Registration for Sunday Worship 9/20

Please register for church if you are going to attend indoor in-person this Sunday. This includes in-person readers and ushers.

Please order one ticket per person attending indoors

Sunday 9/20/2020

We can't sing, but we can ring!

English handbells are coming soon. Give them a try! Introductory workshops for up to ten ringers, 5th grade through adult, will be led by Kay Sutton. Learn ringing skills while using social distancing, masks, and practice gloves, which will be provided.

Workshops will begin after church service and meet for one hour. Choose one workshop or let me know you are flexible.

- Workshop 1, Sunday, Sept. 27th
- Workshop 2, Sunday, Oct. 5th

Reserve your place by emailing kaysutton@comcast.net

Free Flu Shots this Sunday after church!

Flu shots will again be offered free to Annunciation parishioners this year. A pharmacist will be administering shots from 10 a.m. to noon outdoors in the church parking lot this Sunday, September 20.

Healing Prayer

The healing prayer ministry is adjusting the way we do things. One person will be prayer minister for the entire week. As a normal rule, if you have a prayer request anytime during the week, you may call, message, or email the prayer minister.

September 20:
Linda Lutter, 847-340-3253

Prayer requests:

Until the church re-opens, please email prayer requests to parishadmin@annunciationgurnee.org by Thursday morning.

Prayers of the People

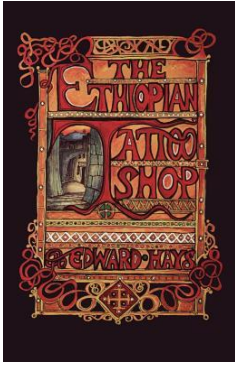

We pray:

For all who yearn for health, for the handicapped, for those in mental anguish or spiritual turmoil, for the incurably ill, and for all who remember and care for them, especially Rob Robison; Carol Eads; Patsy; Greg, Joe, Helene; Jannette Kellogg; Marsha; John; Cindy Hibbard; Charlie and Amy; Ricki and Noah; Cindy; and the people served by Sunrise Assisted Living and PADS.

For all those who serve in the Armed Forces, including Liam Mellen, Maurice Edwards, Chad VanHorn, Christopher Pavy, Nick Unda, Ian Pocklington, Ethan Pocklington, Christopher Froelich, Karl Mohrmann, Trish Hull, and Clay Anderson.

For those who celebrate birthdays, anniversaries, and other good news this week, especially Jan Harastany (9/22), Jennifer Edwards (9/23), and Payton Wilson (9/25).

We praise you, God of our hope, for all the faithful before us who entered into your labors and worshiped you in truth. That we may live faithful to eternal life, we pray.

We're Hanging with the Ethiopian now!!!

The Wednesday study group has now started reading and discussing The Ethiopian Tattoo Shop by Edward Hays. The first session had only six participants, but we were all ready to discuss and give our opinions of how his parables relate to our church and the world around us. We learned a bit about Coptic Christians--many of whom have tattoos of crosses, things of nature, and other intricate designs--before jumping into the parables. We also learned that the Coptic Christians trace their origins back to the Apostle Mark (whose Gospel we just finished studying) who brought the story of Jesus to the people of Egypt.

Since each chapter is a standalone parable, it is easy for anyone to join us since there is no continuity issue. Please consider tuning in.

The book is hard to find since it has been out of print for many years, but several people enjoyed just listening to the discussions.

The reading assignment for Wednesday, September 23, is "Smiley" starting on page 35 through, and including, "The Fig Tree" ending on page 61. By the way, we will find out about "The Magic Folger's Coffee Can" in this assignment. This has been an intriguing title since we received our books!!

The Zoom information is below, and we begin at 10:00 AM.

Please contact Deb Gallinger or Miriam Berry if you have any questions.

Annunciation Pledges

Even in the midst of this event, the church still needs our good stewardship, so we ask that you keep up with your pledges. We understand that people's financial lives might be changing; please speak to Pastor Jenni if you need to update your pledge or if there is a need for assistance. These are the ways you can donate now:

- Mail your check
- Have your bank send us a check

Thank you to everyone who has been faithful in sending their pledges.
