Little Village Remembers Amy Hagedorn

It is with great sadness that we acknowledge the passing of Amy Hagedorn. Those of you that knew Amy, understand that we lost an incredibly kind, generous, compassionate friend. Amy and her husband Horace dedicated themselves to improving the lives of others. They shared their considerable wealth with organizations throughout Long Island to help charities and programs that provided services to those in need. The Hagedorn Little Village School proudly bears their name in recognition of Amy and Horace's generosity. Their contributions helped us to realize the vision that our founders, Caryl Bank and Barbara Feingold had; to have a permanent, state-of-the-art facility in which to provide critical educational and therapeutic services to children and families with disabilities.

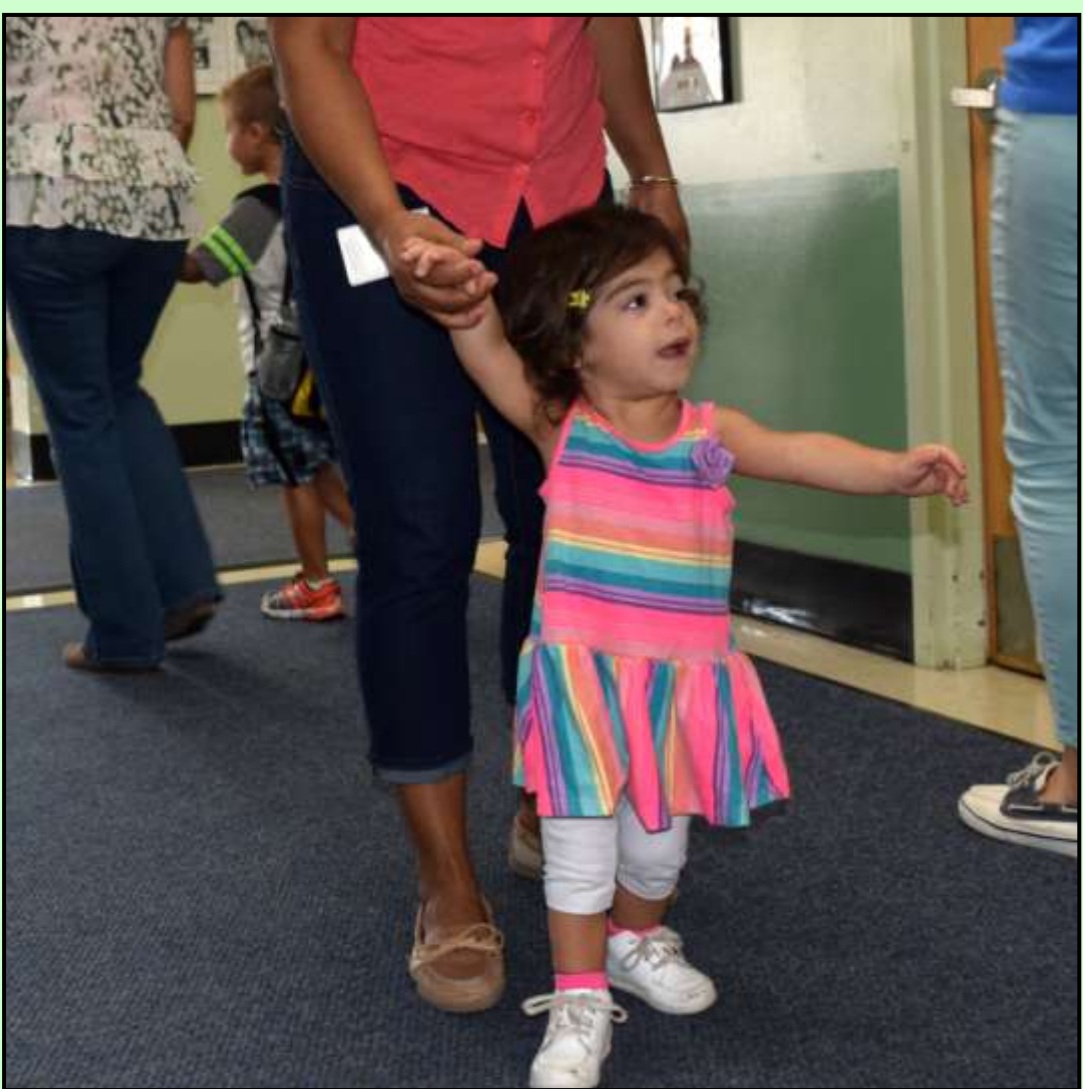

Amy continued her involvement and generosity with us through the years, co-chairing our Development Committee with John Watras. She introduced us to many of her extended family members who were also generous with their donations and time. Amy will be greatly missed by many, and very much so by the extended network of family and friends at The Hagedorn Little Village School, Jack Joel Center for Special Children.

Treatment of Pediatric Feeding Disorders: Targeting Chewing Skills and the Aberrant Sensory System

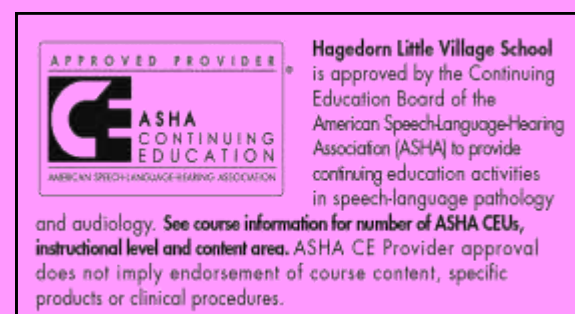

Presenter:

Louisa Ferrara, MS, CCC-SLP, BCS-S

This whole day workshop will focus on 2 specific, yet correlated feeding difficulties: an aberrant sensory system and disordered chewing skills. This course will teach numerous interventions to provide the audience with immediately applicable strategies to use with their caseload. A strong focus on developmental appropriateness, research efficacy and parent training is intertwined into the material to help support rationales made for these difficulties.

The use of videos and real life experience makes this course engaging, interactive and functional to any Speech and Language Pathologist looking to make real progress with the children on their caseload with feeding and swallowing disorders.

Mr. Softee Visits Little Village

Several of our teachers nominated Little Village for the “Sweet Rewards” Program from NSASA (the Nassau Suffolk Autism Society of America).

We were fortunate to receive the Sweet Reward and had a delicious visit from a Mr. Softee truck on Thursday, August 11. The kids and staff all had a fantastic treat!

Little Village Welcomes New Educational Supervisor

It is with great pleasure that we welcome Dan Gigliobianco as a new Educational Supervisor at HLVS! He will be supervising both preschool and school aged classes.

Dan has worked with children with disabilities through Early Intervention, CPSE, Elementary self-contained classes, and Middle School inclusion, for over twenty years. He graduated from SUNY Geneseo with a Bachelors in Communicative Disorders and Sciences, was awarded a fellowship to Hunter College for his Masters of Science in Special Education – Severe and Multiple Disabilities, and later obtained his SBL/SDL Certification through the College of St Rose. He also consulted as a parent trainer for the Resources for Children with Special Needs and was the Practicum Supervisor for Hunter College Special Education Program. Most recently, he worked in New York City with preschoolers with disabilities and started his administrative career supervising teachers in Queens and Brooklyn.

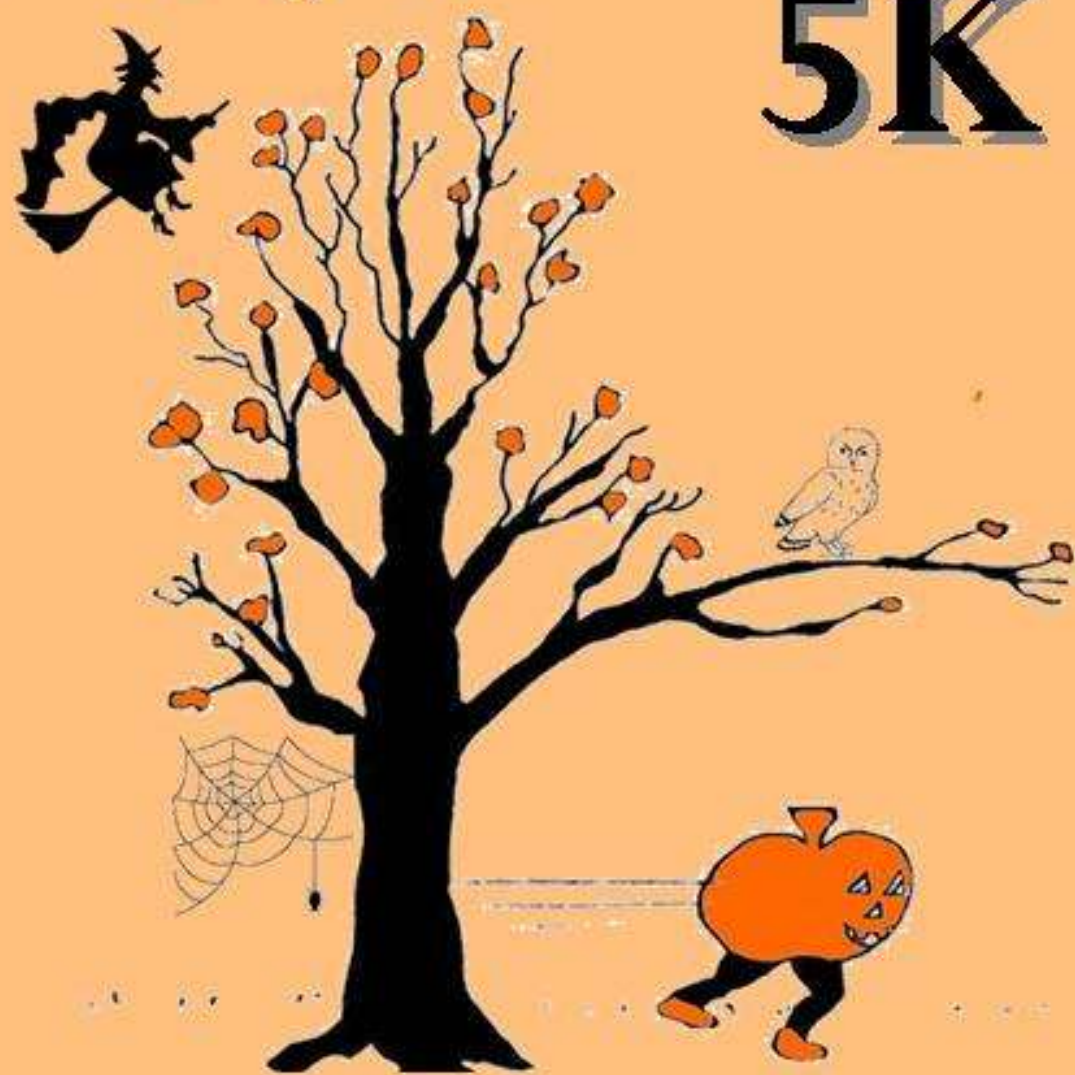

We look very forward to his long and fulfilling career at HLVS!

On Sunday, August 7th, our Little Villagers and their families attended our first ever bowling event at Farmingdale Lanes. Thank you to Kristin Maisano and Fay Reyes, Family Bowling Chairpersons, for arranging such a fun event for our families! The day was a great success and will certainly be repeated in the future!

Student Spotlight - Michael Clyne

Michael Clyne is a terrific nine year old boy who became part of the HLVS family in 2010. Since that time, he has grown from a quiet, self-directed child into an energetic, playful boy. Michael loves to research landmarks such as the Empire State Building on an iPad. He enjoys scooter rides, playground time and going to Movement Therapy. His classroom teacher, Erik, describes Michael as an active class member who helps with cooking activities and is learning to take turns and share with his friends. Michael's smile and laughter is recognizable throughout the building as he is often greeted by the many staff members who have shared in his progress over the years.

At home, Michael is surrounded by a loving family which includes his Mom, Dad and adoring older sister, Kate. They love to go to the beach and to Adventureland together. His family, especially his sister, have been advocates for Autism Awareness as a way to express their love and appreciation for Michael and the many pieces that make him who he is.
