Biography

Joyce E. Koglin, 85 years old of Port Hope, passed away at home on July 30, 2024 surrounded by her family. Joyce was born at home in Lincoln Township, Kinde, Michigan on October 16, 1938 to the late Otto and Blanche (Van Hautte) Brade.

On August 24, 1957, she married the love of her life Marvin H. Koglin at St. Peter's Lutheran church in Kinde, Michigan. They had celebrated 60 years of marriage before he preceded her in death. Joyce was a lifetime dairy farmers' wife and member of Dairy Diplomats. She was a lifetime member of St. John Lutheran church in Port Hope, where she belonged to the ladies' aid and quilting bee. She was a member of the Tip of the Thumb Square Dancers club. Joyce enjoyed crocheting, quilting, making crafts and selling her items at local events. She decorated cakes for birthdays, confirmations, graduations, weddings and other special occasions. She enjoyed working with children through being a Girl Scout and 4H leader, and she also volunteered at the Port Hope Community School. Joyce spent time flower gardening, and writing cards and letters. She loved being with family, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. After raising her family, she worked at K-Mart in Bad Axe, Michigan.
