

On December 14th, Assemblyman Magnarelli attended a White House summit in Washington, D.C. as part of Communities in Action: Building a Better New York. The invitation from the White House was given to Assemblyman Magnarelli and a group of New York local elected officials and community leaders working on behalf of our communities to create opportunities and improve peoples every day lives.

Assemblyman Magnarelli in front of the White House in December.

Out In The Community This Winter

Assemblyman Magnarelli recently met with Dave Smith, Region 3 Director of the DOT, Ed Weber and Susan Lafex of the Town Board of Geddes and Manny Falcone of Lakeside Fire Department to talk about possibilities of making the path from the Pleasant Beach Bridge better for the emergency services gator vehicle.

Assemblyman Magnarelli met with Brian Rowlands, Library Manager at Solvay Public Library. The Assemblyman secured $30,000 in 2021 for interior work and computers and in 2022, $25,000 for renovation to the main entrance, which will be done in the near future.

Assemblyman met with the John Venditti Italian-American War Veterans Post #1. He was able to secure a $10,000 grant so the Post could repair the sewers servicing the building.

Assemblyman Magnarelli met Otto the Orange at the announcement of new Syracuse Head Football Coach Fran Brown on December 4th at the Lally Athletic Complex at Syracuse University. Go Coach Brown and Go Orange!