Where do the funds raised go?

The Elizabethtown Lions Club supports the greater Elizabethtown Community, by providing the following local services:

- Providing free eye exams and glasses for approximately 40 needy individuals per year
- Providing an annual Easter Egg Hunt for the children of Elizabethtown
- Sponsorship of the Elizabethtown Boys Club Yankees baseball team
- Provides High School Senior outstanding youth scholarship awards
- Sponsorship of the Boys and Girls Leadership Seminar for High School Juniors
- Sponsorship of Annual Football Awards and Banquet for the Lancaster/Lebanon League
- Donations of monies to various local organizations, including the Elizabethtown Food Bank
- Various other service projects as the need arises

The Elizabethtown Lions Club supports our national and global community through supporting the following:

- Supporting the Lions Beacon Lodge
- Diabetes Awareness Programs
- The Leader Dog program
- The Northeast PA Lion Eye Bank
- Hearing and Vision Research
- The Susquehanna Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired
- Lions Sight First campaign
- Four Diamonds Fund
- Helen Keller Fund
- IU13 Deaf/Low Hearing Program
- Lions Club International Fund

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF THE LIONS!
