Millerton's Winter Wonderland

Harlem Valley Rail Trail – Millerton, NY, Dutchess County Enjoy the Trail year-round...

With snow all around us, explore the option of cross country skiing, pulling your child on a sled, snow shoeing, etc... The option are limitless...

The trail extends 10.7 miles north from the terminus of Metro North's Harlem Valley commuter line at Wassaic to the heart of the historic Village of Millerton. Along the way, it passes through the Village of Amenia, forests, wetlands, fields and meadows. The trail is revitalizing the communities it passes through and gives people for miles around a secure, beautiful place to get outdoors.

Follow these rules:

- Stay on the right side and allow room for others to pass on the left.
- Let others know when you are passing by saying "on the left" as you approach them.
- This is a carry-in, carry-out trail: NO LITTERING
- STOP at all road crossings.
- No horses or motorized vehicles are permitted.
- Bikes and skaters must yield to walkers.
- No cutting or removing of vegetation.
- Do not disturb or feed the wildlife.
- Park in designated areas.
- No alcoholic beverages, camping or fires allowed on the trail.
- Keep all animals leashed. Clean up after them.
- Stay on the trail and please be quiet near residences.
- No hunting on the trail.

Check out the Tiny Libraries on Main Street... The children's (light blue) Tiny Library was built and painted by Mary Howard and Louise Black. The adult Tiny Library was built by Jordan Thirlwall and Sean Conroy at the NECC After-School Program with the help of John Rocanova. The Tiny Libraries are maintained by the NorthEast-Millerton Library. Their purpose is to help foster a love of reading in the community and provide free access to books to anyone who wishes to read.
