isolation, and humane disposition facilities for sick, biting, rabid, unwanted, unclaimed, or other dogs in violation of this ordinance, and in lawful custody under this ordinance.

Section 2. POUNDMASTER.- - The county may employ a poundmaster on such terms, salary, or other compensation as it may determine or a public or private provider of animal control services on such terms as may be agreeable. In either case, all county ordinances and state statutes shall be complied with and such records and reports as the Board may require shall be made.

The County of Union shall, in the event that excess dogs are not removed under court order, have the right to go upon the offender's premises and remove the excess dogs. The excess dogs shall be properly maintained by the County at a location of its selection for 48 hours, and the offender shall be given notice that such dogs will be disposed of after expiration of a 48-hour period unless the offender makes some other arrangements for the dogs.
