

The TI Legend

The Tiger Inn Newsletter

Volume 14 Number 1, 2013

The undergraduate members this year have maintained the glorious tradition our alumni have left behind. The entire membership has supported all of our members as we excel in social, academic, athletic, and artistic outlets.

TI's wrestlers fought hard on the mat. Ryan Callahan came within a point of advancing to the NCAA tournament. Zach Bintliff, senior year captain, had a great season only narrowly missing the mark. Charles Fox, Greg Field, Luis Ramos, Jason Ott and Andrew Hirai all ended their senior year on a high note, and many young wrestlers in TI bode well for the future.

Mike Dye, a captain, and Lydia Rudnik, a captain of the Women's team, both plan to play professionally in Europe. As always, our Water Polo members had a successful season in the pool, led by senior captains Billy Tift and Jack Ruth. The Rugby team, with a Academically, it is impossible to overlook Jake Nebel's excellence and success. Jake was named a Pyne Prize winner, awarded to the senior who has most clearly manifested excellent scholarship, strength of character, and effective leadership, a Marshall scholar and a published academic. Jake intends to pursue a master's degree in philosophy at Oxford.

There are also many members of TI involved with putting on an event called Fashion Speaks, a fashion show to raise money for foundations Autism research and education. Many of our current Spanish-speaking members have been continuing weekly English speaking lessons with some of the staff. We also look forward to keeping tabs on our many members taking posts as members of Teach For America, like Allison Vise, Bonnie Rogers, Molly Bagshaw, Luis Ramos, Sarah Chen, and Tom Irby. We also wish Will Schleier, the outgoing Social Chair, best of luck as he takes on a challenge of teaching English and Finance in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia.

THANK YOU TO ALL THOSE WHO HAVE MADE THE TIGER INN BUILDING PROJECT A REALITY!

WATER POLO

VOLLEYBALL

In front of a capacity crowd, the Princeton men's volleyball team dropped a dramatic 3-1 thriller to the 13th-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions. Tiger Inn members Pat Schwagler had 16 kills and four blocks, sophomore member Cody Kessel (pictured here), in only his second match back from injury, had nine kills, six digs and three blocks and senior captain Michael Dye added six kills, four blocks and hit .400 for the match, and sophomore member Will Siroky had six blocks. Kessel led Princeton with six digs.

RUGBY

The Rugby Union club of Princeton has had a long standing presence at TI boosting past and present leadership on and off the field. Last year's VP Phil Halsey (pictured above) is leaving this year's TI President Chris Hamm in a good position after winning the 2013 Rickerson Cup again Rowan University. The Rickerson Cup, the New Jersey Intercollegiate State Championship. The Cup is named after Tiger Inn Alumnus Stu Rickerson, class of 1971.

Senior Men's Lacrosse Captain, Chris White is playing for a great Tiger team this year, that includes Jeff Froccarro, (pictured here) who is an All-Ivy player and just reached an incredible milestone of 100 career points.

To The Glorious,

In case you were wondering, the Tiger Inn is still standing despite your best efforts at causing as much havoc as possible before you graduated. In fact, as the fortunate new president of this club I am happy to say that we are thriving. With 88 new members this spring I can assure you that Tiger Inn traditions are strong. In addition to the goings on at the Tiger, our membership has been doing big things around campus and in the sports world. So let me take a second to remind you just how Glorious your club is with a little update from the past year.

To start, I'm president. My name is Chris Hamm and I am an Environmental Engineer from DC who plays hooker for the men's rugby team. Our officer corps is a top notch group of active, hardworking, and fun-loving individuals starting with varsity wrestler "Danger Dan" Santoro as VP, varsity water polo player Matt "Poogle" Pugliese as Social Chair, club soccer captain Hill "Big Ears" Wyrrough as treasurer, club sailing champ Ashley "Hey There" Barclift as Safety Czar and Jack Harris as House Manager. Elected only in mid-February, we have hit the ground running with some amazing members nights such as Karaoke Night featuring an intimate karaoke lounge in the taproom and the old favorite, Cowboys and Indians night. We could not have a better group running the club and it's looking like we're going to have an incredible spring.

As I mentioned before, our membership never fails to impress and this year has been pretty outstanding so far. In case you have not heard already, senior Jake Nebel was recently a co-winner of the 2013 Moses Taylor Pyne Honor Prize, the highest general distinction awarded by the university each year. Our men's lacrosse players, Chris White, Jeff Frocarro, Tommy Gibbons and Paul Zima are representing the club well while facing the country's toughest competition as the 10th ranked team in the nation. Taking a look at the arts around campus, our President Emeritus/a-cappella singer/actor, Ben Barron, produced a big hit in the Student Playwrights Festival in early March with his original play "Dirty Dogs". From only these few examples I hope it is clear that TI remains one of the most interesting and diverse clubs on the street and we could not be more proud of that.

With that I'd like to say that TI would not be the place it is without its vibrant and rowdy alumni who constantly remind us to cherish every moment we spend together at a meal or in the taproom and to never forget that we will always be members of the Tiger Inn. The new building has more space than ever and while we have been utilizing it as best we can, only when it is filled to the brim with new and old members will its glory be fully realized. So please, come back during reunions and introduce yourself to myself, any of the officers or any member for that matter and take advantage of one more opportunity to

Come early, stay late, be loud, wear green,

Chris Hamm '14
