Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific three (3) credit hour, Instructor led course, calls attention to the unique situation court interpreters find themselves in daily. It is true that oftentimes Interpreters find themselves on the front line of explosive encounters with defendants, witnesses and others involved in courtroom proceedings. Other than law enforcement, the day to day Interpreter oftentimes finds themselves in direct communication and physical contact with convicted murders, child molesters, rapists and many other types of dangerous individuals. This is NOT the case for most courtroom employees, including Judges, Clerks, District Attorneys or Public Defenders!

This class addresses the unique safety situation court interpreters work in daily, and addresses issues specific to court interpreter safety by teaching the Interpreter how to recognize potential threats which may be encountered in a courtroom environment, and at the hands of an individual being interpreted for. From civil matters to multi-defendant homicide trials, this course will familiarize the Interpreter with the actions, terminology, phrases, physical signs and subtle indicators associated with inmates, defendants and the public which may result in direct assault, or other negative contact between an Interpreter and an individual utilizing Interpreter services.

Interpreters will learn varied methods of physical assault and mental intimidation inflicted upon Interpreters in courtrooms, court holding cells, attorney conference rooms and jail interview rooms by potentially hostile individuals. Interpreters will also gain valuable insight as to personal positioning while interpreting and how to most effectively use listening devices to maximize Interpreter safety. *Course may also be presented via webinar with "live" interactive Instructor participation and moderation.
