WHAT YOU NEED FOR YOUR GIRLS TO...

Getting the girls out to explore their world and experience new activities is fundamental to Girl Scouting and developing leadership qualities in the girls, whether it is taking a hike, planting new flowers at the local assisted living facility, camping, or traveling to Sea World, Savannah, Georgia, or Our Chalet in Switzerland. It is often confusing for leaders to know exactly what training is needed, forms to fill out, or equipment to bring. The GSGLA Adult Educators team has created a handy chart to reduce the mystery!

On page 63, you will find “What I Need for My Girls to Attend A...” Please review this chart on our Council website. This chart will be updated periodically, so confirm all requirements in the online version.

GIRL SCOUT FUNDAMENTALS

This document is a manual for individuals, Service Units, troop leaders, and other volunteers who plan Girl Scout events and money earning activities. The event manual contains information and tools to assist you in all stages of the event planning process. This manual also reviews useful Girl Scout information regarding Girl Scout programming, standards, and procedures. It is important to follow Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA) and Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles (GSGLA) policies, practices and procedures.

Use this manual in conjunction with Volunteer Essentials as well as the applicable Safety Activity Checkpoints.

This manual can be used in each aspect of event planning. The documents in the Tips and Tools will assist your team for event planning in Girl Scouts. Although this manual has a lot of necessary information regarding event planning, your Service Unit can also serve as a resource during the planning process by sharing information specific to your Service Unit and local community. Check if your Service Unit team has an event coordinator position, as that volunteer would be a helpful resource.

When planning activities with girls, note the abilities of each girl and carefully consider the progression of skills from the easiest part to the most difficult. Make sure the complexity of the activity does not exceed girls' individual skills—bear in mind that skill levels decline when people are tired, hungry, or under stress. Also use activities as opportunities for building teamwork, which is one of the five outcomes for the connect key in the Girl Scout Leadership Experience. (GSLE)

Councils are responsible for seeing that all activities are planned and carried out so as to safeguard the health, safety and general well being of the participants. As such, certain procedures have been put into place to ensure that the volunteers who conduct activities with girls are aware of the policies, practices, and procedures, they must follow.

Responsibility is delegated to Leaders, Event Directors, Service Unit Managers, Service Unit Event Coordinators, etc., as appropriate. The Vice President of Program is ultimately responsible for event approval.

All events should:

- o Follow GSUSA and GSGLA policies, practices and procedures
- o Meet Safety Activity Checkpoint standards
- o Be appropriate for the grade level group for which it is planned
- o Provide positive learning experiences
- o Offer opportunities for girls to get to know people outside their troop
- o Meet the goals of the GSLE
- o Include girl/adult planning when appropriate
- o Pay for itself but not limit participation due to cost
- o Provide a maximum potential for FUN!

WHAT IS A SPECIAL EVENT?

A special event is defined as any event organized by Girl Scouts generally for Girl Scouts and meet any of the following these criteria:

1. Any event that includes girls/troops outside of your own troop beyond the scope of regular meetings with four or more troops.
2. Any event that is a community service project for Take Action Projects, Bronze, Silver, and Gold Awards (including fundraising).
3. Any event that collects funds (regardless if profit is anticipated or not). Events that do not accept payment, make a profit or make less than $200 will not be counted against the four Money Earning Activities.
4. If the event is some other organization's event, e.g., parade or community clean up, it is NOT a Girl Scout event. However, the Girl Scout coordinator for participating Girl Scouts should CAREFULLY review the event organizer's paperwork, being especially wary of requests for liability waivers and such. If liability is waived, parents should be made aware of that before their daughter participates. All Girl Scout policies, procedures, and guidelines must always be followed.

Money Earning Activities (MEA) will be assessed upon final report and deemed a MEA or not.

Note: Collaborations are when two or more troops collaborate and share expenses for such item as bus rentals. This would not be considered an event or Money Earning Activity.

DEVELOPING QUALITY GIRL SCOUT PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

When working with the event committee and girls to plan activities for Girl Scouts, you will want to ensure that you provide a quality program to all participants. Here is a list of questions to ask when trying to determine if the activity provides a quality Girl Scout experience. If the answer to any of the questions is no, the committee and girls will want to consider modifying the activity or possibly abandoning it all together.

Does the activity

- Support the Girl Scout Leadership Experience outcomes?
- Reflect the values of the Girl Scout Mission, Promise, and Law?
- Provide an opportunity for personal growth, exploration, and discovery?
- Involve girl-planning and input?
- Provide a positive learning experience?
- Support the event's purpose and goals?

Is the activity

- Safe?
- Appropriate for the applicable Girl Scout grade levels and current abilities?
- Fun?
- Flexible?
- Affordable?
- Challenging?
- Consistent with girl progression guidelines?
- Led by well-trained and enthusiastic staff or volunteers?

EVENT PLANNING STEPS

Step 1 Assessment/Event Ideas

Assess the needs and interests of your audience. This can be done both formally (e.g. through surveys) and informally (e.g., asking people like fellow volunteers or leaders and girls). Assessing needs and interests is a critical first step towards purposeful programming. See Girl Scout Event Ideas.

Step 2 Goals

Once you have a sense of your audience's interests and needs, begin to clarify your goals for the event. Establishing goals and objectives will guide your organization in the planning process.

Consider the following as you establish your goals:

- Who is your audience – the whole council? A particular Service Unit or area? What age levels?
- What are you trying to accomplish by having this particular program? Do you want to educate? Analyze a problem? Make a group feel involved? Get buy-in? Build enthusiasm? Earn badges? Money-earning for a troop/Service Unit/award?
- What specific need(s) is your program meeting?
- Are girls involved in the planning/facilitating the event?

Step 3 Brainstorming

Brainstorm ideas are designed to meet your audiences identified needs, interests, and goals. Discuss the feasibility of programs, available resources, special requirements, and conflicts of possible duplication in programs. Brainstorming is often one of the best ways for a group to come up with ideas for general programming and publicity gimmicks. Also, consider whether your program ideas are inclusive of many/all girl members. While we rarely meet all girls' needs in one program, we should strive to be as inclusive as possible in our efforts.

Step 4 Safety

Consult Volunteer Essentials & Safety Activity Checkpoints to make sure that your event is appropriate, allowable, and safe.

- Do you have enough adults?
- Can you safely carry out your plan?
- Insurance needs are met?
- Permissions are granted?

Step 5 Resources

Now that you have a general concept for your event, check your resources:

- Is there enough support in the organization for the event?
- Are there enough people to complete the necessary responsibilities?
- Is it worth the estimated cost?
- Can it be done (and done well) in the time allotted?

Step 6 Initial Planning

Begin planning by selecting a date, requesting space, creating a timeline, and starting necessary paperwork (e.g., contracts).

- Identify possible dates and then select the best one(s). Take into account time needed to organize and publicize. Determine possible conflicts, such as product sales, community events, holidays, weather, other programs, etc.
- Determine the anticipated attendance – this will allow you to secure the most appropriate location and can help you estimate costs more effectively.

- Look for facilities/space for the program. Consider all your options and be sure to check early because your top choice may already be reserved.
- Consider who will be involved in the planning, implementing, and evaluation of the event.
- Identify the special needs of the event (e.g., equipment, parking, stage, insurance, sound, etc.).

Step 7 Budgets

- Is this a troop money earning activity? All events that accept payments are considered Money Earning Activities (even with no profit expected). How much does the troop hope to earn?
- If not, is the cost per girl covering the expenses?
- Develop a budget. Use sample form in the Tips and Tools Section, the GS Event Budget Tool (excel), or create your own.

Step 8 Approval

- Fill out event application online at <http://www.gsglavolunteerapps.org/specialevent>
- Attach flier and financial statement (if Money Earning Activity).
- Note: No Girl Scouts Volunteer shall enter into any agreement or contract that is binding on the council or includes a hold harmless clause. Please refer to the Volunteer Essentials.

Step 9 Advertise

- Develop a girl friendly flier that will get their attention. (See Tips and Tools for sample and requirements.)
- Once Approved: Ask for the event to be added to the Service Unit web page and emailed to leaders.
- If the event is council-wide and not limited to your service unit, click the appropriate box on the application. (Note: changes to a council wide event must be updated immediately online at SEME Application Change Form.)
- You can also post on thePixieListLA.com website.

Step 10 Confirm Plans

- Finalize room/equipment reservation and setup needs.
- Arrange for needed/additional help (volunteers, teen girls) and supplies.
- Write confirming letters/emails to performers, speakers, and other contracted services. Keep a copy for your files.
- Plan and organize your group's efforts. Delegate and coordinate each person's responsibilities in advance of the event.
- Consider the worst-case scenarios for your event: what happens if it rains and your event is scheduled to be outdoors? What if the electricity goes out in the middle of the performance? What if attendance considerably exceeds capacity of the space? Discussing possible worst-case scenarios in advance of your event will prime your problem solving abilities so that on the off chance something like this happens you can remain calm and collected.

Step 11 Implement the Program

- Arrive early; check all set-up needs and confirm that your volunteers know what they are responsible for during the event.
- Meet performer(s) or speaker(s).
- Take care of last minute details.
- Introduce the event and identify your organization and any other sponsors.
- Monitor break times; keep event on schedule.
- Be prepared to pay speaker or performer at conclusion of event if prearranged.

- At the conclusion of the event, cleanup all spaces used and be sure to return any equipment.

Step 12 Post Event – Final Steps

- Send out and collect event evaluations
- Pay any outstanding invoices
- Deposit remaining registration fees
- Send thank you letters
- Update event budget with actual amounts
- Submit the online Special Event/Money Earning Final Report within 30 days of event. A link provided with the event approval notification.
- Hold a post event meeting with team to discuss evaluations and make notes for future events.

Most Girl Scout events can be planned and carried out in four to six months. But just as the size and scope of Girl Scouts vary greatly across Los Angeles, so do the events. Some events can be planned in as little as four months and some may take as long as a year. We have given you a twelve-month timeline as a guide to when all the steps need to be covered. Sometimes the process can be sped up; sometimes it takes longer.

GIRL SCOUT EVENT IDEAS

- What adults do you need?
- What training do the adults need?

ADULT-TO-GIRL RATIOS FOR SAFETY ACTIVITY CHECKPOINTS

Always refer to Volunteer Essentials and Safety Activity Checkpoints for up to date information. The Girl Scout Leadership Experience provides direction to meet the developmental, educational, emotional, and social needs and interests of girls in the Girl Scout grade levels.

Girl Scout Grade Level	Events Two Non-Related Adults (At Least One Of Whom Is Female) For Each Number (Below) of Girls	Plus One Adult For Each Additional Number (Below) Of Girls
Daisy	6	4
Brownie	12	6
Junior	16	8
Cadette	20	10
Senior/Ambassador	24	12

Girls with cognitive disabilities may be enrolled as a Girl Scout until the age of 21. Girls should be placed with peers of their same chronological age and wear the uniform of that grade level.

Girl Scout grade level is determined by the current membership year, beginning October 1st.

Note: If you are hosting an event that involves more than one Girl Scout grade level, use the younger Girl Scout grade level when determining the required number of adults. For example, if you were planning an event with Girl Scout Juniors and Girl Scout Cadettes, you would use the adult-to-girl ratios for Girl Scout Juniors.

How to use the chart:

You are planning a Bridging event for 80 Girl Scout Juniors. According to the chart, you will need two non-related adults (at least one of whom is female) for the first 16 girls. You will also need another adult for each additional eight girls.

$80 - 16$ (covered by two non related adults) = 64. $64 \text{ girls} / 8/\text{girls covered per } 64 \text{ per additional adult} = 8$. In this example, you will need a minimum of 10 adults to meet the required Safety Activity Checkpoints ratio. If you do not have 10 adults present at this event, it will need to be cancelled.

GENERAL EVENT SAFETY INFORMATION

Safety consciousness should be a priority for all Girl Scout adults, especially those planning events. The essence of effective safety management can best be summed up by the traditional Girl Scout motto - Be Prepared. For each event that is planned, the planning committee needs to develop a specific plan that includes procedures for potential emergencies. Depending on the event, the group attending may need to have a drill on site so that, if an emergency arises, the established procedures will be followed. The following information will help the committee develop its own emergency procedures and consists of general guidelines only. They are not a substitute for reading and adhering to Safety Activity Checkpoints. Failure to adhere to the Safety Activity Checkpoints guidelines may make you liable should an accident or injury occur.

Volunteer Essentials, Section 4: Safety-Wise and Safety Activity Checkpoints can be found at GirlScoutsLA.org.

Site Security/Site Hazards

- Security at any site (even GSGLA sites) should not be taken for granted. Secure all belongings and report any suspicious behavior to the police
- Non-council sites will require additional safety precautions. If the site is open to the public, what guidelines must be in place to ensure girls' safety? Who is your point of contact in case of an emergency? What are the boundaries of the event? Which areas are off limits? You may want to include this information in your event's rules of conduct
- A member of the event planning committee should tour the site prior to the event and make note of any potential hazards such as holes, exposed tree roots, drop-off's, etc. These hazards should be reported to participants and volunteers
- Make sure all emergency exits are clearly marked. This may mean having to create additional signs
- If the site includes water (pool, lake, river, etc.) that will be used for activities, a currently certified lifeguard as well as additional spotters in accordance with the number of participants must be in attendance. This information can be found in the applicable Safety Activity Checkpoints

Emergency Procedures

- All events should have well publicized emergency procedures (in case of tornado, blizzard, fire, intruder, etc.). These procedures should be posted in several highly visible locations. All volunteers and participants should be aware of these procedures
- If you are having a multi-day event, you may want to hold an emergency drill on the first day to allow girls to practice the procedures. After the drill, remind girls that this will be the only drill. If they hear the alarm again, it will be a real emergency
- Have a method for determining if all the girls and adults are present and accounted for
- Have a delegation of authority and responsibility for communication with fire officials, people on site, Council staff, and parents

First Aid

- There must be a designated first aider on site at all times during a Girl Scout event
- The first aider must be currently certified in First Aid/CPR/AED or Wilderness Remote First Aid depending on the activity and length of time for emergency services response. See specific Safety Activity Checkpoints to determine what is required for the event
- The first aider should be in a central, well-marked location and not have any other position during the event
- A vehicle must be on hand to transport individuals to a medical facility if necessary. If this occurs, another volunteer should accompany the individual, and the first aider should remain at the event
- All girls must bring a permission slip to the event. If the event is an encampment, a Health History form is also required
 - Depending on the event, these forms can either stay with the troop leader or with the first aider. If leaders will be with their troops all day, they may want to hold on to the forms. If girls will be separated from their troop leaders then their health forms should be given to the first aider
- During Encampments (Enc), any girls who are taking medications should inform their adult leaders. Any medication (both prescription and over-the-counter) should be in the original container and administered in the prescribed dosage by the first aider per the written instructions of a parent/guardian. All medications brought to the event should be stored in a locked box with the first aider. Clear and concise directions as well as the person's name must be on the bottle

- o An Over the Counter \(OTC\) Medications form that you can adapt and use for your event is available on the GSGLA website

The designated first aid area should include:

- Quiet area for potential patients
- A least one cot with blankets (Enc)
- List of all emergency phone numbers
- Driving directions to the nearest medical facility
- Accident and insurance claim forms
- Copy of GSGLAs' emergency procedures
- Copy of Crisis and Safety Management Report Form
- Locked box for medication (Enc)
- Participant health forms/registration forms
- A bound and numbered journal (Medical Log) to enter all treatments given to participants and staff.
- A well-stocked first aid kit.

A first aid kit should include the following:

- Adhesive tape and bandages
- Alcohol wipes
- American Red Cross First Aid Reference Book
- Band-Aids, assorted size
- Bottle of distilled water
- Cell phone
- Gauze pads
- Disposable gloves (non-latex)
- Oral thermometer (disposable)
- Paper drinking cups
- Plastic bags for used materials
- Pocket face mask for CPR
- Roller gauze bandages
- Triangular bandages
- White index card, transparent tape, and self-closing bags
- personal care items
- Soap
- Flashlight
- Instant ice pack
- Splints
- Scissors
- * Safety pins
- Tweezers

EVENT INSURANCE

In order to ensure proper risk management, the event director needs to make sure that all participants attending Girl Scout events are covered by accident insurance.

Two types of insurance:

Member insurance: Every registered girl and adult member of Girl Scouts of the USA is covered by supplemental accident insurance for any authorized and supervised Girl Scout activity lasting two nights or less including travel to and from the activity. If the event is more than two nights in duration, additional insurance may need to be purchased.

Non-member insurance: Non-member insurance must be purchased for people attending the event who are not registered Girl Scouts. This might include parents, siblings, friends, volunteers, speakers, etc. It is not intended to cover girls in lieu of Girl Scout membership registration. Non-member insurance is purchased through Mutual of Omaha, which pays the first $100.00 of medical expenses for accidents and then is supplemental to other insurance. The fee is 11 cents per person per day with a $5.00 minimum. The $5.00 minimum will cover up to 45 non-members per day.

How to purchase non-member insurance:

- Fill out the appropriate Mutual of Omaha enrollment form. The form can be found on Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles' website using the document search
- Send the form with a Girl Scout (Troop or Service Unit) check or money order payable to Mutual of Omaha to any Girl Scouts Service Center. This must be received at the Girl Scouts Service Center no later than two weeks prior to the first day of the event. The insurance company will not accept cash, credit cards, or personal checks

http://www.girlscoutsla.org/documents/MoOmaha_Additional_Insurance_Request_Form_2011.doc

- To calculate the cost for non-member insurance use this equation: number of non-members x number of calendar days x $0.11 = cost of insurance. The check must be made for $5 minimum or the exact amount when over $5
- Include the Service Unit name, event director's or activity leader's name, event or activity date, time, location, and number of non-members you wish to insure. You may attach an event or activity flier, if you have one
- The form and check will be returned if:
 - It is not a troop or Service Unit check or money order
 - The information about the event is incomplete
 - The payment is not received at the Service Center at least two weeks prior to the event
- If needed the GSGLA council registration specialist can complete the Mutual of Omaha enrollment form for you upon request with the information provided
Print out a claim form to take to the event. The claim form and more information about non-member insurance can be found on the Mutual of Omaha website <http://www.mutualofomaha.com/gsusa>
- If injury occurs at the event, fill out the top part of page two of the claim form (do not sign the claim form), and contact GSGLA
- Follow directions on the pink card for After Hour Emergencies
- Follow the instructions on the GSGLA Accident/Incident Report and submit the form within 72 hours to your local service center. You will be contacted and given further direction

INVOLVING GIRLS IN EVENT PLANNING AND LEADERSHIP

Girl involvement in planning and leading Girl Scout events is not only possible; it is an essential component of a successful Girl Scout event. The key to successful girl planning is being aware of girls' current abilities and providing constructive mentoring throughout the process.

The Girl Scout Leadership Experience model engages girls by using the three keys to leadership: discovering themselves, connecting with others, and taking action to make the world a better place. This model begins with a definition of leadership that girls understand and believe in: a leader, girls say, is defined not only by the qualities and skills one has, but also by how those qualities and skills are used to make a difference in the world.

Girl planning and involvement look different at every Girl Scout grade level.

Grade Level	Involvement Examples
Daisy (K-1 st)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop rules of conduct for the event • Choose between two or three items, such as food options and/or activity options
Brownie (2 nd - 3 rd)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All of the above • Choosing the event's theme from three or four options • Making name tags and invitations • Leading a flag ceremony at the event
Junior (4 th -5 th)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All of the above • Developing the theme of an event • Leading activities for Girl Scout Daisies and Girl Scout Brownies • Leading opening and closing ceremonies • Those with Junior Aide training can be given even more responsibility
Cadette (6 th -8 th)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All of the above • Email, telephone, or personal contact with potential sites, vendors, and/or volunteers • Planning songs, activities, skits, and ceremonies • Sharing their skills and experiences in Girl Scouts • Those with Program Aide training can be given even more responsibility
Senior (9 th -10 th) Ambassador (11 th -12 th)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All of the above • Total planning of events with adult support and advice • Girls can earn LIT and CIT

MENTORING GIRLS DURING EVENT PLANNING

Ways to get started:

- Use the Girl Scout Leadership Experience Outcomes (page 16-18 of this manual) as your guide. What elements of planning and leading the event will help girls meet these outcomes?
- Provide the event theme and budget and ask the girls to develop a ceremony and/or activity
- Ask girls to create two or three possible ideas for a theme, activity, menu, etc. and ask them to present their ideas to the planning committee
- Ask girls to pick their favorite (theme, activity, menu, etc.) from a list of choices
- Ask open-ended questions to help girls review and evaluate their choices: "Have you considered how you will handle..." "What is your plan if..."
- See Page 46 in Tips and Tools for a sample planning committee meeting agenda

Throughout the process:

- Once the girls have made a decision and this decision has been approved by the committee, you need to let girls own that entire aspect of the event
- Ask girls to provide regular updates to the committee regarding progress
- If problems arise, ask girls to brainstorm possible solutions
- Depending on the level of the girls, they may be put in charge of buying necessary materials, managing funds for their aspect of the event (with adult supervision), as well as showing other volunteers what to do
- Give girls a timeline and deadlines for when things need to be completed
- Provide assistance if necessary, but avoid doing things for the girls; they will learn a great deal from mistakes
- Be patient
- Be aware of girls' other commitments
- Be a positive role model
- At the event, make sure girls lead their aspect. Do not have girls plan an activity and then have adults lead it or vice versa

After the event:

- Ask girls to evaluate how things went
- Thank girls for all of their help. If you provide tokens of appreciation for event volunteers, be sure to include the girls as well
- Let girls know about upcoming Girl Scout events and how they can be involved
- In future events, let girls take on more challenging tasks
- Ask girls to serve as mentors for other girls during planning for the next Girl Scout event

THE BENEFITS OF WORKING IN A COMMITTEE

- A group can generate more ideas than an individual person
- Teamwork will help create a complete program and prevent details from being forgotten
- The workload is divided among many people meaning less stress for everyone involved
- Provides volunteers with opportunities for growth and leadership
- Encourages collaboration among volunteers

SOME IMPORTANT THINGS TO REMEMBER ABOUT EVENT VOLUNTEERS

- Include girls as much as possible. Looking over the list of positions, can you find any that girls in your troop or Service Unit might be able to fill?
- Be as specific as possible about volunteer roles and responsibilities when recruiting. How much time will they need to commit? What training is necessary? When must they be available?
- If volunteers must be trained and/or certified, be sure to verify that the training/certification is completed before the event.
- Remember: these positions do not have to be solely held by committee members. There may be some volunteers who are interested in assisting with these duties but are not interested in serving on the planning committee.
- For larger events, consider recruiting special interest volunteers to assist with the Girl Scout event. Special interest volunteers are individuals who want to share their talents, interest, and time with Girl Scouts on a flexible, as needed schedule. Use the Pixie List LA to place an ad.
- Remember: You will need a minimum number of adult volunteers present at the event to meet the Safety Activity Checkpoints required adult-to-girl ratio. These volunteers must be present at the event and may or may not hold some of the positions listed above. For more information on these required ratios, see page 12-13 of this manual or visit the GSGLA website for Safety Activity Checkpoints.

GUIDELINES FOR MALES WITH GIRL SCOUT OVERNIGHT EVENTS

- Males either leading or attending Girl Scout activities are most appropriately housed in non-coed settings. Arrangements should be requested/arranged prior to the event. Please do not assume that because you are using a Girl Scout site there will be separate housing available.
- Where separate housing is not available, it is vital to inform the parents and the girls of the housing arrangements in advance. It should be recognized that housing arrangements might cause discomfort or concern to some girls or their parents.
- Be prepared for creative accommodations. Some sites have "Men" designated restroom facilities; other sites are readily adapted by use of a temporary sign. Other sites will require "guarding" by a female adult when the male(s) are using the restroom facilities.
- A question on the registration form will let you know if a troop/group will have a male(s) accompanying their group. To avoid an unpleasant situation, please discuss this with the girls and parents in advance.
- Men are welcome and encouraged to participate in adult roles in Girl Scouting. Men must never be left alone with girls, but must be accompanied by an unrelated adult female.

TIPS FOR WORKING EFFECTIVELY WITH VOLUNTEERS

All volunteers:

- Clearly explain the work that needs to be accomplished and specify what results are expected
- Establish a timeline for the completion of tasks
- Provide goals and deadlines
- Follow-up with volunteers frequently throughout the process; offer assistance/guidance if necessary
- Reinforce that all final decisions need to be approved by the event coordinator
- Show your gratitude for their hard work and dedication. Provide frequent verbal thank yous throughout the planning process and event. At the end of the event, provide a small token of appreciation such as a card, candy, or small item from the Girl Scout Shop
- If you need to mediate a disagreement with another volunteer, do so privately
- Be as inclusive as possible. There are many differences among the members of Girl Scouts including differences in geographic location, age, religion, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, education level, physical abilities, socio-economic status, and experience with Girl Scouting. When recruiting volunteers for your event try to recruit adults and girls who reflect the diversity of your Service Unit/area
- Hold a pre-event meeting for volunteers about a week before the event. This will give you a chance to discuss the details of the event and in turn will make volunteers feel more confident about their roles. Some things to include in a pre-event meeting:
 - Create a sense of a common purpose
 - Review expectations of the event- yours and theirs
 - Review general program content
 - Review site boundaries, schedule, and procedures
 - Review policies regarding behavior and their consequences
 - Outline emergency procedures for the day of the event
 - If appropriate, discuss budget issues
- Consider nominating outstanding volunteers for a GSUSA or GSGLA award. More information about these awards can be found in the Volunteer—Recognition section of the GSGLA website at GirlScoutsLA.org.

Planning Committee:

- Include representatives from each Girl Scout grade level that will be invited to the event. For example, if you are planning an event for Girl Scout Daisies and Brownies; your committee might include Girl Scout Daisy and Girl Scout Brownie leaders
- Define the structure of the committee
 - Round-table committee: Everyone contributes to everything
 - Positioned committee: Different people are in charge of different planning areas such as site, food, program activities, etc.
- Establish a meeting schedule and be sure to consider all committee members' calendars
- Value all committee members' viewpoints

RECOMMENDED GIRL SCOUT EVENTS

Service Units are encouraged to host the following four Service Unit events each year; however, each event is not limited to a single Service Unit-wide event. They can be planned in conjunction with another Service Units, and can take many forms including small events for each Girl Scout grade level, or informal events at the troop level. Many of these events involve collaboration with other key Service Unit team members. In this case, the service team member is listed in parenthesis after the event type.

- Cookie Rally Event: (Service Unit product program manager)*
- World Thinking Day Event (February 22) *
- Ceremony Events (Court of Awards, Investiture, Rededication, Bridging Ceremony)*

- Recruitment Event: (Service Unit Organizer/Recruiter, Service Unit Registrar)*
- Family Fundraising Campaign/Event (Service Unit annual giving coordinator)
- Juliette Gordon Low Birthday Event (October 31)
- Girl Scout Week/Birthday Event (March 12)
- Girl Scout Leader's Day (April 22)

THE BENEFITS OF GIRL SCOUT EVENTS

Girl Scout events offer a number of benefits to both girls and adults. Girl Scout events provide:

- The opportunity for girls to meet with other Girl Scouts outside of their troop
- Leadership opportunities for girls and adults
- A chance to have fun
- A chance to try an activity that a girl might not experience in a traditional troop setting
- An opportunity for girls to serve as role models for each other
- An opportunity to promote retention
- A chance to recruit new members

EVENT SITES AND VENUES

All meeting places, camps, and other sites used for Girl Scout program activities must provide a safe, clean, and secure environment and allow for participation of all girls.

Make sure that all places selected for activities are easily accessible to all members, including girls with disabilities. The location for the event is inspected in advance, with consideration for the following, as they apply:

- It is safe, secure, clean, properly ventilated, heated, lit, free from hazards, and has at least two exits
- Suitability to event size, age groups, and kinds of activities
- Availability of parking (accessible by car or bus)
- Is the site a "busy location?" Will there be other groups doing activities at the same time? How will that affect your plans?
- First-aid equipment is on hand and proximity to medical facilities
- Sufficient potable water and restrooms are available to participants and designed to accommodate those with disabilities. One restroom (toilet) per 50 participants for daytime events and one restroom (toilet) per 20 participants for overnight events
- Accessible by telephone or other communication equipment
- Emergency exits are functioning, easily accessible, adequate, and well marked
- Fire safety and security arrangements
- Lighting for evening and indoor activities (if necessary)
- Vulnerability to inclement weather
- All pets are restrained away from the meeting area where girls are present

OTHER IMPORTANT ITEMS TO CONSIDER WHEN CHOOSING AN EVENT SITE

- Availability for your desired date
- Cost
- Sufficient sleeping arrangements (if necessary) Review sleeping arrangement guidelines in Safety Activity Checkpoints. Is there adequate space for each troop/group to sleep, cook, and do program without doubling up on space? Do indoor sleeping spaces have smoke detectors and emergency exits?

- Availability of special facilities if necessary (i.e. basketball court, fire ring, ice skating rink, etc.)
- Shelter available in case of inclement weather
- Occupancy limits are not exceeded for indoor gatherings and events
- An emergency evacuation plan is in place
- A food-preparation area used for large groups of people that meets state and local standards. . If cooking, will each troop have its own area? What facilities will be in each cooking area (i.e., tables, cook stoves, storage, etc.)?
- Are there electrical outlets and water spigots where you want them? Is there a flagpole, campfire ring, check-in area, playfield, etc.?
- Provisions are made for garbage removal and site cleanup
- Can you get references from other youth groups using the site?

USING GSGLA SITES

- Reserve a council site by completing the site reservation form available in the Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles website under Camp & Property. You can reserve council sites up to six (6) months in advance and no later than two (2) weeks prior to date.
- Tour the property to ensure that it has the correct amenities for the event.
- All fees are due at the time of reservation. Check the cancellation policy prior to making the reservation.

USING NON GSGLA SITES

- Written permission to use the property must be obtained from the property owner.
- If a contract or permit is required, you may not sign it. Attach the contract to the online event application for approval and proper signatures.
- An adult from the committee should tour the property to ensure that it has the correct amenities and meets Girl Scout criteria stated above.

USE OF WATERFRONT FOR EVENT RECREATION

Regardless of whether your event is on Girl Scout property or a public beach, lake or pool, there are certain requirements you must meet, in accordance with Safety Activity Checkpoints. If you intend to use the waterfront for swimming, boating, wading, or other water activities, you must have present a currently certified lifeguard and additional spotters in accordance with the number of participants. (Check the appropriate Safety Activity Checkpoints for the appropriate number and levels of lifeguards required.)

EVENT DATES

When choosing potential dates for a Girl Scout event, it is important that you are as inclusive as possible.

- Consider the following:
 - Product Sales
 - Holidays
 - Religious holidays (be sure to include the diverse faiths religious holidays)
 - School breaks
 - Major school events such as graduations, sports events, concerts, plays, final exams, etc.
 - Other Girl Scout events (particularly if they are being held by a neighboring Service Unit)
 - Community events
 - Personal calendars of the committee members

Before confirming an event date, check for any potential conflicts. NOTE: It is nearly impossible to find a date that will work for every single person. Pick a date that allows the largest number of Girl Scout members to be able to attend.

Once the date and location of the event has been confirmed and approved, begin publicizing. Ask the Service Unit manager to include the event on the Service Unit calendar. Make sure to include the individually registered girls and special interest troops in your Service Unit. Attend Service Unit leader meetings and announce the date and place or distribute save-the-date fliers. Many leaders plan their troop activities far in advance, so the more notice you can give them, the better.

EVENT BUDGETING

Fees should be based on estimated budget costs of the event. Event directors should know what the break-even point is (for number of participants) and may choose to publish minimum and maximum numbers on flier.

Knowing how much to charge at your event means developing a budget.

- It is important to develop the budget first, and then set the price
- Every item in the budget can be divided into two categories: an individual cost or a group cost
 - Individual costs include food, attractions, crafts, and patches. These are considered variable costs and are dependent on the number of people attending
 - Group costs include buses, site, materials, supplies, and speakers. These are considered fixed costs. (Whether or not the bus is filled, the cost does not vary)

How to figure costs: Make copies of the sample Girl Scout Event Budget Worksheet to use (in Tips and Tools). One side of the worksheet is individual costs and one side is group costs. Work through all the categories below putting any fees you may incur in the correct column. You can also use the GS Event Budget Tool excel spreadsheet which can be downloaded in the Events section of http://www.girlscoutsla.org/Cool_Tools

Food – A good guideline is $5.00 per person for lunch, $8.00 per person for dinner - depending on the size of group. The smaller the group the more cost per person; $1.50 per girl for snack or $2.50 per girl if the snack includes a beverage. Remember this is a guideline. Other things to consider:

- Food events or specialized cooking. If your event is international cooking and each girl (troop) is making something different you might want to increase your food budget
- If you have adults and girls who are leading the event who are not paying for meals, add these together and put them in the group column
- Have your troop donate/bake items to help save on costs.

Admission fees – Things like admissions to events, water parks, bowling, will go in the individual column for paying participants.

- If you have adults and girls who are leading the event who are not paying admission, add these together and put them in the group column
- If the admission fee is more than you feel girls can afford, or you have many extra adults who want to go, you can charge the extra adults
- If possible, consider offering financial assistance for girls in need

Program supplies – These are consumables such as art supplies or science experiment supplies. This can be as little as $1.00 per girl or much higher depending on the number of activities per girl. Remember to use your resources wisely and try to get a portion of the supplies donated.

Insurance – If the event is going to include non-scouts, you must obtain additional insurance from Mutual of Omaha. For insurance guidelines see page 15.

Girl Scout Recognitions– Include the cost of any petals, leaves, badges, journey awards, patches, and t-shirts items that you are going to give to the girls.

Site – Most sites charge per building, or per use; these go in the group column. If they charge per person put it in the individual column.

Bus – Call or send your dates, places, and routes to the bus company. Ask them for an estimate of cost. This is a group cost. Contact your membership specialist for the current list of the approved bus companies.

Equipment supplies – These are non-consumables that can be used over and over again. Consider renting or borrowing whenever possible to decrease storage needs. This is a group cost.

Speakers/Resource people – If you are paying a naturalist, a lifeguard, or a speaker, they usually have one set price that would be a group cost. An honorarium is a payment to a professional person for service on which no fee is set and it also goes in this category.

Printing and Postage – This may be the flier, promotion, confirmation letters, or thank-you notes to volunteers. Figure five cents per side for printing and add postage. Generally $1 per girl will cover a school/town with fliers and allow a one-page confirmation mailing. Remember to use your resources wisely and try to get some of the supplies donated.

CALCULATING THE AMOUNT TO CHARGE

- Add up the group side of the worksheet. Estimate expected number of paying participants. This is a guess. Guess high and/or use figures from similar events. Remember not every girl in the Service Unit is going to attend
- Divide the total group expenses by the minimum number of paying participants you expect
- Add this into the individual side and total the column. This is the fee per girl. Round amount up to even dollar amount

Look for the “GS Event Budget Tool” in the Cool Tools section of the GSGLA website. This template is in Excel, the format and formulas can be adjusted to fit any event, and it is helpful in determining the amount to charge.

Note: Don't forget about the badges your girls can earn while planning events.

EVENT BUDGETING TIPS AND GUIDELINES

Guidelines to remember:

- Remember that all Girl Scout events must be self-sustaining
- Remember that your budget is based on having a set number of participants attend the event. In order for the Girl Scout event to be self-sustaining, this is the minimum number of paying participants you need to break even. As registrations begin to come in for an event, the event committee will want to closely monitor the number of participants. If they have far fewer than this minimum number, they may need to consider cancelling the event

Budgeting Tips:

- Communicate the budget in writing to the event planning committee. Creating a spreadsheet to track the budget along with all of the actual expenses will help the event stay on track. Using the GS Event Budget Tool can assist you with this task
- Review income and expenses on a regular basis with the event planning committee. This helps to avoid any surprises
- If registrations are lower than budgeted for, determine what expenses can be reduced in order for expenses to not exceed revenue
- If registrations are higher than budgeted and there is a surplus, determine what can be added to the program that brings value
- Those individuals making purchases need to have approval from the event coordinator. This approval must be obtained before the purchase takes place
- Receipts for all transactions need to be kept to ensure good management practices and to keep an accurate account of funds

Payment for the event:

- Participant fees can be paid by various ways: checks payable to the host troop or Service Unit (not to an individual), Eventbrite, PayPal, VolunteerSpot, credit card readers (Square, Sage), or cash (receipts should be given for cash payments)
- If participants will be registering as troops, request one check or credit card per troop
- The event registrar should give participant fee checks to the event treasurer in a timely manner.
- Service fees for accepting credit cards may not be passed on to the attendees.

After the event:

- Collect surveys from attendees (girls and adults). Sample surveys are listed in Tips and Tools, pages 52-53. Once the event is complete, a Final Report is within 30 days. The Event Director will receive an email with a link to fill out the report.
- The financial report requires the following information:
 - The total revenue for the event
 - Total expenses for the event
 - Updated participant numbers
 - Comments

MONEY EARNING ACTIVITY (MEA) GUIDELINES

A Money Earning Activity (MEA) is an optional activity. MEAs should have program value for girls and are consistent with the Program Standards and Council policies on money earning. All Safety Activity Checkpoints and Council policies and guidelines must be followed.

Money Earning Basics

Girls planning a trip or other special program activity (Silver/Gold Awards) may require funds in addition to those earned through the council product sales. As girls decide on activities that they want to accomplish during the year, they should create a troop budget. Using the budget, the girls should then set goals for their participation in the fall product sale, cookie sale, and other money earning activities. Troop money earning provides girls with a valuable opportunity to learn about all aspects of goal setting, money management, and entrepreneurship.

Quick Summary

- Service Unit Manager and the Girl Scout Events/Money Earning Activities Go Team approval is required before you begin advertising a Girl Scout event.
- Applications must be submitted online at the GSGLA website no less than four weeks before the event
- The Service Unit Manager or Event Coordinator will approve or deny the request.
- Troops must be in good financial standing with the Council to be eligible to do a money earning activity.
- Girl Scout insurance only covers approved events and activities. Additional insurance may be required for certain events.
- All Troop members must be registered GSUSA members and have the signed Parent Permission Form by a parent/guardian.
- All questions must be answered thoroughly. Incomplete applications will be returned without approval.

MEA activity must meet the following criteria:

- Be a valuable program activity for girls that will generate additional funds for a planned activity or event.
- Be suited to ages/abilities of the girls and consistent with the goals/principles of the Girl Scout Program.
- Be a girl activity – planned, generated, produced, and performed by girls, with supervision from leaders.

Eligibility

- Girl Scout Daisies cannot participate in Money Earning Activities (MEA).
- Gold Award Candidate MEA applications must be approved by the Program Department.
- All troop/group members must be current registered GSUSA members.
- All troop/group members must have a permission form signed by a parent/guardian to participate.
- The troop/group must have prior year's Year-End Financial Report on file with Council and must submit a current snapshot of the troop finances with the Girl Scout Event application. Consult your troop/Service Unit treasurer for assistance. Snap shot can be current financial report or bank statement (please blackout the account numbers on report/statement).
- Troops must actively participate in both cookies and fall product sales in order to get permission for money-earning activities. "Active participation" means that at least 50% of the girls in a troop participate in product sales.
- Troops must have a purpose and financial need for the MEA. The income from the MEA does not become the property of individual girls, but is part of the troop or Service Unit treasury.

Helping Girls Reach Their Financial Goals

In order for a troop/group to participate in additional MEA, there must be a need. One of your opportunities as a volunteer is to facilitate girl-led financial planning, which may include the following steps for the girls:

1. Set goals for the MEA – What do the girls hope to accomplish through this activity? In addition to earning money, what skills do they hope to build? What leadership opportunities presented themselves?
2. Create a budget – Use a budget worksheet that includes both expenses (the cost of supplies, admission to events, travel, and so on) and available income (the group's account balance and projected Cookie & Fall Product Sales proceeds).
3. Determine how much the group needs to earn – Subtract expenses from available income to determine how much money your group needs to earn.
4. Make a plan – The group can brainstorm and make decisions about its financial plans. Will cookie and fall product sales—if approached proactively and energetically—earn enough money to meet the group's goals? If not, which group MEA might offset the difference in anticipated expense and anticipated income? Will more than one group MEA be necessary to achieve the group's financial goals? In this planning stage, engage the girls through the Girl Scout processes (girl-led, learning by doing, and cooperative learning) and consider the value of any potential activity. Have them weigh feasibility, implementation, and safety factors.

5. Write it out – Once the group has decided on its financial plan, describe it in writing. If the plan involves a group MEA, the troop must submit a current snapshot of the troop finances with the Special Events application for approval from Council.

Remember: It's great for girls to have opportunities, like the Girl Scout Cookie Program, to earn funds that help them fulfill their goals as part of the Girl Scout Leadership Essentials (GSLE). As a volunteer, try to help girls balance the money earning they do with opportunities to enjoy other activities that have less emphasis on earning and spending money. Take Action projects, for example, may not always require girls to spend a lot of money!

Restrictions

- Troops can run up to four (4) MEAs plus the council's product sales (cookies and fall product sales) for a total of six (6) Money Earning opportunities per Girl Scout Year (October 1st through September 30th)
- Council approval is required before you begin planning or advertising an event
- The Council is not responsible for any loss incurred from a MEA
- Money-earning activities cannot take place during the booting period of Council-sponsored product sales programs without the approval of a council VP
- Activities must comply with local ordinances (including, but not limited to, local health department rules). They must be free from any association with gambling, raffles, silent auctions, games of chance and direct solicitation of cash, all of which are not approved activities. We must protect the name and goodwill of Girl Scouts of the USA and Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles
- MEAs cannot solicit or raise money for any other organization or solicit over the Internet
- Troops cannot take orders for, sell, or endorse a commercial product or business of any kind (this includes Mary Kay, Tupperware, Candle Lite, Culvers and coupon programs). However, they can sell wholesale, non-branded or homemade items
- Girls and adults should be dressed appropriately and should wear the Girl Scout pin, sash/vest, or troop uniform (if the activity permits) during the MEA

EVENT PUBLICITY

General guidelines

- Consult with your Service Unit communications representative or your Service Unit manager to find out how events have been promoted in the past and what works best for the area
- The event should be promoted to ALL of the girls in your Service Unit at the appropriate Girl Scout grade level. For example, if the event is designed for Girl Scout Daisies, you should promote the event not only to Girl Scout Daisy troops, but also to Girl Scout Daisies who are Independent Registered Girls, in special interest groups, and staff-led community partnership troops
- Begin advertising as soon as you have all of the necessary information and the flier has been approved. This may be four to six months before the event
- Use a variety of communication methods. Attend service team leader meetings and announce your event.
- Distribute fliers via e-mail or post information on your Service Unit's website. If the event is open council-wide, you can request to have it posted on the Council website.
- Notify the local community newspapers and online neighborhood news like The Patch about the event. This is especially useful if the event will involve recruiting girls. You might also inquire as to whether the paper is interested in covering the event. Check with your Service Unit manager to see if there is a communications representative in the Service Unit who might be able to assist with this. If you want to publicize your event in a daily publication or on network television, e-mail communications@girlscoutsla.org before you send your announcement

- When you create publicity for your Girl Scout event, you not only influence people's perception of your Service Unit, but also of the Girl Scout organization. You want to create a positive impression, so you will want to ensure that your publicity is well designed, free from errors, and reflective of Girl Scouts' commitment to inclusivity
- Changes to your event should be made publically as soon as possible. There is an online change form if the event is on the Council website

ITEMS TO CONSIDER BEFORE CREATING YOUR EVENT FLIER

1. Identify the audience of your flier: Who will read this flier? Girls? Adults? Both?
2. Determine the most appropriate writing style for the flier. For example, you would not use the same language in flier designed for an eight-year-old girl as you would in a flier designed for an adult.
3. Determine the purpose of the flier. What do you want the flier to accomplish? Is the flier designed to give information? Recruit volunteers? Persuade people to attend?
4. Determine how the flier will be distributed. If you are mailing the flier, you will need to take into account the placement of address labels and postage, and how the flier will be folded when you are deciding on a design.
5. Gather all of the essential information about the event:
 - Event title, description, and purpose
 - Participants (who is invited to attend)
 - Date, time, location, and address
 - Cost
 - Items to bring (be sure to include any necessary forms)
 - Contact person for additional information
 - Registration deadline
 - Event cancellation and refund policy
 - Girl Scouts service mark
 - If an overnight event, information about accommodations

TIPS FOR WELL DESIGNED FLIERS

- Margins of full-page fliers (8.5 X 11) should be at least .5 inches wide. Do not fill up every bit of space on your flier. Some white space will make your flier easier to read
- When choosing images for a flier, select clip art that will reproduce well (no heavy shading) and ensure that clip art is inclusive and not demeaning to any particular group
- Organize your flier around one large visual element rather than several small visual elements scattered throughout the page
- Do not use copyrighted material (cartoon characters, song lyrics, etc.) without seeking permission from the copyright owner. If permission is granted, you must credit the source in your flier
- If text is handwritten, it should be created in solid black ink for best reproduction
- Avoid writing in all capitals or in italics. Both will make your text more difficult to read
- Use no more than one to two different fonts throughout the flier. Arial or Times New Roman are standard fonts that most computers can read
- Use decorative lettering sparingly; in large amounts, it can be difficult to read
- Select a paper color that is appropriate for the intent and audience of your flier
- Proofread, proofread, and proofread. Have multiple people check the flier for typos and other errors

GIRL SCOUTS SERVICE MARK

- Guidelines can also be found online in Cool Tools.

The Girl Scout service mark should be used on all event fliers.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCESS

- Girl Scout Events are approved by the Service Unit Manager or Event Coordinator and the Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles Event/Money Earning Go Team
- Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles reserves the right to deny MEA if it is deemed not in compliance with GSUSA Safety Guidelines and Council polices and guidelines
- A completed Special Event online application must be submitted for approval at least six (6) weeks prior to the activity

Contact your Service Unit Manager, Event Coordinator, and/or Mission Delivery Specialist if you have questions regarding Money-Earning Activities.

GIRL SCOUT EVENT SUBMISSION AND APPROVAL PROCESS

1. Submit the online event application that includes:
 - Information about your event
 - Event flier
 - Location contract for approval/signature, if applicable
 - Current Troop Financial Report or Bank Statement (if MEA). Don't forget to blackout the account numbers.
 - If MEA is for travel, include approved application.

A suggested time of year to submit your event plan is when the Service Unit team/leaders are working on their annual Service Unit calendar (usually in spring for the upcoming fall program year). Much of the Service Unit budgeting, evaluation, and planning is completed at that time. Of course, Service Units may have opportunities to incorporate events at other times of the year as appropriate, if the event enhances the Service Unit's spring plan.

2. The Service Unit event coordinator or manager will review and discuss all event applications to ensure quality Girl Scout programming. Having service team support is very important when planning Girl Scout events – the team has a lot of experience and can provide a great deal of support. Once the Service Unit team has approved the application, the application will be reviewed by an Events and Money Earning Activity Go Team representative. Once the application is approved the event planner(s) may go forward with preparations.

3. Event Directors should work closely with Service Unit Managers/Event Coordinators to discuss expectations or any problems that arise. Service Unit Managers, Event Coordinators, Go Team Members and Council Staff are here to offer support and assist the event director in making the event successful.

All events must follow the established council event guidelines found in the Volunteer Essentials and Safety Activity Checkpoints.

EVENT REGISTRATION

To minimize errors and streamline the registration process, the committee will want to choose an event registrar.

- Depending on the type of event, you may choose to have girls register individually or as a troop. Regardless of the type of registration, create a registration form that includes all of the following:
 - Name of participant (if individual) or the name of the troop leader(s) and the names of the girl participants
 - Contact information: address, telephone number, and e-mail address
 - Troop number and Girl Scout grade level
 - Registration deadline
 - Cancellation/Refund policy
 - Information about payment and the amount required
 - Parent and guardian permission for participation and the use of any photos
 - Identification of any food allergies, dietary restrictions, or health concerns
 - Choice of food, activity, or session (if applicable)
- Determine the event's cancellation/refund policy well in advance of registration. Often if an individual or troop cancels, the registration fee is not refunded unless someone from the waiting list fills the spot. Whatever policy the committee creates, it should be clearly stated on the registration form.
- As registrations come in, create a list of the troops or individuals participating. Include the name, address, phone number, and e-mail address of the person making the reservation, the troop number, and the number of girls and adults participating. Consider including important dietary information on this list.
- The event registrar should regularly update the committee on the number of people registered for the event. The committee can use this information to make decisions about increasing publicity, closing registration, or cancelling the event if necessary.
- If the event fills up, a wait list can be developed and used to fill spaces created by cancellations. Troops/individuals should be notified if they are on the wait list.
- The committee should make a decision about whether or not they will accept late registrations. The committee should review and possibly revise this decision based on registration numbers.
- The event registrar should only accept registrations that are accompanied by the full registration fee. She/he should submit these funds to the event treasurer in a timely manner.
- The event registrar should be able to answer general questions about the event and forward more specific questions to the appropriate committee member.
- All registered participants should receive a confirmation package, which includes:
 - Welcome note
 - Map with directions to the event location
 - Check-in and check-out times and locations
 - Emergency number at site or number of emergency contact person
 - List of equipment or supplies to bring

- Information about food (if applicable)
- Schedule of activities
- Contact information of person to call in case of questions
- Girl Scout and Adult Volunteer Agreements (especially important if non-members are attending see samples of agreements in Tips and Tools.

Congratulations, your event is over and you are almost done. Complete the following steps to finalize your event.

- Collect evaluations from participants (girls and adults)

- Complete the online final report.

SHOWING/USING COPYRIGHTED ENTERTAINMENT MOVIES AND IMAGES

The Federal Copyright Act states that all exhibitions of videocassettes/DVDs outside one's personal residence are "public performances" and must be licensed. Showing copyrighted entertainment movies without a public performance license is copyright infringement and is illegal.

Therefore, Girl Scout members showing copyrighted entertainment movies at any event must purchase a Public Performance License, unless the facility at which the showing will take place is licensed and that license covers outside groups.

The Motion Picture Licensing Corporation , Movie Licensing USA , and Swank Motion Pictures, Inc. , grant public performance rights.

The Motion Picture Licensing Corporation is an independent copyright licensing service exclusively authorized by major Hollywood motion picture studios and independent producers to grant Umbrella Licenses to nonprofit groups, businesses, and government organizations to ensure that the public performances of home videodiscs and videocassettes comply with the Federal Copyright Act.

Movie Licensing USA, a corporate division of Swank Motion Pictures, Inc., addresses the specific Movie Public Performance Site Licensing needs of schools and public libraries. Movie Licensing USA provides an exclusive license that satisfies the copyright protection needs of the movie producers, while offering a worry-free, liability-free movie license.

Swank Motion Pictures, Inc., is a major movie distributor and a public performance licensing agent in non-theatrical markets where feature entertainment movies are shown. Swank Motion Pictures, Inc., has exclusive distribution arrangements in many markets with most American movie producers for the motion pictures seen in theaters. Creating an account requires basic information (shipping and billing addresses, contact person, telephone number, fax number, and an e-mail address), and pricing varies by format, title, and venue.

Licenses do not permit: outdoor showings; admission or other fees charged, and advertising/publicizing to the general public.

Images in files downloaded from the web must be checked for usage rights. Anyone can browse the Web, but usage rights come into play if you're looking for content that you can take and use above and beyond fair use. Site owners can use licenses to indicate if and how content on their sites can be reused.

Find all types of reusable content using the Advanced Search page on Google.

The usage rights filter on the Advanced Search page shows you pages that are either labeled with a Creative Commons license or labeled as being in the public domain. Here are the different usage rights options available:

- Free to use or share Your results will only include pages that are either labeled as public domain or carry a license that allows you to copy or redistribute its content, as long as the content remains unchanged.
- Free to use, share, or modify Your results will only include pages that are labeled with a license that allows you to copy, modify, or redistribute in ways specified in the license.
- If you want content for commercial use, be sure to select the appropriate option containing the term commercially.

If you're looking for reusable images, use the Advanced Image Search page. In addition to images labeled as being under the Creative Commons license or in the public domain, the usage rights filter in the image below also shows you images labeled with the GNU Free Documentation license.

In the Usage Rights drop-down, select one of the following options:

- Labeled for reuse Your results will only include images labeled with a license that allows you to copy and/or modify the image in ways specified in the license

- Labeled for commercial reuse Your results will only include images labeled with a license that allows you to copy the image for commercial purposes, in ways specified in the license
- Labeled for reuse with modification Your results will only include images labeled with a license that allows you to copy and modify the image in ways specified in the license

- Labeled for commercial reuse with modification Your results will only include images labeled with a license that allows you to copy the image for commercial purposes and modify it in ways specified in the license

FOOD SAFETY

The information below should be read and understood by any event volunteers involved in the preparation and service of event food. For additional food safety information, visit the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health website, <http://www.publichealth.lacounty.gov/> or call your local Department of Health office.

Factors that Contribute to Foodborne Illness:

- Improper cooling
- Employees who are infected or practice poor personal hygiene
- Inadequate cooking
- Improper hot storage
- Inadequate reheating; use of leftovers
- Contaminated raw foods
- Cross-contamination
- Improper cleaning and sanitizing of equipment
- Toxic substances
- Unsafe food sources
- Poor food storage practices

Cooling Potentially Hazardous Food

Disease growing bacteria grows best in temperatures ranging from 41 °F to 140° F (this range is known as the danger zone). You want to take foods through this range as quickly as possible.

All potentially hazardous food must be cooled:

- From 140° F to 70° F within two hours. If this is not reached, the food must be reheated to 165°F and the cooling process restarted
- From 70° F to 41°F or lower within four hours-If this is not reached, the food must be discarded

Guidelines

- Never allow food to sit at room temperature to cool
- Refrigerate or cool food on ice immediately after cooking
- Use small metal containers (when possible) to cool foods quickly
- Uncovered foods chill more quickly. Rapidly chill food and then cover
- Use blast chillers when possible

Required Internal Temperature Chart

Food	Required Internal Temperature
Raw animal foods and foods containing raw animal foods (unless listed below):	Must be cooked to 145° F for at least 15 seconds
Pork, ostrich, emu, injected meats, ground meats, and eggs	Must be cooked to 155° F for at least 15 seconds or 150° F for above one minute or 145° F for above three minutes
Poultry, stuffed food products, stuffing containing fish, meat, poultry, and wild game	Must be cooked to 165° F or above for 15 seconds

Beef and corned beef roasts	Roasts have specific temperature requirements based on oven type and weight of roast. Contact MDH for more specific information
Foods cooked in the microwave	Must be cooked to 165°. The product must be covered, and rotated or stirred throughout the cooking process. After the cooking, allow the product to stand for two minutes prior to serving.
Cooked foods being kept warm for service	If hot holding of a cooked product is necessary, the food must be maintained at 140° F
Foods to be reheated	Food that is reheated for service must be reheated to 165°F. Reheating must be done rapidly and this temperature must be reached within two hours. Steam tables, warmers, and slow cookers are not suitable means of reheating

Preventing Cross Contamination

- Do not allow raw food to come into contact with cooked food
- Have separate cutting boards designated for the following: raw vegetables and fruit, raw chicken, raw beef and game, raw fish, and cooked foods
- Clean and sanitize equipment after each use
- Wash and sanitize all utensils after each use
- Wash and sanitize all cutting boards after each use
- Wash hands frequently and thoroughly using proper hand washing procedures
- Air dry all dishes and equipment. Do not use dish towels

Proper Hand Washing Procedure

1. Wet: Wet hands using warm running water (water should be as hot as possible without being uncomfortable)
2. Soap: Use soap, preferably antibacterial
3. Lather: Lather the entire hand well beyond the wrists
4. Wash: Work all surfaces thoroughly including wrists, palms, backs of hands, fingers, and under fingernails. Scrub for 15-20 seconds. Sing the alphabet
5. Rinse: Thoroughly rinse with clean running water. Be careful not to touch the sides of the sink
6. Dry: Dry hands completely using a paper towel. Use another paper towel to turn off the faucet and avoid re-soiling your hands

“Hand washing is the single most important means of not spreading infection in the U.S.” U.S. Center for Disease Control

Proper Hand Washing Must Be Used...

- Before beginning to prepare food
- After using the restroom
- After break time, smoking, eating, or drinking
- After any absence from a workstation
- After chewing gum or using toothpicks
- After coughing, sneezing, blowing, or touching your nose
- After touching head, hair, mouth, sore, or wounds
- After touching raw poultry, eggs, meat, or fish
- After touching dirty dishes, equipment, and utensils
- After touching trash, floors, soiled linens, etc.
- After using cleaners or chemicals
- During food preparation as necessary

Individuals with the following symptoms/illnesses should NOT be permitted to prepare or serve food:

- Symptoms caused by illness, infection, or other source that is associated with diarrhea, infection, vomiting, or other acute gastrointestinal illness
- Jaundice
- A boil, infected wound or other lesion containing pus that is open or draining unless it is covered by a dry, durable, tight fitting bandage or other impermeable cover such as a plastic glove or finger cot
- Is infected with Salmonella, Shigella, Escherichia coli (E coli), other enteric bacterial pathogen or the hepatitis A virus

EVENT FOOD AND INCLUSIVENESS

Some food restrictions:

	Kosher foods are foods made in accordance to the Kashrut, the body of Jewish dietary laws. There are many different elements of keeping kosher including: abstaining from all pork products, certain animal parts, and non-kosher grape beverages, as well as never eating meat and dairy together.
	Halal foods are foods made in accordance to Islamic Law. There are many different elements of keeping halal including: abstaining from all pork products and alcohol and only eating animals that have been slaughtered in the name of Allah.
	Food allergies must be taken very seriously as allergic reactions range from rash and itchy eyes to anaphylaxis (shock). The most common food allergens are: milk, eggs, peanuts, wheat, soy, tree nuts, and shellfish.
	Vegetarians are individuals who abstain from eating all meat (beef, pork, poultry, game, and fish) or any other product that involves animal flesh (gelatin, lard, etc.). Vegans abstain from eating all animal products including meat, dairy, eggs, and honey.

Tips for event food and inclusiveness:

- Provide an area on the registration form for participants to note any food allergies and food restrictions that individuals involved in planning and preparing the event's food are made aware of any food allergies and restrictions. For more information about food allergies, visit <http://www.foodallergy.org/>
- If you are unsure as to the extent of someone's food allergies or food restrictions, contact the individual before the event to gather more information. They may also be able to help you to find foods that will meet their needs (for example, gluten-free bread, tofu, or Halal beef)
- Due to the potential severity of an allergic reaction, the committee may wish to avoid high allergy items, such as peanuts, when planning a menu
- If the menu item includes meat, consider also offering a vegetarian or vegan offering. You will be surprised how many non-vegetarians enjoy it as well

OTHER USEFUL EVENT FOOD INFORMATION

General Tips:

- Serve kid-friendly food. Adults will often eat food that kids like, but the reverse is not always true
- Make sure that the menu is based on a healthy balanced diet including a variety of fruits and vegetables
- Have plenty of beverages available at all times. It is important for both adults and girls to stay hydrated during all seasons
- Have coffee and tea available for the adults
- If buying only one type of milk, one percent is a good option that will suit most participants
- Review menus and make sure that you purchase all of the necessary ingredients including basics such as salt, pepper, and oil
- Prepare a chart that lists out the basic menu for each meal of the day. These lists can be displayed in the kitchen so volunteers have a visual record to work from for each meal. Be sure to note the time that each meal needs to be served. If the meal is being served in shifts, be sure to include the number of people in each shift

Serving sizes:

- Before ordering or purchasing food, determine the number of servings required (make sure you include volunteers and committee members). Assume one serving per person unless you are only offering one dish in which case you might need to adjust higher
- If purchasing food, round up quantities to the nearest package or case; it is better to have a little bit extra than not enough
- When working with recipes, make sure that you are aware of the number of servings the recipe makes. You will then have to multiply the amount of ingredients accordingly. For example, if your recipe for Blondie's serves 10, and you need 80 servings for the event, you will need to multiply the quantities of all ingredients by eight
- If no recipe is being used (for example, bread for sandwiches or cereal) use the nutritional information to determine the number of servings per package
- When determining serving sizes for event beverages, consider the size of the glasses you will be using at the event. Calculate this based on no more than a sixteen-ounce size

EVENT BUDGET WORKSHEET

You can use this form to create your budget or you can download the Microsoft Excel GS Event Budget Tool from Cool Tools / Events to create your budget.

To use the worksheet:

1. Enter all of the information after receiving estimates.
2. Determine the number of paying participants. You need to have an idea of how many participants are coming, so if you have an event that normally attracts 50 participants, plan for 50. But if you're holding a new event, plan for about 1/2 to 3/4 of the members in each troop invited.
3. Add up all of the costs in the Individual Costs and put the total in Box A. Then add up all of the group costs and put the total in Box B.
4. Take the total group cost in Box B and divide it by the number of paying participants that you plan on attending, write that total in Box C.
5. Add Box C and Box A together. Place your total in Box D.
6. The total in Box D will then be your final total cost per paying participant.

SAMPLE EMERGENCY PLAN

Every event should have a plan for emergencies. Large events have additional needs to develop an Emergency Plan and should take additional time in the planning process to develop a more comprehensive emergency system. Be able to fill in the blanks to make the plans for your event safe.

1. The fire department serving the location of our event is _____. We have sent them a letter requesting assistance in case of fire and notifying them of the dates, number of people on site and name of the person in charge.
2. The emergency signal will be _____. This signal will be heard at no other time. The person(s) to sound the alarm is _____. The alarm is located _____. The drill will be held _____. Note: Tell the site manager your signal and when you plan the drill so they are prepared.
3. When the alarm is sounded:
 - a. Troop leaders are responsible to assemble the girls quickly and quietly into a buddy line and take a count of girls and adults present. All troop adults assemble with the troop. Others on site, (program, administrative and kitchen staff) assemble _____.
 - b. Walk quickly and quietly to the assembly area and report the count to _____, the person in charge or send a pre-designated runner to report and receive instructions. Note: The layout and distances on your site will help you determine which plan to use. The important thing is to be able to quickly account for each person at the event including those on out on hikes, etc. Have a procedure for individuals and groups to check out if they are leaving the main area.
 - c. The person responsible for determining that everyone is present and accounted for is _____. This person is in charge of the group. Note: This should not be the Event Director. The Director will be needed elsewhere in case of a real emergency.
4. In the event of a temporary or permanent evacuation:
 - a. The Director is the on-site contact for the Girl Scouts in dealing with fire and emergency personnel. She/he coordinates the efforts of others on the Girl Scout team.
 - b. _____ is responsible to assure that there is a first aid kit(s) and roster available to take with the evacuating group. The roster should include the name and number of the event in-town contact, the names and numbers of the troop/group in-town contacts and basic information on participants. If time permits, she/he takes health histories and emergency medical treatment forms on everyone, and any prescription medications used by participants.
 - c. The communications coordinator will be _____. This person is responsible to notify the Council according to the Council Emergency Procedures.
 - i. Report your location, status, name and phone number of the in- town contact for the event, evacuation center if known and telephone number where you can be reached. If cell phone service is not available, stay by the telephone to receive communication and relay information to the Event Director. Have coins or credit card available if using a pay phone.
 - d. The site security person will be _____. This person is responsible for coordination with the event personnel and dealing with any media contact until a Council spokesperson arrives, as specified in the Council Emergency Procedures. If possible arrange for drinking water and snacks to be taken to the evacuation site.

- e. Remind leaders: panic is your own worst enemy. Keep the children and yourself thinking about things other than what might happen "if". Sing, talk quietly, keep yourselves organized and ready to immediately follow instructions. You will receive instructions about what to do about the "things". Do not risk injury to yourself or others by returning to the site to gather up possessions.

f. If fire is in our site we will walk to _____.

Wildfire

Because you sent them a letter, the fire officials will know you are in the area and will come to you if an evacuation is necessary.

Fire at the site

- a. The planning team must gather information from non-Council owned sites as to their preparation for emergencies. Girl Scout adults should be aware of the location of fire extinguishers and other fire fighting tools provided by the site. Girl Scout adults' first responsibility is the safety of the girls.
- b. Know the location of the telephone and if cell service is available. Post the name, address and nearest cross streets or directions to the site. When dialing 911, don't panic; stay on the phone to give the dispatcher location, circumstances, number of persons involved, and other information requested.
- c. Become familiar with the area surrounding the site. Select a location you could reach by walking if it became necessary to evacuate because of a fire in the site. The location should be large enough to accommodate the entire group and be clear of flammable materials.

Missing Person

The use of the buddy system, a check in/out system, and adequate adult supervision must be thoroughly covered in the pre-event information. Encourage the leaders to review with the girls what to do if they become separated from the group (stay put, hug a tree) and to orient them to the site when they arrive so the girls will know where their area is in relation to other facilities.

In the event a person is reported missing:

- a. Obtain a description of the missing person - hair, eyes, clothing, weight and height.
- b. Determine when and where the person was last seen. Stay calm so you don't frighten other children.
- c. Discover, if possible, the state of mind of the missing person. Was she depressed, angry or threatening to run away? Did she fall behind on a hike or leave to visit a friend in another area?
- d. Conduct a thorough search of the missing person's area, toilet facility, sleeping area, etc. Missing children have been found napping in their sleeping bags inside messy tents!
- e. If the person cannot be found, conduct an all-site fire drill. Use extra adults to conduct a wider search of the property and return to search the missing person's area. If appropriate, use lines of rescuers working side by side to sweep the area.
- f. If the person cannot be found, the emergency communications coordinator contacts the Council according to Council Emergency Procedures. The Director should make contact requesting assistance from the site ranger/manager.
- g. Do not ignore the remaining participants. Be calm and positive. Acknowledge their fears and move on to another activity.

Earthquake

Should a major earthquake occur during your event, your knowledge of earthquake preparedness and follow up will be tested. The situation will require you to use judgment, stay calm, and assure others. Some general tips:

1. See that first aid is given to anyone who is injured according to the instructions of the health care supervisor/event first aider.
2. Instruct people to stay away from buildings until they have been checked for safe occupancy.
3. Provide supervision, reassure them and have program activities for the girls.
4. Put out any fires if possible. If you still have water pressure, start water running into sinks, containers, etc. If there are water leaks, try to shut off the valve to the leak. Sniff for gas leaks. Turn off electrical power at the circuit breakers if there is damage to the system.
5. Communication may be difficult. If possible contact the local authorities and the Council. Be prepared to deal with girls and adults wanting to contact families. A portable radio with batteries should be part of your emergency equipment.

Unfamiliar person/intruder on the site

1. All visitors should check in with the site headquarters. When the visitor is a person not familiar to most of the adult participants, the visitor should be accompanied by a staff member or have some identification that they "belong" on site.
2. Obtain information for the site manager/ranger so you will know if any deliveries, repairmen, or others are expected on the site during your stay.
3. During the pre-event information session, remind the adults that their sleeping area assignment will be made so they can readily detect intruders and offer immediate help to the girls if need be.
4. Intruders should be questioned to ascertain who they are and why they are on the site. Be polite, but firm. Maintain some distance from the person or vehicle. Give assistance if reasonable, i.e., directions, but do not reveal anything but general information about the Girl Scout group event. Do not allow the person to use the telephone within a cabin or area where girls are present. Use of a pay phone may be appropriate, or offer to make the call. Escort the person from the site, or observe to be sure they have departed. Record the make, model and license number of the vehicle.
5. Event staff should not endanger themselves or the girls by attempting to pursue or apprehend an apparent prowler. Contact the site manager/ranger and/or seek help from law enforcement officials by dialing 911.

*Participants - adult participants who are doing activities and using supplies just like the girls should bear part of the expense of the event, just like the girls.

Event fee – determine the total estimated number of participants (80 girls and 20 paying adults). Things happen and participants will cancel out of the event, so base your budget on only 75% of the estimated number of participants (total participants x .75 = 75 payees) Use this number to help set your event fee. Next, take your total expenses and divide by the number of payees determined in the previous step. This will give you a dollar amount. Round it up to the next full whole or half dollar, which will give you a small cushion to cover a few participants who may be unable to pay. If you want to cover more than two or three scholarships, add that as a line item in your estimated expenses.

POST EVENT EVALUATIONS

All events should include post event evaluations. The questions should be related to the purpose of the event. Evaluations can be filled out at the event itself in troop meetings (good for the girls) or online (adults and older girls). The adults' evaluation will be more comprehensive and include questions on the planning process, communications, scheduling, site, fees, quality of the experience, and food service as well as program activities. The girls' evaluation could be done as individuals, buddies or whole troop. Questions should be few, simple and related to things girls are directly involved in.
