Human trafficking is an international and domestic web of crime affecting the health of victims, young and old, male and female.

From 2012 to 2014 the State of Michigan saw a 90% increase in reported human trafficking cases and a 107% increase in calls to the National Human Trafficking Resource Center. As awareness increases, reporting increases; know the signs of human trafficking.

The State of Michigan prohibits forced labor or services, debt bondage, prohibited conduct, and specifically trafficking a minor. “Labor” is defined as work of economical or financial value. “Services” refers to an ongoing relationship between a person and an individual in which the individual performs activities under the supervision of or for the benefit of the person, including, but not limited to commercial sexual activity and sexually explicit performances. “Force, fraud, or coercion” is defined within the law as being a necessary component in cases of labor or services, debt bondage, and prohibited conduct; HOWEVER, force, fraud, or coercion are not necessary as it relates to prohibited conduct with a minor.

If you believe you or someone else may be a victim of human trafficking, call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center at 1-888-373-7888 to learn more about human trafficking and the resources that may be available to you.
