

Animal shelter activities raise nearly $9,000

The two weekends of the Randolph County Animal Shelter Book Sale brought in a total of $8,926, including the $2,500 match by the Modern Woodmen of America Chapter 16200, Tallapoosa City, which fundraising chairman Evelyn Smith was ecstatic about.

She said, "The Randolph County Animal Shelter would like to thank all who participated in our book sale and raffle that was held at Chris Mitchum's warehouse this past weekend. Many thanks to the Modern Workmen Of America for matching funds in the amount of $2,500. Wow! Many thanks also to all the volunteers who spent many weeks shelving and culling the books so that the folks in Randolph County have such a fun day in their community the days of the sale."

The raffle winners were drawn and the raffle winners are Deborah Fields from Woodland, first prize of $300; Lori Arnold from New York, second prize of the watercolor by Suzan T. Scholl; and Clara Mitchell from Wedowee, third prize a Kindle Fire.

Shelter waives fee for long-time guests

The Randolph County Animal Shelter Barktoberfest will be 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Oct. 23-27 to find homes for those who have been residents of the shelter for more than 30 days-an Old Timer's Special. Free adoptions for those animals will be done at the shelter at 104 Animal Shelter Road, Wedowee. State spay and neuter laws apply, although the adoption fee does not. View available animals on www.RandolphShelter.org.
