

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Around the Mansion...many things are happening in preparation of Fiesta, VIVA!
But first, let's review January events at the mansion:

- ❖ The Friendship Round Table hosted 30 guests for a fun game, "Murder Mystery". It was fun for all: even Betty Lewandowski was scurrying around trying to put her clues together. Hopefully they will bring the game back on a larger scale in the near future. Thank you, Ashley Bruno and Tara Ferguson, for your creativity,
- ❖ Our Ingenue young ladies provided a wonderful Italian Spaghetti Luncheon on Jan. 19th with pretty table decorations and the spaghetti and meatballs were delicious. The meal included dessert and salad. It's a nice tradition to establish with your family each year. Helen Jones attended with her daughter Gretchen, who is a member, and Gretchen's daughter, three generations, how beautiful. Our member Norma Reyes invited Rey Feo 2026, Dr. Oliva and some of his court members and friends to the luncheon. The King was in his regalia and what an honor. Thank you, Norma.
- ❖ We had our VIP photo shoot where pictures were taken for our WC Fiesta Magazine. Our Queen, Tessa Christensen and Princess Paulina Rodriguez, were beautiful with their crowns and trains. King Antonio, Rey Feo, our VP and I posed with our WC Royalty. ¡Viva Fiesta.....VIVA!
- ❖ There's chatter among members about the upcoming Valentines Luncheon on Friday February 13th. There will be a 5-course meal, entertainment and libations. Make plans to attend this inaugural Woman's Club event. Like, "Dia de Los Muertos", I'd like to see our Valentine's Luncheon become an annual event, to have its special day.

ROUND TABLE CORNER

Noontide Round Table met at Virginia Van Cleave's home for their kickoff meeting of the new year. She gave them a tour of her wonderful collections amassed over years of traveling the world.

Books and Letters Round Table. At their January meeting, member Rosario Sanchez provided a sweet touch by providing each attendee with a small pouch of inspiration. She also wore an appropriate apron for the meeting.

INGENUIE ROUND TABLE

Dear Members,

Thank you all for your continued support of the pasta luncheon year after year. Without you, our Ingenues would have less opportunities to serve the community. The money raised is used for Ingenue programs and supporting the Respite Care children. This year's pasta luncheon raised $1,775!

As chair of the pasta luncheon, I would also like to thank all those that made it happen. Ms. Kathy was the first to arrive and one of the last to leave, including being our chef for the day. The Christiansen family for all they do for the club! Ms. Sue Walski for decorating, and the Ingenues/moms/grandmas for setting up and serving. My mom, house-chair Irma Duran, donated a case of authentic Chianti to set the mood and took an extended lunch from work to help me run the program.

You might have also noticed the introduction of meatballs and cream cake to feel like Italia!

Highlights of the sold-out event included the Roy Feo Court joining us after the MLK march. Outside was cold yet the inside was warm with friendship.

Thank you for another successful year!!

-Paulina Rodriguez: Pasta Lunch Chair, WCSA Teen Princess

Dear Members,

The Coronation honoring our Queen and her court will be held March 22nd, at The Carver Center. Any club member who wishes to have a child participate are welcome. Ages of participants are four through eighteen. Please follow the link below to register and upload their bio. This bio will be used for the program the day of the event.

Our club sponsors one of the seven official Fiesta Queens. This year will be our sixty first year. Each year we hold a coronation to celebrate our Teen Queen and Teen Princess. They are selected from the club members' relatives, daughters, granddaughters or nieces. The court is made up of girls and boys sponsored by a proud club member. Both King Antonio and Rey Feo are in attendance to crown our royalty.

This event is one of three official Fiesta events that the Woman's Club hosts. The coronation is open to the public and is a free event. Participants are dressed in their finest. Ladies are dressed in white gowns and girls may wear tea length white dresses. White gloves are to be worn. No tiaras are to be worn. Boys are asked to wear white suits. We do have a limited number of white dresses and suits available at the club. A bio and photo of each child is needed with the participation fee. A reception is held at the club afterwards and participants and family and friends are invited.

If you do not wish to pay via Ticketleap, cash or checks should be taken to the office – before the deadline, 03/01/2026.

Follow the link for the WCSA Coronation submission form. Please use your computer, not your phone.
