

Crank, Mildred

Mildred B. Crank, 92, of Pittsfield Township and formerly of Caseville, passed away Tuesday, April 18, 2000, at Whitehall Convalescent Center. She was born Jan. 20, 1908, in Lenawee County, the daughter of Everett D. and Ethel J. (Sebring) Sinclair. Mrs. Crank grew up in Ypsilanti and was a graduate of Roosevelt High School. On May 6, 1937, she married Frederick J. Crank and he preceded her in death on April 27, 1973. She was a member of the Caseville United Methodist Church, a lifetime member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Ypsilanti Chapter, and a member and secretary of the Caseville Library Club for many years. Survivors include one son, Frederick J. Crank and his wife, Carole, of Caseville; one daughter, Ethel E. Sanderson and her husband, John, of Ypsilanti; seven grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and one sister, Margaret Marsh of Ypsilanti. In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by two brothers, Harold and Gerald Sinclair. There will be a graveside service at 2:30 p.m. Friday, April 21, 2000, at the Caseville Township Cemetery with the Rev. Michael Quayle of the Caseville United Methodist Church officiating. Visitation is 5 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Moore Memorial Chapel in Ypsilanti. Memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.
