Meeting was called to order at 12:32pm by Deb Kroschel.

Agenda was reviewed. Introductions will be moved up to item 2 instead of 5. Motion made by Loretta Higgins to approve agenda with amendment. Seconded by Amy Stafne, motion carried.

There were 15 member businesses in attendance, all of whom made introductions.

January meeting minutes were reviewed. Sara Jerry made a motion to approve, seconded by John Cabak. Motion carried.

Financials were reviewed. Motion made by Tim Williams made a motion to approve, seconded by Bill Lowe. Motion carried.

New members: Hinckley News, Thrifty White and Vision Pro.

If you are a member that would like to host a general meeting, especially in June, July and August, please email Char. We are not able to meet at Tobies during those months.

If you are not part of a committee and would like to be, please email Char. Different ideas are always great to get!

Char presented a CCC updated. Sponsorship level forms were handed out as well as the button design forms. A magician has been booked for CCC. His name is Kevin Hall.

Char presented an Easter update as well. The sponsorship levels are egg, chick and bunny. These requested donations are much smaller than CCC. Town and Country will be doing a craft project with the kids and Miss Hinckley will be holding a bake sale. Char will email out the sponsorship forms for this event after the meeting.

New website: Char needs a website update from each business. She wants to be sure that each business has their webpage on our site the way they want it. The website will be live April 1st.

Open forum: Vision Pro: The head of HR was here to present. She has been with Vision Pro since 2009. They have 10 locations spanning from Hinckley to Superior. Town and Country: Sara presented their new promotion. The Hinckley Elementary School's backpack program is a recent recipient of their donation. They also have a scholarship program for people who insure their home with one of the mutual companies they work with.

Tim made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Bill. Adjourned at 12:54pm.
