

Working with Boards, Committees, and Volunteers

Critical to the success of any chamber or association executive or staff member is the ability to work closely with volunteers. This session offers tips and techniques for dealing effectively with the volunteers who are so important to the goals and objectives outlined in your annual “program of work” and, more importantly, your strategic plan. (60 – 90 minutes)

This session covers:

- Selecting the Right Volunteers for Key Positions
- Developing Positive Staff – Volunteer Relations
- Establishing a Board and Committee Training Program
- Rewarding Volunteers
- Motivating the Volunteer of the Future
