

Press Release

g+ strengthens its offer on international tax policy and advocacy

g+ europe is teaming up with international tax consultant Tim Law who is taking up the role of Senior Policy Advisor. Tim has had a 20-year career in tax and is an expert in tax governance, strategy and policy, serving at the centre of the international tax transparency debate for several years. In addition, Tim has considerable industry experience in the extractive sector.

Tim advises clients looking for effective tax policy and stakeholder engagement. g+ europe is currently providing tax advocacy counsel to a number of international companies with exposure to initiatives at G20, OECD, EU and the national level.

Senior Partner Tim Price said: “Tim brings a wealth of tax expertise to g+. He understands the minutiae of corporate tax processes and has first-hand experience in tax advocacy at the national and international levels. This is becoming ever more relevant for multinationals in all sectors.”

Tim Law added: “I am delighted to work with g+ and excited about the added value we can offer clients by combining our talents and resources. Tax is high on the agenda of policy-makers everywhere. There are hundreds of companies which need to up their game in this area and we have the right mix of skills to help them do this.”

Tim spent 16 years working in industry within the tax teams at "Blue Chip" FTSE100 companies, providing corporate tax advice. Most recently, Tim looked after issues of tax policy and stakeholder engagement at Anglo American plc.

Tim is qualified as a Chartered Accountant and the Director of Engaged Consulting Ltd, a UK-based tax consultancy.
