CACAGNY Congratulates Pacific Legal Foundation

CACAGNY congratulates Pacific Legal Foundation (PLF) for its June 23 win at the U.S. Supreme Court. This is a huge victory for civil liberties, and brings PLF's amazing record at the Supreme Court to 13 wins in 15 cases.

The lawsuit, Cedar Point Nursery v. Hassid et al, might seem like an obscure fight between a fruit grower and union organizers, but at the heart of the contention is whether the State can arrogantly demand property owners to surrender their property rights, in this case to allegedly serve some social justice cause. The Supreme Court made the right decision siding with the property owners.

In the bigger picture, the right of individuals to property is a fundamental Constitutional right that is being eroded by escalating social justice agendas, much like the right of individuals to equal protection under the law is being eroded by escalating social justice agendas. Social justice is not Justice. This Cedar Point decision is one of many that the Supreme Court needs to make to stem the worsening erosion by social justice against Justice in America. It is the inalienability of our individual rights and freedoms that make America the exceptional land people from all corners of the world want to come to, and few to leave or flee from.

PLF is also CACAGNY's law firm in our lawsuit against New York City over the City's anti-Asian expansion of the Discovery program at the Specialized High Schools. PLF does this at no charge to CACAGNY, thanks to the generosity of its donors. CACAGNY is deeply grateful. And of course, CACAGNY also hopes for another PLF victory if our case reaches the Supreme Court.

If you donate to PLF at their website <https://pacificlegal.org/donate>, please indicate "CACAGNY" in the box labeled "What inspired your donation today." It's the little we can do to thank PLF for their amazing work.

Again, congratulations to PLF.
