CANTORES CELESTES
CELEBRATES 25 YEARS OF MAKING MUSIC

From Kelly

The music for this concert is united according to the heavenly theme of the text. However, the selections offer a diverse mixture of colour and sound, from Baroque and plainsong to spirituals and contemporary American, as the choir takes you on a musical journey through heaven.

The music includes Johann Adolf Hasse's Laudate pueri, featuring our guest soloist, Katherine Napiwotzki and the stirring Dixit Dominus by Baldassare Galuppi's from the Baroque era. We are revisiting our spirituals, a special type of music that is near and dear to our hearts.

We are thrilled to welcome back several stellar musicians to share the incomparable Ellen Meyer on piano is joined by The Emperor String Quartet and Matthew Coons on organ. Cantores Celestes is honoured to sponsor a local charity. For this concert, 'City Called Heaven,' the recipient is Sistering, an organization that serves homeless, marginalized and low-income women in Toronto.

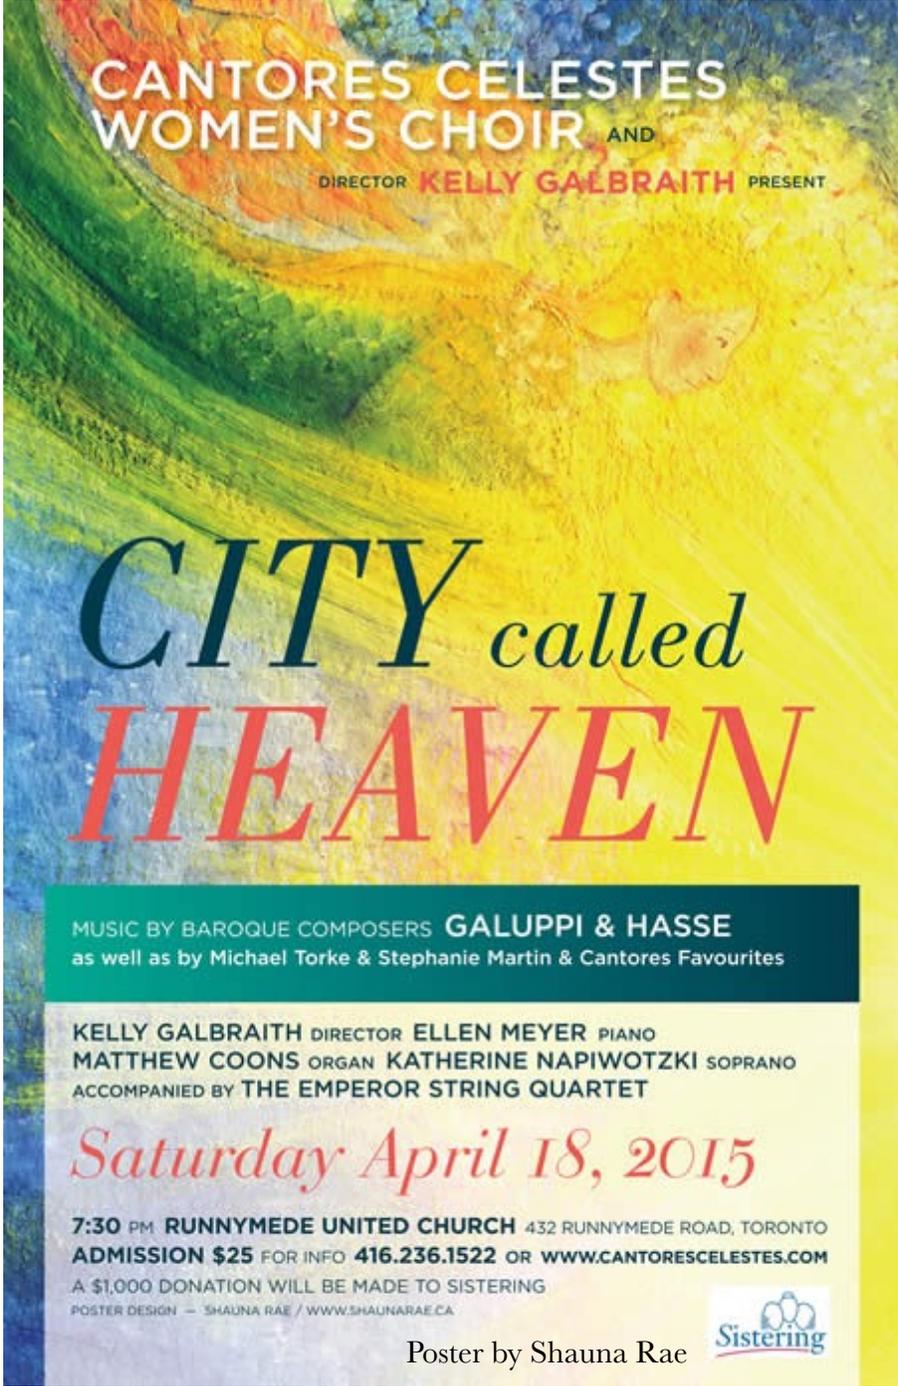

Cantores Celestes has a new and improved website. The address is the same (<http://www.cantorescelestes.com>), but the look is completely different. We want to thank Maureen Smith for her beautiful and easy to navigate design. Everything you want to know about Cantores Celestes in one, easy step. Check it out. There are also links to our YouTube videos.

SINGERS WANTED! Do you read music? Do you love to sing? Cantores Celestes Women's Choir is holding auditions for all vocal parts: alto, mezzo and soprano. Celebrating its 25th season of sold out performances to audiences of over 500 people and donations of over $40,000 to charities. Our repertoire includes medieval, baroque, romantic and classical-contemporary music, with touches of Celtic, gospel, bluegrass and Eastern European.
