

Charles Wesley Broadway, 92, of Caseville passed away peacefully June 17, 2015 at Tuscola Medical Care Community in Caro after a long and happy life.

He was born June 1, 1923 to Mabel (Kellogg) and Richard Broadway. He married Mildred Westover in Redford on Nov. 7, 1942 and lived in Clarkston until he moved to Caseville in 2002 with his daughter Fran.

Charles served in the Civilian Conservation Corps as a teenager and in the U.S. Navy during World War II and the Korean War. He enjoyed fishing, gardening, introducing himself as "Honest Charlie," trading stories and watching the Detroit Tigers.

Charles is survived by his sister Nita Robinson; daughters, Fran Young and Char (Steve) Williams; grandchildren Vicki (Patrick) Essenmacher, Tina (Kurt) Kowitz, Chuck (Julie) Pepper and Jennifer (James) Stewart; and five great-grandchildren.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents; beloved wife Mildred; sisters Mary Whitwell and Mackie Bowles; daughter Carol Pepper; grandson Scott Williams and son-in-law Chuck Young.

Funeral service will be at 12:30 p.m. Saturday at the Lewis E. Wint and Son Funeral Home in Clarkston.

Visitation is from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday and at 11:30 a.m. until the time of service Saturday at the funeral home. Interment will follow at Lakeview Cemetery.
