church and maintains a studio of private students. In 2018 he began the Keys to the Classics concert series to spread the art of classical music to the community.

Kristi Hanno, Clarinet

Clarinetist Kristi Hanno, a native Iowan currently based in Phoenix as a teaching artist, has performed for communities across the United States and throughout Europe in Belgium, France, Germany, Spain, Iceland and Croatia, as both a soloist and a chamber musician. Discussing and workshopping various topics concerning the clarinet, chamber music, sustainability, interdisciplinary and sociological aspects are what Ms. Hanno enjoys sharing in masterclass and recital settings. Ms. Hanno strives to shatter any traditional assumptions toward what it means to be a musician today.

Ms. Hanno is a doctoral candidate in Clarinet Performance at ASU and is one of only 40 musicians chosen from hundreds worldwide to participate as a Cohort in the Global Leaders Program, an intensive nine-month Executive Graduate Certificate program in Civic Leadership, Teaching Artistry, Cultural Agency, Social Entrepreneurship and Organizational Management.

Dr. Luciana Gallo, Cello

Argentinean cellist Luciana Gallo is an avid performer currently based in Reno, Nevada. Her international career has taken her to perform in Argentina, Canada, Brazil and Switzerland. She plays with the Reno Philharmonic Orchestra and the Tucson Symphony Orchestra. As a chamber musician, Dr. Gallo frequently collaborates with various artists, including Tavit Tajshian, and she is a member of the Oracle Piano Quartet. Dr. Gallo recently graduated with a doctorate in Cello Performance from Arizona State University, where she was a teaching assistant to Thomas Landschoot. In addition, Dr. Gallo is a third generation Pilates instructor specializing in Pilates for Musicians, and teaches a class for the musicians of the Tucson Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Gallo completed an apprenticeship with Katrina Foe and is fully certified both by Balanced Body and by Pilates Sports Center.

AZ AUTHORS

Monday, Feb. 18 - 12:30 - 2:30 pm
Scottsdale JCC

The speaker for February 18 will be Marshall Trimble. Marshall taught history at Scottsdale Community College for 40 years and is the official Arizona State Historian. He has written over 20 books on Arizona and the West, receiving many honors as a historian, writer and performer.

Besides writing and speaking about history, Marshall Trimble is also well-known as an entertainer who does concerts of cowboy folk music and stories with his guitar.

Marshall will be coming to us with his newly released book Arizona Oddities: Land of Anomalies and Tamales.

RSVPs a must to:

Merrill Kalman mskbflo@aol.com
Guests are welcome with a $5 fee.

MEN OF BRANDEIS (MOB)

On Wednesday, February 13 at 1:00 pm, the Men of Brandeis will hear from Dr. Art Rolnick, who has spoken to the MOB on two other occasions, discussing current and past economic conditions. He will talk about The Financial Crisis of 2008: Where was the Federal Reserve and Could It Happen Again?

Arthur J. Rolnick is a Senior Fellow at the Humphrey School of Public Affairs at the University of Minnesota and an adjunct professor in the Department of Economics there. He has also been a visiting professor of economics at Boston College, the University of Chicago and Lingnan College in Guangzhou, China. Art previously served at the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis as a senior vice president and director of research, as well as an associate economist with the Federal Open Market Committee - the monetary policymaking body for the Federal Reserve System. He is currently working to advance multidisciplinary research on child development and social policy.

A native of Michigan, Art has a Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics and a Master's Degree in Economics from Wayne State University, Detroit. He has a doctorate in Economics from the University of Minnesota.

As usual, the MOB will gather at Milk and Honey, the restaurant inside the J, at noon for a nosh.

SUMMER CAMP

The fun doesn't stop for the summer!

LEARNING IS FUN

A WINTER NOTE ABOUT SUMMER CAMP:

We had a great Summer Camp last year with wonderful leaders organizing a variety of activities. We hope that many of last year's leaders will want to return again this year for either the same activity or something new. In addition, we are looking for new leaders and new ideas. It is a wonderful opportunity to do something you love, meet new people and make new friends in the process.

Please contact Carol Isacson at cwisacson@yahoo.com if you would like to coordinate an activity or with suggestions of activities you would like to see us pursue.

BRANDEIS HAPPENINGS

A feminist guide to Jewish divorce

Traditional Jewish law requires a woman to get her husband's approval to end a marriage. Legal scholar Lisa Fishbayn Joffe advocates for a more egalitarian approach.
